

SPRING BRINGS SORE FEET
HERE IS A POSITIVE CURE

With the advent of warm weather comes foot troubles to thousands of people. The increased temperature and heaviness of the atmosphere causes swelling and excess perspiration. This brings on a series of foot troubles. The treatment given below will be welcomed with joy by an army of sufferers. It acts like magic. "Dissolve two table-spoonfuls of Calceide compound in a basin of hot water; soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. Less time will not give the desired results.) Repeat this each night until the cure is permanent." All soreness disappears immediately. Corns and callouses can be peeled right off. Bunions are reduced to normal and the inflammation drawn out. Sweaty and smelly feet, tender and swollen feet need but a few treatments. This Calceide is a remarkable drug. Formerly used only by doctors but any druggist now has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is claimed to cure the worst feet.

London, June 12.—Actual rehearsal of coronation ceremonies began last week in Westminster abbey. All the participants are to be drilled in details of what to do, just as in a stage performance, and the king and queen will familiarize themselves with the rubric, so as to insure that the ceremonial on June 22 will go forward without a hitch.

Meanwhile, the whole line of the route of royal progress is being fringed with stands, which will afford seating space for 750,000 spectators. An interesting question has arisen, whether in many cases the erection of these stands, blocking the view of owners and tenants of houses, is legal, and several actions at law are on the carpet. Still more certain is the fact that the slump in prices asked for points of vantage along the route shows no signs of recovery.

There are just four American women outside those who have married peers who will see King George and Queen Mary crowned and there are grievous heartburnings because of it. Of course there are thousands of American women who will see their majesties on the way to and from the abbey, but just these are to have the privilege of witnessing the ceremony of the coronation itself.

Mrs. John Hays Hammond, wife of President Taft's special ambassador; Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, wife of the ambassador; Mrs. John Ward, formerly Miss Jean Reid, whose husband is an official of the coronation, and Mrs. William Phillips, whose husband is charge d'affaires at the American embassy.

Women of American birth, who are now British peeresses, who will be in attendance at the abbey, are: Duchess of Manchester, Lady Decies, Lady Carrington, Viscountess Maldstone, duchess of Roxbury, marchioness of Dufferin, countess of Ancaster, countess of Essex, Lady Chevellemore, countess of Granard, countess of Tankerville, countess of Suffolk, Lady Abinger, Lady Ritchie, countess of Donoughmore, Lady Monson, Lady Leith of Fyvie, Lady Newborough and Lady Paget.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

cured Mrs. C. C. Gokey, of a stubborn case of heart disease, such as thousands are now suffering with. Read what she says:

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had grown so weak that it was impossible for me to do thirty minutes work in a whole day. I suffered intense pains in my left side and under the left shoulder blade, I could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath that I thought I should never be able to take a full breath again. The least excitement would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half-bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. I began to sleep well, had a good appetite, and improved so rapidly that when I had taken six bottles I was completely cured."
MRS. C. C. GOKEY, Northfield, Vt.

If you have any of the symptoms Mrs. Gokey mentions, it is your duty to protect yourself.

Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. is what you need. If the first bottle fails to benefit, your money is returned. Ask your druggist.

De La Barra and Reyes to Be Members of Cabinet.

General Reyes said: "It is true I am going to be minister of war if Senor Madero is elected. I am not going to be a candidate for the presidency or participate in the elections."

DIRECT ELECTIONS

Senate Passes Resolution For Popular Vote.

JOHNSON IS SECOND SPEAKER.

Alabama Senator Makes Vigorous Objection to Bristow Amendment Providing for Federal Supervision at the Polls—Borah Follows Johnson.

Washington, June 13.—The senate entered on the consideration of the resolution providing for the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people. It was understood that there would be an extended discussion of the resolution before a vote could be reached.

Senator McCumber (N. D.) was the first speaker and contended that enactment into law of a plan to elect senators by direct vote would not prove a panacea for all ills of the flesh. He predicted that the man who thinks it such will awake to the fact that in escaping the evils of legislative corruption, he has entered into a field equally insidious danger, broader opportunities for the corruptionists.

Following McCumber, Senator Johnson (Ala.) made a vigorous objection to the Bristow amendment, providing for federal supervision of the proposed election of senators.

"I have, myself, seen armed federal forces at the polls," he said. "They merely obeyed the bosses and the result was bad. I hope never again to witness the spectacle. If we are to have federal supervision, I shall vote against it, and I warn the friends of the measure that by accepting it they will postpone this reform for many years."

Senator Borah advocated the adoption of the resolution practically as it passed the house. He thought the rejection of the Bristow amendment would be in the interest of favorable action by the states.

The senate, by 64 to 24, passed the resolution providing for an amendment to the constitution to provide for election of senators by direct popular vote. The Bristow amendment, giving to the federal government supervision of such elections, was adopted, 44 to 44, the vice president casting the deciding ballot. The house has already passed the resolution.

Telephone Talks
No. 6

The Wrong Number.

You didn't look in the Directory before you called a number—the wrong bell was rung and an innocent subscriber was disturbed. You said, "Central gave me the wrong number."

Of course, she did. You called the wrong number—why shouldn't you get it?

Another time you thoughtlessly called a wrong number. The next moment you remembered that it was not the one you wanted. You quickly signaled "Central" and asked for the right number.

Meanwhile, the party of the number you first called answered when his bell rang. He got no reply. He angrily explained, "My bell rang." He did not know you called him and then decided you wanted another number after "Central" had rung his line.

The Telephone Company received the blame for your carelessness.
