WINCHESTER
Repeating Shotguns
USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.
The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

(2.) Whose son was Asa and what was the character of his father?

(3.) What victorious experience had Asa just had?

(4.) What does it avail a man if he was converted and lived a noble life for many years if he is now living in sin?

(5.) What is the unyielding condition if we would perpetuate the material or spiritual success of the past or the present? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(6.) In view of the natural constitution of things, why is it impossible for God to give any man material or spiritual success who is living out of harmony with God and the conditions which bring success?

(7.) Verse 3—What was the effect upon Israel when they did not worship the true God?

(8.) What is the effect of true religion and education upon a nation?

(9.) Verse 4—Is there any evidence that Israel, when living without God, was ever prosperous, or when living true to God, in adverse circumstances?

(10.) How often may a nation or an individual turn back to God after having forsaken him?

(11.) If the sole motive in turning to God is to be saved from our trouble, how will God receive us?

(12.) Verses 5-6—What are always the results of living out of harmony with God?

(13.) What are the conditions to be observed, if we would have inward and outward peace?

(14.) Do physical, or mental troubles give us most "vexations," and what would you say is the greatest agony a man can endure?

(15.) Why is it right to say when a nation or an individual suffers as a result of wrong doing, that "God did vex them with adversity?"

(16.) What is the reason that those who are wrong themselves generally delight in accusing others and trying to hurt or destroy them?

(17.) Is it possible for a nation to be permanently prosperous which is untrue to God, i. e., to the moral laws that are found in the warp and woof of human nature?

(18.) Verse 7—Is it possible for right doing to go unrewarded and how, and when, do the rewards generally come?

(19.) Is right doing actually under our own control?

(20.) Verses 8-10—Which is the greater incentive to right doing the nobility, or the profit, of it?

(21.) What are the rewards of doing right?

(22.) Verses 11-12—What is the sacrifice that God most delights in from us?

(23.) Verses 13-15—Should the State compel people to be outwardly religious?

(24.) Would you commend or condemn the sentiment in verses 13-15? Lesson for Sunday, Jan. 22, 1911. Omri and Ahab' Lead Israel into Greater Sin. 1 Kings xvi:15-33.

W. C. T. U. Department

Mrs. J. J. Vance, Press Supt.

Recently the Attorney General of the United States sent an assistant from the Department of Justice to the W. C. T. U. Headquarters in Washington, D. C., for data concerning patent medicines, as a case on this line was to come before the District courts, and they needed up-to-date information.

Upon receiving the required data he expressed profound thanks to the ladies for being able to help him so well. The National W. C. T. U. superintendents always keep on hand the most thorough and up-to-date information and statistics regarding the subjects of their departments.

A new Literature Building was dedicated at National W. C. T. U. Headquarters in Evanston, Ill., on December 6. This building was made possible by gifts from friends all over the nation, and was not begun until sufficient money was on hand to complete the payment of building.

Twelve states were represented at the time of dedication. In this building will be published the official papers of the National W. C. T. U.—The Union Signal and the Young Crusader; also other needed temperance literature.

The last saloon in Fulton, Ark., has been closed; making a distance of 356 miles between Little Rock, Ark., and Dallas, Texas, where there is no place that intoxicating liquors can be bought legally.

Before the Holiday recess of Congress, Dr. Koch, of Philadelphia, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Board of Pharmacy, argued before the House Ways and Means Committee for legislation to restrict the traffic in habit-forming drugs. He declared that ten per cent of the retail druggists of the United States are engaged in illicit business; that nearly fifty per cent of the criminal class are "dope" fiends, and the habit is extending to the professions, particularly lawyers, physicians and trained nurses. Most of the crime in the south he attributed to cocaine, on the ground that negroes have an especial fondness for the drug.

Of the Chinese in this country, he said thirty-five per cent smoke opium. More than 400,000 pounds of opium are annually brought into this country, and he asserted that the debauchery from opium in China in the old days was no worse than the present conditions in this country.

The Union Signal says:—Remember that the saloon, as an institution, has no defenders; only apologists. The best saloon is so bad it should not be tolerated in any community. The saloonkeeper has two objects in view—to make money and evade the law.

The saloon, no matter how well conducted, will sell you boy liquor if it has the opportunity.

The saloon is the incubator for the hatching of criminals and paupers.

The saloon is the working-man's greatest foe, and robs his family of life's necessities.

The saloon not only takes your money, but takes from you your reputation as well.

The saloon breeds lawlessness, and lawlessness leads to anarchy.

The saloon fits a man to beat his wife, pulverize his children and commit every crime in the calendar.

The saloon is God's worst enemy and the devil's best friend. Eliminate the saloons.
