WINCHESTER
Repeating Shotguns
USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.
The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

NEW TOUR OF YELLOWSTONE PARK:

A system of new and scenic eight-day personally conducted camping tours of Yellowstone Park will be established this coming summer from Cody, Wyo., via the magnificent Government Shoshone Dam along the Government road over Sylvan Pass through the Park and return, by the Yellowstone Park Camping & Transportation Co., Aaron Holm, Proprietor. Price from Cody, including all accommodations, only $50.00. Parties leave Cody every day during the summer. This Transportation Company has handled large parties of campers in such a satisfactory manner that their growing patronage now requires daily tours from Cody. It will pay you to write that company at Cody, Wyoming, early, and later in the season ask for the new Park Cody Route Leaflet.

Suggestive Questions for February 12, 1911

Feb. 12th 1911.
(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)
Elijah's Victory Over the Prophets of Baal. 1 Kings xviii:1-2, 17-40.

- Golden Text—Choose you this day whom ye will serve. Joshua xxiv:15.
- (1.) Verses 1-2—How long had the famine lasted in the land?
 - (2.) Did the Lord speak to Elijah in any different manner to what he speaks to those who serve him today?
 - (3.) Why had God kept Elijah away from Ahab for three years or during the continuance of the famine?
 - (4.) Would the suffering caused Ahab, by the famine have put him into a better frame of mind to realize his sin, and whether or not, does suffering as a rule bring about repentance?
 - (5.) Verses 17-20—What law in sinful human nature did Ahab demonstrate in the way he accosted Elijah?
 - (6.) Why is it that sinners when they suffer for their sins generally put the blame on some one else?
 - (7.) In what respects was it true that Ahab and his house were the troublers of Israel?
 - (8.) Verse 21—What test did Elijah propose to Ahab and the people?
 - (9.) Why did not Ahab slay Elijah when he was in his power and seeing he had been hunting him for that purpose?
 - (10.) Verse 21—Which is the more harmful condition, to be almost persuaded to be a Christian or to be definitely decided that we will not? Why?
 - (11.) Why had the people of Israel been halting between serving God and Baal?
 - (12.) Why could not the people answer the challenge of Elijah?
 - (13.) What can you say about the value of Elijah's advice to the people?
 - (14.) Verse 22—Was Elijah correct in his opinion that he was the only prophet remaining true to God? (See Chap. xix:18.)
 - (15.) In what sense is the proverb always true, that "one man and God are always a majority?"
 - (16.) Is it always God's plan to give the victory, to every man of God, no matter if he is alone and all the people are against him? Give your reasons.
 - (17.) Verses 23-25—Was the plan Elijah adopted to prove that Baal was no god his own, or had it been given to him by God? Give your reasons. (See verse 36.)
 - (18.) Why would it be either wisdom or folly, in this day, for any good man to adopt the same sort of test to prove that those who opposed Christianity were wrong?
 - (19.) What is the supreme test, or proof, to-day that our God is real; and a present help in trouble, and all other gods are false? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
 - (20.) Verses 26-29—What reason is there to believe that these prophets of Baal believed in their god?
 - (21.) How much value can you get for the truth of any cause from the evidence that its advocates are willing to suffer or even die, to prove their faith in it?
 - (22.) Verses 30-39—What proof have we to-day that the Lord is God, fully as convincing as this miracle?
 - (23.) How much value do you place upon conversions produced by such wonders as were here displayed?
 - (24.) Verse 40—What evidence is there that the wholesale slaughter of four hundred and fifty men, by Elijah, was done at the command of God? Lesson for Sunday, Feb. 19, 1911. Elijah's Flight and Return. 1 Kings xviii:41-42:21.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, B. M. Thomas, Lloyd C. Thomas, John W. Thomas and F. A. Pierson, citizens of the United States, and residing in the state of Nebraska, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming and becoming a corporation in the state of Nebraska, for the purpose of the transacting of the business hereinafter described.

Article I.
The name of this corporation shall be the HERALD PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Article II.
(a) The principal place of transacting its business shall be at Alliance, Box Butte County, Nebraska.
(b) Branch offices may be maintained at such other places in the state of Nebraska as the Board of Directors may determine, where meetings of incorporators, stockholders and directors may be held and all business transacted.

Article III.
The purposes for which said corporation is to be formed are as follows:
(a) To engage in the printing and publishing business; to own, operate, publish, issue, sell or buy newspapers, magazines, or other periodicals; to buy, sell, own and use all manner of office supplies.
(b) To own, operate, sell or buy printing plants and printing machinery of any kind or nature.
(c) To take, lease, purchase, hire or otherwise acquire and to hold, use, sell, lease, exchange, mortgage, improve and develop real estate, real property and any interest or right therein, and to construct or have constructed such houses and buildings, as is necessary for carrying on and conducting said business, and to buy, sell, own, use, manage, operate and lease the same or similar structures.
(d) To borrow money, with or without security, and for the repayment of the same, to give the obligations of this corporation with any necessary or required security, and to lend money, with or without security, and to do anything whatsoever necessary, useful, desirable, convenient, or auxiliary to any of the purposes of this corporation.

Article IV.
(a) The authorized capital stock of this corporation shall be Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), divided into one thousand (1,000) shares of the par value of ten dollars ($10.00) each.
(b) The amount of capital stock with which said corporation will begin business is four thousand dollars ($4,000.00).
(c) At such time as the Board of Directors may by resolution direct, said capital stock shall be paid into this corporation, either in cash or by the sale and transfer to it of real or personal property, contracts, services, or any other valuable right or thing for the use and purposes of said corporation, in payment for which shares of the capital stock of said corporation may be issued and the capital stock so issued shall thereupon become and be fully paid up the same as though paid for in cash at par, and shall be non-assessable forever, and the judgment of the directors as to the value of any property, right or thing acquired in exchange for capital stock shall be conclusive.

Article V.
The existence of this corporation shall commence on the second day of January, 1911, and continue for a period of fifty (50) years thereafter, unless sooner dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the stock thereof.

Article VI.
The highest amount of indebtedness to which said corporation may at any time subject itself shall not exceed two-thirds of the capital stock.

Article VII.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation shall be held on the first Monday in January in each year, at which meeting the Directors of the Company shall be elected, and such other lawful business done as the stockholders shall deem necessary and proper.

Article VIII.
(a) The officers of said corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and the office of President and Treasurer may be held by the same person. The officers shall be chosen by the Board of Directors, and shall hold their office for the period of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a Board of Directors to be elected annually from among the stockholders.
(b) The Directors for the first year or until their successors are chosen shall be B. M. Thomas, Lloyd C. Thomas, John W. Thomas and F. A. Pierson.
