W. E. SPENCER WITHDRAWS FROM RACE FOR COUNCILMAN FROM FIRST WARD. JOE VAUGHN WILL RUN FOR THE PLACE

Mr. Vaughn is a Man Liked by All, a Firm Believer in the Square Deal, and Will Make a Good Councilman.

W. E. Spencer, who was urged to run for councilman of first ward by friends, in the following statement given to The Herald for publication, withdraws his consent to run for this place, on account of not having the time to give to the position. His statement is as follows:

While I appreciate very much the honor my friends would do me in naming me as a candidate for councilman in the First ward of Alliance the coming year, numerous urgent matters in connection with my business and personal affairs make it doubtful whether I could properly attend to the duties I would owe the city, and I have therefore decided not to be a candidate. Thanking my friends, and asking them not to further circulate the petition they started in my behalf, I am, with thanks, W. E. SPENCER.

A petition has been circulated and filed naming Joe Vaughn for this place on the ticket. The Herald knows of no better man than Mr. Vaughn for this place, and feels sure that he will see that the square deal is given to all. Mr. Vaughn is an old resident of Alliance and has gone a great deal in making this city the metropolis of western Nebraska.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

The Herald job department is making preparations for issuing the second telephone directory for the Nebraska Telephone company for the Alliance exchange. The increase in the number of phones lately has necessitated making the new directory four pages larger than the last one.

Anyone desiring a change in the directory should notify the office at once.

The Real Issue in the City Campaign

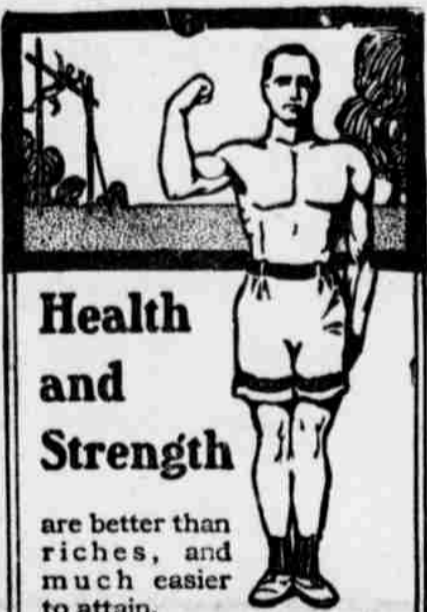

The Question of Licensing Saloons Not so Much an Issue as that of an Administration of City Government in the Interest of Decency.

The editor of this paper has conversed with quite a number of voters in regard to the coming city election in Alliance, voters who represent both the "wet" and the "dry" elements, as they are called; that is, voters who favor the licensing of saloons, and those who prefer to have no saloons; and it seems to be the consensus of opinion that the question of license will scarcely be brought into this campaign, if at all, but that an administration of the city government in the interest of common decency is paramount. There are a lot of voters in Alliance who believe that the licensing of saloons, under proper legal restrictions, is, under existing conditions, the best method of controlling the liquor traffic, yet they are thoroughly disgusted with the "wide open" policy of the last year. There are others who do not believe in the license policy at all and they, too, are disgusted, and if we mistake not, many of them are willing to concede a point of preference if by so doing an administration can be secured that will place Alliance before the world as a decent license city.

We suggest, as a plan of campaign, that these two classes of voters get together in the interest of the city. It may be necessary for the "drys" to concede license for the coming year, but better that with an improved condition in city administration than that matters continue as they have been going for some time past. A prominent gentleman of this city who had been spoken of until recently as a probable candidate for mayor, remarked to a representative of The Herald, and to others, that he did not think he would suit either of the two elements of the citizens for the reason that he favored a cleaning up of the lawlessness that has been permitted under the present city administration, and that, he said, would not meet the approval of the "wets". On the other hand, he favored license, under strict regulation, and that, would be condemned by the "drys".

But we have too good an opinion of many of the so-called "wets" of this city to think that they would condemn what this gentleman endorsed in his conversation with us. In fact, we know there are a good many who favor license but who are very much displeased with the city government as administered by the present mayor and who want to see a change.

Right here we wish to remark that we have not the slightest feeling of animosity or ill will toward Mayor Harris. During the past year he has given The Herald considerable patronage which we appreciate. We esteem his friendship and dislike to say anything displeasing to him. But this paper would be unworthy of the confidence reposed in it if we were to continue silent while an attempt is being made to perpetuate an administration that is bringing the city into disrepute which cannot be otherwise than detrimental to its welfare.
