

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 8th, A. D. 1910:

A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. (Amendment constitution proposed.) That section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the state of Nebraska, the senate concurring, be so amended as to read as follows:

Section 1. (Who are electors.) Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election and of the county, precinct, or ward, for the term provided by law shall be an elector; provided, that persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States and are voting at the taking effect of this amendment, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the United States five years, after which they shall take out full citizenship papers to be entitled to vote at any succeeding election.

Section 2. (Ballots.) That at the general election nineteen hundred and ten (1910) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage," and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Section 3. (Adoption) If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute section one (1) of article seven (7) of the constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved April 1, 1909.

I, Geo. C. Junkin, Secretary of State, of the state of Nebraska do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the thirty-first session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1910.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the great seal of the State of Nebraska. Done at Lincoln, this 29th day of July, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Ten, and of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Thirty-fifth, and of this State the Forty-fourth.

GEORGE C. JUNKIN,
Secretary of State.

ARMY TO PUT ON SHOW IN OMAHA

Six Thousand of Uncle Sam's Soldiers Will Be on Exhibition.

GRAND REVIEW FOR PEOPLE.

Plan to Popularize Army, Advertise It and Show the Efficiency of Officers and Men, Results in Nebraska Getting a Big Free Show October 3 to 8.

Uncle Sam stands ready to show the people of the United States—as well as any foreign nation—the efficiency of the army, the character of its officers and men, their duties and the discipline which has been obtained through years of work and drill.

Such a demonstration is an inspiring sight; it makes the American heart beat faster to see the military forces at work. As the troops are removed from the centers of population and it is quite impossible to have many citizens visit these to review the troops, the war department has planned a series of military tournaments.

These great reviews exceed in splendor any review which could be held at any fort in the United States, as more than twice as many men are marched to the point where the tournament is held as are posted in any one fort.

Just as the agricultural department shows its work and the results of patient effort at expositions and fairs, so the war department shows its "finished products" at these military tournaments. And it is a sight well worth the seeing.

Omaha Gets the Show.

One of these tournaments will be held in Omaha Oct. 3 to Oct. 8 inclusive. A great camp will be opened there and more than 6,000 soldiers, half as many horses, pack trains, artillery batteries, field signal outfits, war balloons, great kitchens and bakeries will be located in one big field for the inspection of the people.

In Omaha is located the headquarters of the Department of the Missouri, also Fort Omaha, the home of the chief signal corps school of the United States army, and Fort Crook, the barracks of a regiment of infantry. Having these military posts close at hand, as well as the war balloon experiment station, promises to make the tournament held in Nebraska the greatest which will be held during the year of 1910.

After a tournament of five days in Des Moines, the 5,000 troops will go by train to Omaha Oct. 1 and by Oct. 3 will be in camp in that city, where they will be joined by other troops and those stationed at Omaha, thus making the number to participate in the Omaha tournament over 6,000.

Each afternoon a three-hour program will be put on, admission to the camp and tournament grounds being free to all.

The program will give the citizens who visit the tournament a complete realization of how the American troops are prepared to work on the field of action. Skirmishes for the possession of a roadway or a river crossing; the construction of bridges in seven minutes' time; thrilling wall scaling contests; cavalry charges; artillery going into action; rapid fire practice; the wireless signaling now so much used in the army; the sending up of dirigible balloons, besides all the parading of cavalry, infantry, artillery and pack trains. These are a few of the features which will be put on for the visitors.

Sham battles, in which 3,000 men on each side will participate, will give a good idea of how the United States army works when in its war paint and thousands of pounds of powder will go up in smoke for the entertainment of visitors, which is really the instruction of citizens in the work of the army.

Add to the thrilling sight, the sound of calls from a score of buglers; the martial music of the infantry; the quick, sharp drumming of mounted cavalry bands; shrill, clear commands of officers, whispered communications of orderlies while rifles crack and machine guns belch forth 3,000 round a minute—it's a picture of a lifetime to anyone, young or old.

Prizes offered amount to from $4,000 to $5,000 and will be distributed among the men making the best scores.

The tournament will be under the command of General Frederick Smith, commanding officer of the Department of the Missouri, who will be assisted by some of the best officers in the service of the United States army.

U. S. ARTILLERY IN RAPID FIRE PRACTICE

Artillery in action. First round has just been fired and weapon is being prepared for the second round. Six shots in 1 minute and 12 seconds is the record of the First Artillery which will participate in the Omaha Tournament.

TROOPERS IN "MONKEY DRILL"

Troopers in the "Monkey Drill" or rough riding exhibition at the U. S. Army Tournament at Omaha, Oct. 3 to 8. Mounting and dismounting with horses at top speed and hurdlng over the horse.

INFANTRY REGIMENTAL EXERCISE

Butt's Manual as it will be put on at the United States Army Tournament in Omaha, Oct. 3 to 8. Entire regiment of infantry going through an intricate manual of arms and sitting up exercise to the band music and with no word of command.

Douglas County Fair.

"A remarkable industrial advancement in Douglas county, as well as unusual agricultural progress, is indicated in the promises of exhibits given the managers of the Douglas county fair," said G. W. Hervey secretary of the Douglas County Agricultural society.

The fair lasts from Sept. 28 to Oct. 8, the last exhibit being received on Sept. 29, except in the poultry department, whose show opens Oct. 3.
