

RAILWAY NOTES AND PERSONALS

Supt. and Mrs. Weidenheimer are planning a trip to Buffalo, N. Y. to visit their daughter who is in school there. They will start about Dec. 1st.

Conductor and Mrs. Dick Kenner returned Wednesday morning from an enjoyable visit in Iowa and eastern Nebraska.

Conductor R. J. Burke had his car and crew pulled off to be in Alliance for the Thanksgiving ball.

Machinist A. Burchell has been off several days with a severe cold.

W. D. Evans of the clerical force in the trainmaster's office returned Monday morning from a three days' visit in Lincoln.

Don B. Wagner went to Seneca Sunday morning on the pay car.

Word was received in Alliance Saturday that Pearl Johnson, formerly a conductor here, was badly injured while switching. He is working out of Pueblo, Colo.

Brakeman Brooks has resigned and will go south for the winter.

Brakeman Francis and Coon of the east end have been transferred to Alliance.

Joe Price, who for several years has been one of the popular call boys here, has gone on the road as brakeman.

Con. W. W. Johnson is laying off. Richardson has his car and crew.

Con. Cummings is laying off for Thanksgiving.

Brakeman Christensen has quit and will go to Bradshaw, where he has a sister.

Erik H. Stiner has quit and will go to Sidney.

Carl Sorenson, one of the Crawford hill firemen, has been off several days with a sore hand.

Fireman R. E. Munger has been sent to Seneca.

Fireman Burns was caught on the east end and has been there about ten days. He is anxious to return to Alliance.

Brakemen George Walter and F. P. Martin have resigned and returned to their home in Wynona.

Brakeman Couton returned Wednesday morning from a ten days' visit at Loup City.

One of our well known and popular young conductors, George Young, has decided to go into business and has purchased the lumber yard at Marsland. He has a great many warm friends among the officials and his fellow workmen, who are very sorry to see him leave the ranks. They all join in wishing him prosperity and plenty in his new home.

H. Murray, formerly a brakeman here, has been confined to the hospital, where he has undergone an operation. We are glad to say he is rapidly recovering.

Miss Susie Ayars, sister of Chief Clerk Wagner spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Guernsey, Wyo.

Mrs. Ray Hoag spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in a ranch south of town.

Conductor L. T. Halverstadt and wife of Ravenna expect to leave in a few days.

for southern Texas, where they own land. If pleased with the country they may stay. Mr. Halverstadt will go into the hardware business. It is reported that Will Dielein has disposed of his Ravenna property and will go to look at the same country.

Miss Dorotha Pederson, daughter of Conductor Pederson of Ravenna, has been very sick. Mrs. Edna Gray went down to help care for her. We hope she will soon be better.

Chas. Bennett had the misfortune to have a car load of furniture that he was moving from Ravenna to Alliance badly damaged by fire and water. The car caught fire near Berwyn.

Mr. D. J. Nelson was in Edgemont Tuesday on Company business.

Engineer Hostier has resigned and will go to Iowa, where he will take charge of his father's farm.

Mr. Clyde Miller, for the past two years a conductor here, has resigned and will go to Perry, Iowa, where he will run a train C. M. & S. T. P. Clyde is a young man who has done all of his railroading here and his many friends will regret very much to see him go. He will go in a few days.

Mr. Goddard, traveler for the Oliver Typewriter Company, spent Saturday and Sunday in Alliance on business.

John W. Thomas, editor of The Herald, is on a business trip to Dalton, Sidney and other nearby points.

John Zurn, a nephew of Gregory Zurn, of Alliance, from Cascade, Montana, is visiting with his uncle in Alliance for short time.

Judge Gregory Zurn, wife and son Oscar, spent Sunday in Crawford, visiting the Judge's brother, returning Monday morning.

The Herald camera has caught a great many interesting pictures. A half-dozen secured on election day are attracting not a little attention, among them being pictures of the voting places in both first and second wards, street scenes, etc. These are on exhibition in The Herald office.

Coal business is picking up with the coal dealers since the recent change in the weather. Although we have had no heavy snow there have been several flurries and the winds are very chilly. A printing office, because of the ink and machinery, always feels the change first, but with ample heating facilities The Herald office is kept warm and "comfy."

The Alliance Bowling Alley has been sold to J. O. Babcock, of Scottsbluff. Mr. Babcock is an experienced man and is having the alley put in first class condition. As will be seen by the advertisement in another part of this paper, Tuesday will be ladies' day. This form of amusement is very popular in Alliance, and we believe Mr. Babcock has made a good investment.

Conductor L. T. Halverstadt and wife of Ravenna expect to leave in a few days.

A. R. Wilson left Monday night on a business trip to eastern Nebraska.

Bicknells & Reed, successors to the grocery business of Teater Brothers, report that since changing their business to a cash basis their trade has increased very heavily and the crowded condition of their store is evidence of that fact.

J. Burke, a former Alliance machinist, was in the city Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning. He is now located at Edgemont.

Mrs. E. Reeves has gone to Hot Springs to take treatment and be with her daughter-in-law, who is there while being treated for cancer.

The want-ad department of the Herald is constantly increasing in size. The patrons of this department that replies can be secured quicker through this department than by any other means. Many regular customers use it for advertising their business.

J. W. Guthrie, of the insurance firm of Gray & Guthrie, spent a couple of days in Denver the first of the week, preparing for the Hallowe'en Dance tonight. We understand that he secured some mighty fine costumes which will be seen at the ball.

W. R. Davis, of the R. I. Polk & Company, who are now getting out the Alliance city directory, is now in the city canvassing the city for names.

Miss Inez Beck is home for Valley, Nebraska, where she is teaching school. She expects to return Sunday. Her sister, Mrs. Hazel Connors, going with her as far as Grand Island, where she is now living.

Ira L. Kimmel, of Alliance, and one of The Herald's subscribers, has gone for an extended visit to Hastings, where he has relatives. He will probably remain there for the winter, and perhaps permanently.

Mesdames Dan Fitzpatrick, Chas. Grothe, Peter Yontz, J. B. Kniest and Frank Connors, and Miss Agnes Rowland are delegates from Alliance to the state rally of the Ladies of the Maccabees, to be held at Omaha next Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Yontz left yesterday morning, expecting to stop at Central City for a visit with friends enroute to the metropolis, and Mrs. Kniest and Mrs. Connors left yesterday on 44 for Omaha where they will visit and take in the sights of the city until time for the rally to open. Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Grothe and Miss Rowland will leave Alliance Sunday.

A. W. Stowe, from Omaha, is a new employee of the Holsten store. Mr. Stowe is an expert watchmaker and will make a very valuable addition to the popular drug and jewelry store force.

As will be seen by the menu in another part of The Herald, the Burlington Hotel will serve an elaborate Thanksgiving dinner today. This popular hotel makes a specialty of fine dinners and its patrons will not be disappointed.

The Herald is in receipt of the annual report of the Nebraska Agricultural Experiment Station. This is a bound book of 140 pages and is of interest to everyone connected with farming. Anyone desiring to use this book can do so by calling at The Herald office.

Business is brisk all over western Nebraska, and evidences a prosperous condition of this end of the state.

Mr. Felix L. Galligher, a banker of Rosalie, Nebraska, was in Alliance Tuesday morning on business. Mr. Galligher was in Alliance about a year ago.

Wayne Wilson, of A. R. Wilson & Son, left Alliance Tuesday noon for a trip to his old home in Belvidere, Nebr. He will probably be gone sixty days.
