Look Around

Glance around you today—pick out the prosperous young men you know. Are they living up their pay envelopes? Do you find them "broke" at the end of the week? Do they borrow from friends to spend for pleasure? The prosperous, steady, reliable young man travels in another class.

Nat Reiss Shows to be Here July 31 for One Week

The Nat Reiss Shows will be in Alliance next week, July 31-Aug. 5. We clip the following from the North Platte Telegraph:

The carnival grounds which are well arranged, were alive with people, men, women and children, last evening for three hours. The visitors had a good time throwing confetti on each other, visiting the many shows, riding on the merry-go-round, taking trips on the Ferris wheel, throwing ball at the nigger babies and trying to knock Jack Johnson's teeth out.

Too much praise cannot be accorded Mr. Nat Reiss for the high class attraction which he has brought to this city and on every hand is heard nothing but kind words of appreciation.

Three of the most thrilling acts in the show would be presented twice daily. That of Chelato, leaping the death trap loop; Captain Gay, the champion high diver of the world, and Maximo, the high diving dog.

Among the many attractions presented. It is indeed hard to say which is the best, as all of them are far above those usually carried by the average carnival company.

GOES TO OGALLALA

As previously announced through the advertising columns of The Herald, Phil Pizer packed the remainder of his stock of clothing last week and shipped it to Ogallala, where he will spend up for business. He claims to have done a good business while in Alliance, but there were too many clothing stores here to suit him, and we think he showed some wisdom by going to a town where there is a smaller number in that line. We like to see every line of legitimate business well represented in our city but it was very evident that there were more clothing stores in Alliance than we needed, and while we should like to have Mr. Pizer remain in business here, we do not regret that there is one clothing store less. There are still plenty of clothing stores left here to supply the demands of the city and surrounding country and also to make it an object for people in neighboring towns to come here to trade.

Mrs. Julia Hale and children returned to their home yesterday, after a few weeks' visit with the former's parents at Gordon, Nebr.

JUNIOR NORMAL NOTES

Friday Marks Close of Successful Term. Exams and Graduation Exercises

Work in the class rooms closed Wednesday, and the examinations will be given Thursday and Friday. The Junior Normal has been in session eight weeks, and the term's work has been very successful. The students will probably leave Friday night or Saturday morning. Meals will be served at the dining hall until Saturday night.

The chapel exercises have been especially good this week.

E. J. Hoenshell, author of the Hoenshell Grammar, was present at chapel Monday, and gave an interesting talk.

Mrs. and Miss Boyer gave an instrumental duet Tuesday morning, which was well rendered and very pleasing to the audience.

Monday morning Prof. Williams gave a trombone solo which took well with the audience and inspired them to encore him.

Little Miss Lois Boyer sang a song Tuesday morning. She was calm but appealing in her presentation, and deserves much credit for her efforts.

Miss Leah Kreamer, a former student and graduate of Alliance Junior Normal, favored the students with a piano solo Wednesday morning.

Miss Alma Weldenhamer, whose reputation as a vocalist needs no mention, gave a vocal solo Wednesday morning. She was encored and received much applause.

Miss Edith Walford, county superintendent of Morrill county, visited the Normal Wednesday morning. Her county is well represented, seventeen students being enrolled from that county.

The different members of the faculty were called upon for closing speeches Wednesday morning at chapel. They all expressed themselves as having enjoyed their work with the students, and many inspiring and optimistic thoughts were disseminated.

The graduation exercises will be held at the opera house beginning at 8:15, Friday evening. The following program will be carried out:

Trombone Solo, Prof. G. H. Williams.

Invocation, Rev. W. F. McNeill.

Music.

Address, Supt. G. E. Martin of Nebraska City.

Cello Solo, Mr. Herbert Nelson.

Benediction, Rev. W. F. McNeill.

Citizens of Alliance are cordially invited to attend these exercises. Admission free.

Immediately following the graduation exercises a reception will be given at the Central school building for the Normal students.

NORMAL SCHOOL DEDICATION

The Herald is in receipt of an invitation to attend the inspection and dedication of the new State Normal School at Chadron, Friday, July 28th. Tomorrow will be a gala day in that city, and visitors will be given a royal welcome.

A TON OF WATER MELONS

J. H. Vaughn & Son had cards printed inviting those who went on the excursion to eat water melons with them; and to meet the demand that was anticipated they purchased nearly a ton of big, luscious water melons from Esaf Bros., the same being distributed from the refrigerator car. All who applied for melons on that day were well supplied free of charge.

M. E. AID SOCIETY

The M. E. Ladies' Aid Society will be entertained at the home of Mrs. William Rust, Sr., four miles north of Alliance, tomorrow afternoon. Home made ice cream and cake will be served. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Fifteen cents will be charged for the refreshments.

Meals 35 cents and rooms 50 to 75 cents. He has a modern equipment, and can assure his customers satisfaction.
