LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. H. P. Wilson has gone to the Black Hills where she will spend a week visiting friends.

Harry Johnson, of the Model Candy Kitchen, made a business trip to Hemingford, Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Macdonald is reported as improving rapidly, and expects to be home from the hospital soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuckey, of Hyannis, have rented the old Catholic parsonage and will move to Alliance soon.

Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick, who has been quite ill the past week, is reported as being much better at this writing.

It looks now like August 5th will be the biggest day of the year in Alliance, judged by the size of the crowd that will be in town.

Dr. Hershman returned to Chicago Saturday on 44. He relieved Dr. Parsons, who has been taking his annual vacation.

A fine rain last Saturday morning and afternoon helped to put things in this part of the country in good shape. A few showers since have helped some more.

Mrs. D. W. Butler was hostess at a very pleasant card party last Saturday afternoon at her home on Box Butte Ave.

Mrs. Charles Tully and Mrs. C. C. Barker and children departed on No. 41 Monday morning for the coast. Mrs. Barker will visit her mother in Portland, while Mrs. Tully will go to Seattle. Both ladies will make an extended trip.

Roy Strong shies his castor into the ring for the republican nomination for sheriff, as will be seen by glancing over The Herald's column of announcements this week. We cannot say who will receive the nomination, and cannot even make a guess, but we know that Roy has a lot of warm hearted friends that will no doubt do some good boosting for him between now and the 15th of August.

In this issue of The Herald D. W. Hughes announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for county treasurer. We have not thought much about the relative strength of the various candidates for that office, but it strikes us at first thought that he will be a formidable opponent for other candidates. He is well and favorably known in this city and throughout the county, and we shall not be surprised if he shows up strong in the race.

Edgar M. Martin has filed for candidate for county treasurer, subject to the democratic nomination at the primaries in August. Like a good many other candidates, The Herald cannot say what his chances of success are, but we have an idea that he will prove to be a good vote getter and will no doubt run well.

As will be seen by the advertising columns of The Herald, the great Ringling Bros. circus will be in this city Saturday, August 5th. Just ordinary shows that have been here before have drawn big crowds, and now that the greatest of them all is to be here we would not be surprised if a larger number of people come to Alliance on that day than were ever in this city before.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thomas came over from Lingle Tuesday, remaining until Wednesday noon. They report everything in fine shape in the irrigated country of the North Platte valley, except that some damage was done by a break in the government canal last Sunday.

In the item of last week's issue of The Herald in regard to the application for pardon of Krause, we made the mistake that was made by the daily papers, of saying William Krause, instead of John H. Krause.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Davenport and family are now very pleasantly located in their new residence on north Toluca Avenue, having moved the fore part of the week.

Since the departure of J. S. Sherman, M. D. Kimball has taken charge of the cafe at Hotel Alliance. He has been acting as chef, and is thoroughly familiar with the business. The Herald anticipates that he will make a success of the same, and hold the patronage of the large number of customers at that popular place. The hotel will continue to run on the European plan, and Mr. and Mrs. Rubendall will have charge of the office and rooms.

Since their return from Colorado last month, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Denton have been visiting among their many friends in the surrounding country as well as in Alliance. A week ago Sunday they were at Fairview and took dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawrence, Sr.

Mike Connor and I. E. Hood of Canton neighborhood were in Alliance last Thursday morning making final proof. Arthur Ball and W. A. Randall were their witnesses. D. E. Wallage of Canton was also in the city the same day.

A large number of Alliance people are planning to take in the big railroad picnic at Hot Springs on next Sunday. This will be one of the biggest days for railroad employes ever held on the Alliance division. A big time is expected and all who can possibly go are invited by the superintendent to avail themselves of this splendid opportunity of an outing in that popular summer resort.

After an absence of a year from Alliance, Chase Feagins returned last Sunday to look after some business matters, and for a few days' visit with friends. He informed The Herald that the Blackfoot, Idaho country is looking fine, plenty of water for irrigation, and fruit promising a splendid crop this year. He reported Mrs. Feagins as being well. From here he went to Rawlins, Wyo., to attend to business matters.

Arthur Conners, now of York, Nebraska, was in Alliance last week visiting his wife, Mrs. Hazel Beck Conners, who is at the home of her father, J. G. Beck.

The last meeting of the Royal Neighbors was unusually well attended and greatly enjoyed by all present. Two new beneficiary members were initiated. After the meeting, the ladies all went to one of our popular drug stores where a nice luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose arrived Wednesday noon from Colorado Springs, where they have been spending their honeymoon. They will go to house-keeping at the Belle Brown home on Box Butte Avenue. Mr. Rose was formerly a brakeman here and he will again enter the service.

Ora Phillips has had charge of the Alliance Tailoring establishment since the first of the week, E. T. Eneyart being out on the road for a two weeks' trip. Mrs. Eneyart accompanied Mr. Eneyart as far as Hemingford, Sunday, and will visit friends in that neighborhood while he is away.

Abe Burchell returned to Alliance the first of the week after an absence of several months. Mr. Burchell is undecided whether he will again work in Alliance or not. He has many friends in Alliance who hope that he will decide to remain.

George Davis had a very agreeable surprise Wednesday noon. He went to the train to meet his sister-in-law and found that she was accompanied by his mother, from University Place. This is Mrs. Davis' first visit to Alliance. She went to Sheridan with Mrs. Walt Davis, Thursday morning. On her return she will stop here for an extended visit.

Alliance is to have a carnival, commencing Monday, July 31st, 1911, and lasting six days. Same is being put on by the Nat Reis Co. They have a reputation of giving a very entertaining carnival, and will undoubtedly draw a large crowd of people to this city during that week.

About 125 members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church accepted the invitation of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Brown to a reception which they tendered at their home last evening. Refreshments were served, the company was entertained with some choice musical selections and a good time was enjoyed by all present.

Hugh Beal, Dr. Bellwood, Sam Tillett and Bernard Holsten left on 41 this morning for Redfern, S. D., for a week's camping and fishing trip. The first three named gentlemen have recently built a cabin about twelve miles from Redfern.

The banquet to the hardware men, whose convention was held in Alliance last week, was served by the Daughters of Isabella, in the Knights of Columbus hall, Wednesday evening. About forty men were present. The banquet was considered one of the finest ever served in the city.

Father McNamara made a short trip to Mullen this week, returning Monday.

F. E. Reddish departed from Alliance last Tuesday, his destination being points along the Pacific coast. He expects to be absent from Alliance for some time.

Mrs. Hampton and daughter spent the week's end at their ranch near Angora, where they went for a few days' rest and recreation.

Mrs. F. E. Leater and Mrs. Claude Lester will entertain at cards Thursday afternoon at their spacious home on Box Butte Avenue.

Al Wiker is reported as having been quite seriously ill the first of the week, but is much better at this writing.

Miss Maude Spacht spent last Sunday in Denver, taking in the sights of that city.

W. G. Wilson drove up to Alliance Tuesday from his ranch near Reno. While in the city he called at The Herald office to set himself ahead on subscription, and ordered an advertisement inserted, a number of horses either breaking out of his pasture or were stolen.

William Otto of Charleston, Nebraska, was visiting last week with his old time friend, W. V. Beal. They have been acquainted for forty-six years and of course had a very pleasant time while together. Mr. Otto had been at Hot Springs, S. D., for his health and from here went to Colorado Springs, where he expects to remain until after the hottest of the summer is over, when he will return to his home. The Herald hopes that the mountain climate will improve his health, which has not been very good this summer.

Joe Bills' horse ran away when he started for home Tuesday evening, throwing him out near the viaduct southeast of the city. His shoulder was dislocated, some ribs broken and otherwise injured. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital and on Wednesday returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berry came up from Reno Monday with their daughter, who was taken to St. Joseph's hospital for an operation, which was successfully performed on Tuesday. Mrs. Berry will remain a while with her daughter.

JUNIOR NORMAL NOTES

One More Week—Exams Confront Students

One more week and the students will be saying good by to the Junior Normal and to each other. It seems that the sad hour of parting is coming too soon, but the memories of "school days", as we all know, are ever cherished and never forgotten.

Supt. Pate warned the students last week to have their ribbons straight and smiling faces ready for the camera, the first of the week. They took his advice at its true worth and were ready for photographer Grebe when he drew up his camera for business Monday morning, at the chapel period. The photos will speak for themselves later.

The students were favored with a reading by Miss Agatha Gregg, Wednesday morning at chapel. It depicted love in its sentimental sense and it is needless to say, merited an encore.

The teachers' examinations for county certificates will be held at the High school building next Friday and Saturday. Many are planning to take it. Thursday and Friday of next week, which is the last week of the Junior Normal, examinations will be given to the students in the subjects which they have been carrying in the Normal.

UNINTENTIONALLY OMITTED

Last week The Herald unintentionally omitted a news item in regard to the Famous Clothing House's 15th semi-annual clearance sale. We regret the omission very much but as the sale continues until Saturday of this week, we can partly make amends by mentioning it today. The Famous always keeps up with the procession, and it is seldom in a town of this size that one can find so many standard lines of men's furnishings under one roof.
