WINCHESTER

Repeating Shotguns

USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.

The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

ANOTHER OLIVER SOLD

John Shoemaker, manager of the Alliance Steam Laundry, believes in progressiveness. This week he purchased a fine, new model five Oliver typewriter for his office through the Herald Publishing Company, and also installed a fine, quarter-sawn oak office desk. Mr. Shoemaker has been making good as manager of the laundry, and the business is steadily increasing.

Carl Thomas, who is now holding a responsible position in the post-office at Lincoln, has been home for several days on account of sickness. He has had a severe attack of tonsillitis, and thought that a few days in this altitude would help him out. He expects to return to Lincoln the last of the week.

A classified advertisement, carrying a message of any importance, will almost always bring the answer.

(15.) Verses 8-9—What reason is there to believe that when all the means we know fail that we can rest with certainty that God knows a way, and will in due time reveal it unto us?
(16.) "Our extremities are always God's opportunities," but does help generally come to us from the sources which we would naturally expect or from unlikely sources? Give your reasons.
(17.) In extending His kingdom on the earth which means does God most frequently use the weak or the mighty? Give examples.
(18.) In what sense can God command us to do a thing without our being conscious of it?
(19.) Verse 10:16—How did Elijah recognize this woman when he met her?
(20.) How would it affect the spiritual value of this story if it should prove that God had directed Elijah to this widow by wholly natural means, Elijah having known her in advance?
(21.) What induced this widow to divide up her scanty supply of food and water with Elijah?
(22.) Is there any way to explain this story except by God's miraculous increase of the food?
(23.) What is the practical import of this story to us?
(24.) Verses 17:24—What is the proof that every trouble to a Christian is a blessing in disguise? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

RETURN FROM LAND SHOW

J. C. McCorkle Visits the Omaha Land Show and Advertisises Box Butte County.
J. C. McCorkle, manager of the Nebraska Land company, of Alliance, and owner of much farm land in the county, spent nine days at the land show. Mr. McCorkle arrived in Omaha on Thursday morning, the second day of the show, and returned to Alliance last Saturday noon.
He stated in an interview that this exhibition was pronounced the best ever held in the United States. Every state in the west was represented, the exhibits from Montana, Colorado and Idaho being the best. These states each put $25,000 into their exhibits besides the money spent by commercial clubs and private parties.
Mr. McCorkle spent his time advertising Box Butte county and handed out over seven thousand pamphlets telling of the county and Alliance. These were furnished him by the Herald Publishing Company.
The auditorium was crowded from early morning to late at night and land seekers came by the thousands from the eastern states, as well as many from foreign countries. Experts and noted men lectured several times each day and moving pictures showing different parts of the west were constantly being shown.
One of the most interesting exhibits was a model alfalfa farm. Prof. Hunt, who is well known to Box Butte county and western Nebraska, had charge of this exhibit, which was put up by the Northwestern railroad. The exhibit was a complete alfalfa farm in miniature. Alfalfa in all stages, from the time of planting, to cutting, was shown. Small seeders, mowers, stackers, racks, etc., were shown in operation, the motive power being electricity. This exhibit is said to have been the best in the show. Small animals, sheep, cattle, hogs and horses, were shown moving about as in life.
Many people were interested in Box Butte county, and several excursions are expected out soon from eastern Nebraska and Iowa. The fact that just as good crops can be grown here as on the high priced land is becoming better known every year and we predict that it will not be many years until this country is as thickly settled as that farther east.

PETE WATSON VISITS ALLIANCE

Pete Watson, of Curly, was a caller at The Herald office on Tuesday. Mr. Watson, who was a resident of western Nebraska long before Alliance was started, and who was sixty-two years of age last Christmas, has always held the position of marshal at the stockmen's meetings and conventions at Alliance.
He has just received a patent for his homestead of 640 acres on which he is living eight miles north of Mitchell. He stated that while on his way to Alliance this time, on horseback, he saw green grass nearly an inch in length. This is indeed odd for January.

"THE CANDY GIRL"

People who enjoy good music and singing should not fail to see "The Candy Girl" in the Phelan Opera House Saturday night of this week, February 4. There are twenty people in the cast including ten chorus girls and six people of national reputation in this line of work. It is well worth the price of admission alone to hear Miss Twyla Smith sing who has been the feature on musical programs where she has been a feature on the big city vaudeville circuits. The show is in three acts and every lover of good singing, dancing and a general run of fun from start to finish will find in the "Candy Girl" the show they have been waiting to see come along. Prices will be 50, 75 cents and $1. Seats now on sale. 8-11-527.

E. H. BOYD HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Prominent Alliance Attorney in Millard Hotel Fire Sunday Morning.
E. H. Boyd, who was a guest at the Millard hotel in Omaha when it caught on fire Sunday morning of last week, is being congratulated by friends on his escape.
Mr. Boyd had an inside room on the third floor of the hotel and awakened just after the fire started at three o'clock in the morning. No alarm was sounded. He could see the fire across the court.
He dressed hurriedly and taking his suitcase, went down the stairs to the first floor. By the time he was out of his room the hallways were completely filled with smoke. He was one of the first to arrive on the ground floor.
Two men lost their lives in the fire, both being on the same floor that Mr. Boyd was on. However, they were on the other side of the building, and directly above the fire.
Mrs. P. F. Schott, who has been in the hospital at Council Bluffs for several weeks, and who was very ill for a time, is rapidly recovering. She returned home Monday morning and we are sure that the clear air and many days in Alliance will assist in bringing her back to health.
