THE ARINGTONS

This Popular Show Company Drawing Crowded Houses Nightly at the Phelan Opera House

It has been a long time since the play going public has enjoyed the theatrical treat that is being given each night this week by those popular favorites, the Aringtons. Each member of the company is good and it is as well balanced a company as the Aringtons have ever taken out on the road. The plays are all good ones. Monday night, "A Paradise Lost," Tuesday, "The Old Maine Homestead," Wednesday, "St. Elmo," Friday night will be presented that famous and intensely interesting drama, "The Devil." Special scenery is carried for this play and arrangements have been made with Mr. Lawrence for proper display of electrical effects to set the play off as it should be. The company is fully capable of giving a fine presentation of this play and it will be one of the best for the week equal.
