A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at F. J. Brennan's.

From Hyannis they intended to drive out to the lakes, and spend the time until Friday catching fish and stocking up with suitable stories before their return. ***

Geo. A. Mollring is a liberal advertiser, but he believes in changing methods. Some times, as Herald readers are aware, he takes a good size space in the newspaper to tell the reading public some of the advantages of trading at his establishment. This week, however, he is doing his advertising by means of a beautiful window display, the handwork of W. A. Mollring, who is an artist in that line. ***

500 new subscribers! Well, that's going some. Haven't got them yet, but will have them soon. "Watch us grow." ***

An accident that was fatal to a little girl, occurred in the country southwest of Seneca last Thursday. Some men were boring a well and had gone down 68 feet. While they were at dinner a little two year old girl fell into the well, going down feet first. Every effort possible was made to rescue her, but without avail. She was dug out but it took until the next day to accomplish this task and when her body was recovered, life was extinct. ***

Mr. and Mrs. Tinkcom received a telegram on Friday, the 16th instant, notifying them that Mrs. Tinkcom's mother at Eagle Grove, Iowa, was sick, and saying, "Come." The message was received about an hour before 44 left, but Mrs. Tinkcom made hurried preparations and left on that train. Mr. Tinkcom following on a later train. A later wire brought the sad news that death had come to Mrs. Tinkcom's mother. The news conveyed an inexpressible sorrow and it was a great shock, as the deceased had been in good health up to a short time before her death. Mr. Tinkcom returned to Alliance on Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Tinkcom remaining for a while in Iowa. ***

GIVE A FINAL BOOST

The Herald believes that Miss Blanche Macdonald will win the World-Herald's prize trip to Europe, but her friends will do well not to be too confident. The friends of the Deadwood lady, who is the only one of the competitors in the north-west Nebraska and the Black Hills district that stands any show of defeating Miss Macdonald, are determined that their candidate shall win. The daily paper at Deadwood declares that they are not going to let what they call "a little one horse town, like Alliance" beat them. Friends of Alliance and western Nebraska, as well as of Miss Macdonald, ought to make a final rally in her support, and show the South Dakota boosters that they are not in it when it comes to competing with a Nebraska town. ***

Next Saturday closes the contest, all votes must be mailed by that time, and the envelopes containing same must bear the post mark of that date, of the sending office. If you have not helped the Alliance candidate, get busy quick, send your subscription for the World-Herald to Miss Macdonald, so that she will be sure to receive it on or before Saturday of this week. ***
