Death of Elmer McIntyre

A telegram was received Monday telling of the death in a railroad wreck of Elmer McIntyre, so well known in this city. Words cannot express the sorrow that this news has brought to many hearts here. The remains are now on the way to Alliance for the funeral, which will be held at the Baptist church at three o'clock Friday afternoon. Rev. J. L. B. Jones will conduct the service and preach the funeral sermon. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

It is with unfeigned sorrow that we chronicle the untimely demise of this bright young man. The afflicted relatives have our sympathy.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough, or weak lungs 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. J. Brennan."

News of Former Allianceites

The following clipping from the Denver Post of the ninth instant may be of interest to some Alliance people. The parties mentioned were residents of Alliance about ten years ago, going from here to Denver.

Miss Allen S. Grogan, whose brother William was killed in a wreck on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad in 1909, yesterday lost her suit against the Travelers' Insurance company for the amount of his insurance, $6,450, but was granted a new trial for her $25,000 damage suit against the railroad company.

Only a part of William Grogan's insurance premium had been paid at the time of his death, and the court held that this did not entitle the sister to collect the amount of the policy. At the same time the attorneys for the railroad asked that her action against the company be thrown out of court. The woman had already secured a verdict for $13,000 damages against the road in a previous suit. Judge Riddle, in the district court, denied the petition of the road, and Miss Grogan will have her case again heard before a jury.

Tom Higgins and wife of Lakeside, who reside on their ranch about nine miles from that place, are making a visit to their old home and friends at Dubuque, Iowa. This is their first visit there since leaving twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Norton Entertains Womans' Club

Mrs. W. W. Norton entertained the Woman's Club of Alliance at her home Friday afternoon, and the spacious residence was filled with delighted guests. Several very interesting papers on French art were read and the musical numbers by the club chorus were thoroughly enjoyed.

At the meeting Mrs. B. Mewhirrer, who was club delegate to the State Convention at Tecumseh, October 24, 25 and 26th, gave a full report of the convention. Mrs. Gift, of Falls City, was elected President, and Mrs. Paul, of St. Paul, was elected District Vice President and will have supervision of the Sixth Congressional District, which includes Alliance.

After a delicious luncheon, served in the inimitable style which makes dining at the Norton home a long remembered pleasure, the Club adjourned to meet two weeks later.

Crowded Out

With a page of election news for this issue of The Herald, much interesting matter is crowded out this week. Included in the items crowded out is a most interesting communication from Mrs. J. J. Vance, press superintendent of the Alliance W. C. T. U., but as the ladies will be so pleased over the result of the election in Nebraska they will probably not miss the W. C. T. U. department much this week.

City Council Meets

Wednesday evening the city council assembled in special meeting to consider the bids for installing the city sewer in district 29, which is in the southeast part of Alliance. The contract was let to E. C. Young & Co., for a consideration of $2,400. Work is to be commenced at once.

STRASBURGER

Scatter the sunshine, banish the gloom. Good motto, isn't it?

The Presbyterian Sunday school at Strasburger had an election last Sunday afternoon in which Mrs. Speer was elected superintendent, Mrs. Starr assistant superintendent, John B. Strasburger chorister, and Louis Wall secretary-treasurer.

A. H. Brown of Hastings, Nebraska, spent Monday night and Tuesday with John B. Strasburger. Hope he will come again.

Mrs. Strasburger is having an excellent time. Clark Norris, her brother-in-law, took her and all her brothers and sister in his large touring car and sped away to Princeton where they were to dine with cousin Fred Norris.

Harry McMillan is improving his farm by building a nice frame barn and hen house.

Mr. Heywood is to make wells for Wm. Philport and Harry McMillan.

We have some excellent water in the hills, and it isn't fire water either. No body ever gets any here unless there is something radically wrong with his department of the interior. No more snakes here. Jules Sandoz killed them all.

Wm., John B., Jr. and Harrison Strasburger and Fred Bennett are all husking corn on the Strasburger farms. They have over 100 acres to pick which will yield at least fifty bushels per acre.

Marquard Peterson reports his only brother who was very ill somewhat better.

Neighbor Starr's sight seems to be improving. Trust that before long he will be completely restored to health.

Ben Johnson of Hemingford has shipped a car load of hogs to Omaha, Monday he purchased a corn fed Box Butte county hog, weighing exactly 400 pounds. The oldest thing about it was that he guessed the exact weight. The hog brought thirty dollars, which makes it look as if hog raising is profitable here.
