A Pleasant Surprise

Last Thursday evening about forty members of the Presbyterian church surprised Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pardee by calling on them in a body to help celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. The event will be remembered long and well with happy thoughts by Mr. and Mrs. Pardee, and the valuable set of silverware presented to them will serve as a useful memento of the occasion. Mr. Peter Rubendall made the presentation speech, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, his remarks being very appropriate. The "bridegroom" was arrayed in the custom of "ye olden time" and the evening was spent in laughter, with handshakes and happy returns of the day. A grand, old fashioned time was had and the overjoyed couple forgot for the time being the weight of delinquent years, and seemed a happy young bride and groom again. Like the Psalmist of old they felt that their lines had fallen in pleasant places. That the days of these good Alliance people may be prolonged in the earth is the wish of this paper, and may they live to see many more wedding anniversaries pass as pleasantly as this one.

Died

Mrs. Elizabeth Pye, wife of I. R. Pye, of Morrill, Nebraska, died in Alliance Tuesday evening at about eight o'clock. She had been taking treatment for cancer of the breast at the Dr. Nichols Sanatorium in Hot Springs, S. D., but was supposed to be nearly well, and was discharged as cured. Her husband met her here on Monday but she had taken a relapse and grew steadily worse until her death Tuesday night. The doctors who attended her were of the opinion that death was caused by poison from the medicine used to remove the cancer. Mr. Pye left Wednesday for their home near Morrill, where they have a family of five children.

WEDDINGS

JONES-NOFTON

What more appropriate time could there be for the union of hearts than this Thanksgiving day, when the hearts of the whole world are going out to their fellowmen? Love is the formation of all that is good and pure.

The marriage of Mary Virginia Jones, daughter of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. B. Jones, to Ward B. Norton, is to be solemnized at high noon today at the residence of the bride's father, the ceremony to be performed by Rev. A. R. Julian, D. D. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast is to be partaken of at the Norton home, where the couple will live until departing for their future home in Los Angeles.

Miss Jones is a Virginia girl, and although she has only been in Alliance a short time, her winning ways have made her a very popular young lady. Ward Norton was born in Alliance and is known to all as one of our most popular young men. Most of his education has been received here, two years having been spent in the Y. M. C. A. business college at Los Angeles. As a bright, honest young business man he has a bright future before him, and with the beautiful bride as his companion for life, we can only wish them joy and happiness.

The bride will be attired in a pale blue messaline gown and will carry white bridal roses. Miss Alice Acheson, who will be bridesmaid, will be attired in a tan wool-taffeta gown and will carry pink bridesmaid roses. The groom and groomsmen, who will be Claude McDonald, will be attired in the conventional black.

The wedding is to be performed under an arch decorated with white bells, smilax and roses.

A magnificent wedding present from the father and mother of the groom is a $5,000 bungalow at 2221 West 31st Street, Los Angeles, completely furnished. This is where the home of the couple will be and is in one of the most aristocratic residence sections of the city by the sea. The employees of the Norton store presented a beautiful silver set.

The Norton family came to Box Butte County before the city of Alliance was founded and purchased the second lot sold here, it being where the Gadsby building now stands. They have stayed with our little city through thick and thin and have done a great deal towards its improvement and up-building.

The wedding announcements state that the young couple will be at home in Los Angeles after January 15, 1911. "Though fools spurn Hymen's gentle powers,

We, who improve his golden hours, By sweet experience know, That marriage, right understood, Gives to the tender and the good A paradise below."

FARTRIDGE-KNIGHT

Announcements have been received of the wedding of Miss Florence Partridge McKean, of Denver, and Mr. Reuben Edward Knight, of Alliance. Miss McKean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas McKean, of Denver, and is a very popular young lady of that city.

Mr. Knight is connected with the Alliance National Bank in an important position, and is a nephew of Dr. F. M. Knight, president of that institution. He has many friends in Alliance and is looked upon as an exemplary young man.

The happy couple will be at home to their friends after December first, at their home on Box Butte Avenue. This paper joins in congratulations.

SWAN-ZEDIKER

As we go to press this morning we learn that Miss Edith M. Swan and Wayne D. Zediker were married at nine o'clock last evening at the Episcopal church by Rev. Harris. A reception was given at the Swan home after the wedding. The couple left last night for a honeymoon trip to Denver and other Colorado points. They expect to return about December 15th.

Engine for Sale.

Mr. C. M. Carey, of Lakeside, Nebraska, who is a new subscriber to The Herald, was in Alliance Tuesday and stated that he had a brand new, six horsepower, Lamb Boat & Motor Company gasoline engine for sale at a bargain price. Mr. Carey stated that this engine could be seen at the Crescent ranch, or anyone interested could address him at Lakeside.

Mr. Carey is in the well digging business and states that he is kept busy all the time and that he has more work than he can do. We know by his reputation that he is an expert in his line of work.
