Autumn Weddings

POTMESIL-BURRI

It affords us unusual pleasure and gives opportunity to extend congratulations and best wishes through The Herald to record the wedding of Mr. Frank L. Potmesil and Mrs. Clara Burri, which happy event took place at 6 p. m. last Sunday evening, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alexander Beck, in Omaha, Rev. E. B. Curry, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of that city officiating.

The bride, who has been residing with her mother near Hemingford, was formerly a successful teacher in this county and is highly respected by her many acquaintances. The groom, one of Box Butte's enterprising young men, is known to many Herald readers. Recently he has been holding a position in a lumber office at Wymore, but has resigned there to accept a position in the office of Div. Supt. W. M. Weidenbamer at Alliance.

We are glad that Mr. and Mrs. Potmesil will make their home in Alliance, and in behalf of the good people of the city we bid them a cordial welcome.

WINING-BOON

One of the most happy events of the week in Alliance was the wedding of Mr. Howard Wining and Miss Gladys M. Boon, last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boon. The nuptial knot was tied according to the ritual of the Methodist Episcopal church by John W. Thomas, editor of The Herald. Promptly at six o'clock, to the strains of music furnished by Miss Lottie Owens at the piano, the bridal pair entered the parlor, accompanied by Miss Martha Wining and Miss Margaret Hassenstab, bridesmaids, and Mr. Harry Wining and Mr. Clarence Kisner, who acted as best men. After the ceremony which united the destinies of the two young lives had been performed, heartiest congratulations and best wishes were offered by the large company, more than fifty persons being present. A sumptuous supper was served in the large upstairs rooms of the new Boon residence.

It seems almost superfluous to say that The Herald congratulates and extends best wishes. The bride, one of Alliance's most estimable young ladies, is well known here and south of the city in the neighborhood of her father's ranch. The groom is an industrious young man of sterling worth. He is a native of Pennsylvania, his parents now residing in Minnesota. While his acquaintance in Alliance is not as large, he is well liked by those who know him. He evidently believes in having "the cage ready for the bird", as he had the cottage south of the Boon residence well furnished for a home before the wedding, which means that they will continue to make this city their residence.

SNAVELY-McDONALD

By one of those mishaps that sometimes occur in a printing office, announcement of the marriage of Mr. Ora S. Snavely and Miss Mary McDonald, which was handed us for publication, failed to get into The Herald columns at the proper time, which we regret. The wedding of these two highly respected Alliance people occurred at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Oct. 27, 1910, Rev. J. L. B. Jones, D. D., Ph. D., performing the ceremony. Although somewhat late in extending congratulations and best, they are none the less cordial.

The groom is a C. B. & O. fireman and we are pleased to learn that he and his estimable young wife will make their home in this city.

New Meat Market.

W. R. Drake and J. R. Barb, doing business under the firm name of Drake & Barb, have opened the Cash Meat Market in their new building at 517 Sweetwater avenue, and already have a heavy trade. Mr. Drake, who is an experienced butcher, has charge of that part of the business, while Mr. Barb, who is a stockman, does the buying of the live stock. They thought to do a little business before the new building was completed, selling from the cellar of Mr. Drake's residence, but their trade grew so rapidly that they soon had almost more than they could handle from the inconvenient quarters. Now, however, they are prepared to take care of any amount of trade that may come to them.

We call attention to their advertisement in this issue of The Herald.

Turkeys Wanted

One week from today is Thanksgiving day, and neither The Herald editor nor the office foreman has a turkey provided for the day. For the first two turkeys brought us on subscription to the paper we will allow twenty cents per pound, live weight. All turkeys brought us on subscription, after the first two, received at market price.

NORTON'S

Irrigation Ass'n Organized

The Nebraska State Irrigation Association held the first meeting in Bridgeport on the 15th and 16th. This organization meeting was attended by nearly a hundred delegates. The Herald reporter was present and the next issue of the Herald will contain a full account of the proceedings. This marks a new epoch in the history of western Nebraska and the report of the meeting will be read with interest.

Coming in an Aeroplane

I have so many homes to visit and my reindeers are getting so old that I am going to try an aeroplane. I hope to reach my headquarters for northwestern Nebraska—the BEE HIVE store, Alliance—Christmas Eve at 11 p. m. From there I will visit my little friends. SANTA CLAUS. 49-11-262

Quarterly Conferences.

The first quarterly conference of the Alliance M. E. church for the year 1910-11, will be held at the church on Saturday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. Rev. A. R. Julian, D. D., district superintendent, will preside.

The quarterly conference of the Alliance circuit of the M. E. church will be held at 2 o'clock p. m. of that day in the church at Alliance.

Fire at Hemingford.

Last Friday night Norbert Frohnapfel's garage at Hemingford burned, entailing a considerable loss. One automobile was burned, a Buick, belonging to Omar Scribner. A $500 bear and other contents of the building were destroyed, except one car, which was taken out somewhat damaged. Usually there were four or five machines in the building, but fortunately they were all but two out. There was no insurance on the building or contents.
