WINCHESTER
Repeating Shotguns
USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.
The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

Elisha, the Prophet, Restores a Child to Life. 2 Kings iv:8-37.

Golden Text—The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Rom. vi:23.

(1.) Verse 8—What is the reason that people in the towns and cities are not as free in tendering off-hand hospitality, to preachers, as they are in

(2.) Are people in the country as free in tendering hospitality to preachers, as they used to be? Why?

(3.) What qualities did this woman possess to be called a "great woman?"

(4.) When we entertain a man of God, in our homes, which gets the greater benefit, the entertainer or the entertained? Why?

(5.) What was probably this woman's motive in urging her hospitality upon Elisha?

(6.) Verses 9-11—What rule should govern a wife in consulting her husband before inviting a man of God to make his home at her house?

(7.) What benefit would naturally come to a home by entertaining a man of God?

(8.) If a woman of godly character frequently entertains a man of God, in these days, what effect does it have upon the neighbors? Why?

(9.) To what extent should the association of a godly woman and a godly man be governed by the evil surmising of the gossips of the community?

(10.) Verses 12-13—Under the circumstances it would not be good taste for Elisha to offer his hostess money, but was it in good taste and what prompted Elisha to offer to speak for her to the King or to the Captain of the Host?

(11.) Is it legitimate to desire to be introduced to the King, or the president, or into rich society? Why?

(12.) How would you characterize the refusal of this woman to be brought into the society of royalty and the rich?

(13.) Verses 14-17—Is it to-day a calamity for a home to be childless? Why?

(14.) If by plan and preference there are no children in the home, how does it affect the character of the husband and wife, the happiness of the home and the good of the community?

(15.) What is the value of each child born into an average home? What will you take for your baby?

(16.) What, if any, difference is there in the character and disposition of children born in answer to prayer and children born under protest?

(17.) Verses 18-24—When sickness or death comes to the home how much value is there in conferring with a man of God? (This question must be answered by members of the club in writing.)

(18.) Verses 25-26—When is it right, if ever, for us to say one thing while we mean another?

(19.) Verses 27-37—Would it ever be right or seemly, in these days, for a woman to act toward her Pastor as this woman did to Elisha when she met him?

(20.) The restoration of this lad was miraculous, but what would be the duty and privilege of a man of God to-day under similar circumstances?

BIG BILLS FAILED

Story of Sessions Torn by Factional Strife and Bitterness.

MANY MEASURES ARE BLOCKED

Divisions of Majority Party Prevent Any Concerted Action in Either House—Failure of Reciprocity Will Force Taft to Call Extra Session.

Washington, March 4.—In the retrospect, the Sixty-first congress, which expired by constitutional limitation at noon today, appears to have been distinguished by three things: The revision of the tariff in the Payne-Aldrich bill, which was passed at an extra session in the summer of 1909; the large amount of important legislation much of it upon the recommendation of President Taft, enacted at the regular session of 1909-10, and the exceedingly small product of the "short session" just closed.

The interval between the last two sessions was marked by the political upheaval registered at the general election last November, which changed a large Republican majority into a still larger Democratic majority in the house of representatives, cut the Republican majority in the senate almost to the vanishing point and incidentally effected striking changes in the senate personnel.

Majority Party Divided.

In strong contrast with the support which the Taft administration received from the Republican majority in the matter of legislation in the regular session of 1909-10 is the fact that at the present session the majority has been anything but united; the reciprocity agreement was passed in the house by the aid of a large portion of Democratic votes, while in the senate the rift in the majority between the regulars and the insurgents has been an important factor in its sidetracking and in the consequent summoning of the extra session.

To this division in the majority was largely due the most dramatic feature of the previous long session—the protracted and sensational conflict last spring which ended in material changes in the house rules, generally interpreted as "the overthrow of the speaker," and which, after a bitter fight lasting many hours and including one all-night struggle, stopped only just short of the actual unseating of Speaker Cannon. While the acrimony between the regulars and insurgents neither began nor ended with the battle over the rules, that was its most conspicuous episode, and there has been little peace between the factions since in either house.

Bitterness in Senate.

In the senate the most sensational feature of this session was the unavailing effort, in which the insurgents were the most active, to unseat William Lorimer as junior senator from Illinois on the ground of alleged bribery in connection with his election by the legislature of that state in the spring of 1909.

Another important recent action of the senate was the defeat of the resolution embodying a proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States to provide for the direct election of senators by the people.

This resolution received more than a majority of the senate, but it needed a two-thirds vote and fell short by only four. Had the senate passed it the house almost certainly would have done so. The friends of this proposition entertain little doubt that it will pass the next congress and go to the states for ratification or defeat.

The output of this session in the way of general measures consists chiefly of the appropriation bills, and several of them have seemed to be in danger more than once in the tense situation of the last few days, when long hours passed away in filibustering on one side or the other.

Thousands of bills were introduced and thousands more came to the closing session as a heritage from the first and second sessions. In all there were between 35,000 and 45,000 measures before congress. The failure to enact many laws was not due to lack of real material.

Falls on Big Measures.

The permanent tariff board bill, forced through a reluctant senate, was hurried over to the house, there to be strangled by a Democratic filibuster. Within an hour following adjournment President Taft issued a proclamation calling the new congress to meet in extraordinary session April 4, to act on the reciprocity agreement with Canada.

Legislature Asks a Pardon.

Montgomery, Ala., March 6.—The Alabama legislature adopted a resolution requesting President Taft to pardon W. S. Harlan, S. E. Huggins, C. C. Hillton, Robert Gallagher and Walter E. Grace of the Jackson Lumber company, Lockhart, Ala., who are serving a term in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta for peonage. They are all wealthy men.

Asbury Spicer Escapes From Jail.

Jackson, Ky., March 4.—Silencing by display of revolvers a crowd of prisoners who attempted to alarm their keepers, Asbury Spicer, a Hargis clansman, led a jail delivery here at midnight. Three other prisoners escaped with Spicer, whose appeal from a conviction for murder is now pending in the state courts.

TWO DAYS ONLY

Remarkable Success of These Talented Physicians in the Treatment of Chronic Diseases

OFFER THEIR SERVICES
FREE OF CHARGE

The Associated Doctors, licensed by the state of Nebraska for the treatment of deformities and all nervous and chronic diseases of men, women and children, offer to all who call on this trip, consultation, examination, advice free, making no charge whatever, except the actual cost of medicine. All that is asked in return for these valuable services is that every person treated will state the result obtained to their friends and thus prove to the sick and afflicted in every city and locality, that at last treatments have been discovered that are absolutely sure and certain in their effect.

These doctors are considered among America's leading stomach and nerve specialists and are experts in the treatment of all chronic diseases and so great and wonderful have been their cures that in many cases it is hard indeed to find the dividing line between skill and miracle.

Diseases of the stomach, intestines, liver, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidneys, spleen, or bladder, rheumatism, sciatica, diabetes, bed-wetting, leg ulcers, weak lungs and those afflicted with long-standing, deep-seated, chronic diseases, that have baffled the skill of the family physician, should not fail to call.

Many wonderful cures.

According to their system no more operations for appendicitis, gall stones, tumors, goiter or cancer. They were among the first in America to earn the name of the "Bloodless Surgeons," by doing away with knife, with blood and with all pain in the successful treatment and cure of these dangerous diseases.

If you have kidney or bladder troubles bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for chemical analysis and microscopic examination.

Deafness often cured in sixty days. No matter what your ailment may be, no matter what others may have told you, no matter what experience you may have had with other physicians, if you want to get well again, it will be to your advantage to see them. Go at once. Have it forever settled in your mind. If your case is incurable they will give you such advice as may prolong your life. Do not put off this duty you owe yourself or friends or relatives who are suffering because of your sickness, as a visit this time costs you nothing and may save your life.

Office at Drake Hotel, Alliance, Nebraska. Hours 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Married ladies must come with their husbands and minors with their fathers.

Remember, this free offer is for two days only.

A FIERCE NIGHT ALARM

is the horse, starting cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin of Manchester, O., (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote, "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely upon it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, La Grippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 10¢ and 50¢. Trial bottle free. Sold by Dr. King's.
