

New Grocery Customers

Every business day we have new customers added to our large patronage. There is a reason for this. The most satisfactory thing about it is that they continue to be our customers day after day. That certainly means that we are giving them satisfaction. We study to please our customers. We give them the goods they want, and we send out nice, clean, fresh groceries; neatly wrapped and handled by experienced delivery men who deliver them when promised. Do we make mistakes? Yes, occasionally, for with a business of the magnitude of ours some mistakes must necessarily occur but we always rectify them at once and guarantee satisfaction.

Majestic Ranges

We believe it the duty of an up-to-date hardware store to carry in stock the best goods they can secure. Discriminating people demand the best for their money. We know that the Majestic Range is the best built. Here are a few reasons:

Body is built of Charcoal Iron—adds 300% to the life. Malleable Iron is used—all joints riveted; perfectly airtight. Movable Reservoir—heated by contact; no pipes to freeze. Oven is riveted—making it absolutely airtight; saves fuel. Asbestos Lining—guaranteed, held in place by open grate; Warming Closets—malleable iron; will not break; handy doors. Lower Warming Closet—mighty handy for many purposes. Draft Door—gives perfect control of fire; saves fuel.

Other reasons—Oven doors, ash cup, oven rack, ash pan. See the ranges we have in stock. We will be glad to demonstrate them to you at any time.

Section 1. (Who are electors.) Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state six months next preceding the election and of the county, precinct, or ward, for the term provided by law shall be an elector; provided, that persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States and are voting at the taking effect of this amendment, may continue to exercise the right of suffrage until such time as they may have resided in the United States five years, after which they shall take out full citizenship papers to be entitled to vote at any succeeding election.

Approved April 1, 1909.

I, Geo. C. Junkin, Secretary of State, of the state of Nebraska do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is a true and correct copy of the original enrolled and engrossed bill, as passed by the thirty-first session of the legislature of the State of Nebraska, as appears from said original bill on file in this office, and that said proposed amendment is submitted to the qualified voters of the state of Nebraska for their adoption or rejection at the general election to be held on Tuesday, the 8th day of November, A. Get Ready for the Start

There are many who are all in trim for the start in the Bible contest, which commences next week. There are, however, probably many who have been thinking of entering the contest, but who have not yet definitely decided to do so, and it is time they got into line. The Herald is a prime necessity, and unless you order at once you may be left without a paper from which to cut coupons certifying that the necessary reading has been done. There is only one coupon in a paper, so that a copy is essential for every competitor. If you have not already ordered the paper you had better do so, and if you have what better blessing could you confer upon some friend than by inducing him or her to take up this easy Bible study course and sending The Herald during the term it covers? Think about this and "do it now."

We take this opportunity of thanking the large number who have spoken words of appreciation to their friends of these "Suggestive Questions." A revival of Bible study promoted by the secular Press is causing all good people to rejoice.

Suggestive Questions for November 6th

The Last Supper, Matt. xxvi:17-30. Golden Text—This is my body which is given for you, this do in remembrance of me. Luke 22:19.

Verse 17—What was the feast of the passover, and what did it commemorate?

What purpose does the feast of the passover serve as evidence of Bible history?

What is the practical benefit of anniversaries, religious, national and personal?

Verse 18—Has Jesus the right to-day, as in that day, to invite himself and friends to any man's house? Why?

Was Jesus "time," for his crucifixion, a necessary or a contingent event, i. e., was the event fixed by God or would he have preferred that the Jews had accepted, and not rejected Jesus?

Verse 19—What are the advantages of making proper preparation, in advance, for religious services, that is of the heart and mind, as well as for the place and the services themselves?

Verse 20—Which time is preferable for the most solemn and impressive service, the morning or the "even," and why?

Would it tend to spirituality, and cultivate a spirit of love and unity, if the children of God were to sit down and eat together, at their experience, or prayer meetings? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verse 21—Did Jesus know that Judas was going to betray him from passing events, or supernaturally? Give your reasons.

If human actions are contingent, and not necessary, how can God know in advance what they are going to be?

Verses 22-23—Were the loyal disciples actually in doubt, as to whether they were going to betray Jesus, and, whether or not, what was their state of mind?

Are there some acts which we may be absolutely sure we will never commit, or should we always stand in doubt of ourselves? Give your reasons.

Verses 24-25—Could Judas have refrained from betraying Jesus, and have been loyal to him, had he chosen to do so? Give your reasons.

Verses 26-28—Did Jesus' blessing of the bread and the wine change its nature and if not, what effect did it have?

What was the precise thought Jesus meant to convey by the words, "this is my body," and "this is my blood?"

What reasons are there to believe that Jesus meant this sacrament, of the Lord's supper, to be kept up perpetually?

What blessed purposes are served by keeping up the Lord's supper?

Verses 29-30—Will there be eating and drinking in heaven and, whether or not, what did Jesus mean by these words?

Hallow'en at St. Agnes Academy

One of the jolliest Hallow'en parties was held at St. Agnes Academy, participated in by the Sisters and scholars. The rooms were beautifully decorated with black, yellow and white crepe paper. The entertainment began with an appropriate little farce, "The Spooks," followed by comic songs and recitations. The program of the evening was varied, every part of which was thoroughly enjoyed, but one of the most interesting was the initiation into the "Order of Silence."

Fortune telling was a part of the program preceding the serving of a lunch for which the merriment of the evening had given the company splendid appetites. Dancing closed the evening's entertainment, except that part of it which consisted of innocent tricks which the scholars played on each other after going to their dormitory.

Birthday Surprise Party

Friday, October 21st, was the fifty-first birthday anniversary of Mrs. H. E. Boon. A number of her friends planned a surprise party for the evening of that day, but owing to sickness in the Boon home the party was postponed till last Friday evening, when a company of about thirty assembled, after spending the evening most pleasantly, enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Boon and family, the company dispersed, wishing their hosts many returns of the day. Mrs. Boon was the recipient of a number of nice presents, one of which was an elegant parlor suit, consisting of five pieces, from her husband.

Woman's Club Meets

The Alliance Woman's Club had a very interesting session last Friday afternoon. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Fred Mollring and the spacious home was decorated in the club colors, with red and white carnations in profusion.

Mrs. W. C. Nicholson sang a beautiful solo, Mrs. B. Ponath accompanying on the piano. Several songs were given by the chorus, after which a delicious three-course luncheon was served.

600 Dozen Cocoons

It was recently stated in The Herald that the Woman's Club of Alliance would pay five cents per dozen for all cocoons collected and turned in by the children.

Up to date there have been just about six hundred dozen turned in and paid for. This means a total of 7,200 cocoons picked from the trees of Alliance. We know no better way than this to help improve this city and save the trees.

When it comes to advocating municipal improvement, this club of energetic women is always in the front. Alliance owes a great deal to them.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at F. J. Brennan's.

Some Big Corn

Peter Rubendall, of the real estate firm of Dineen & Rubendall, brought six of the finest ears of corn we have ever seen into The Herald office last Saturday. One ear measured thirteen inches in length and weighed twenty-three ounces.

This corn, which is Yellow Dent, was grown this year on a farm belonging to Mr. Rubendall in Nance county, near Fullerton. He has two hundred and fifty acres of corn on his farm.

Small Blaze

Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, the fire department was called out to quell a blaze on the roof of the Watson building, occupied by Wilson's second-hand store.

A gasoline stove used to heat tar for roofing, exploded and what might have been a serious fire was narrowly averted.

Hallow'en Dance a Success

The Hallow'en dance given at the Phelan opera house Monday evening was a success in every way. The music was good, the floor well filled, and everyone there voted it the best dance given in Alliance for a long time. St. Matthew's choir is complimented on the success of their enterprise. Mrs. J. T. Wiker and orchestra furnished the music.

Changed to Afternoon

The time of holding Sunday school and preaching service at Fairview church has been changed from forenoon to afternoon; Sunday school every Sunday at 2 p.m., and preaching at 3 p.m. on second and fourth Sundays of each month.

Return from Idaho Visit

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Nason and Mrs. Charles Linscott of Brownfield, Maine, arrived Monday noon on their return from a visit of a little more than two weeks in Idaho. The objective point of their visit was Weiser, near which place Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Libby and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reed and family reside. Mrs. Nason, Mrs. Linscott and Mrs. Reed are sisters, and it seems almost superfluous to say that their visit was one of the most enjoyable events of their lives. Mr. Nason thinks that part of Idaho a wonderful fruit country. He saw some apple trees which were literally loaded down with the most beautiful and delicious fruit.
