ACCUSED OF STEALING

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal doesn't exist." Only 25c at F. J. Brennan's.

SURVEYING FOR HOMESTEADERS

J. P. Hazard, the surveyor, has been kept busy lately surveying for homesteaders in Morrill county. He is well posted with the regulations of the Interior department relative to homesteads, and by being able to give prospective homesteaders reliable information, as well as doing their surveying, he finds his services in great demand. Mr. Hazard finds that one of the Herald's Premium

VISITS CITY FOR SUPPLIES

John Kleeman and Henry Saghemill came up from Cleman Tuesday with a four horse team to get a load of supplies for haying time. Mr. Kleeman favored The Herald office with a call while in the city and gave us some interesting information about that part of the country. Cleman post office, which is supposed to be the English spelling of the German name Kleeman, was established in 1896. Mr. Kleeman being appointed the first postmaster, and has held that position ever since, evidently with satisfaction to the patrons of the office. This was the first post office established between Alliance and the Platte river in the eastern part of what is now Morrill county, formerly the northern part of Cheyenne county. Mr. Kleeman informs us that the recent rains will improve the hay crop in his neighborhood, and does not seem to think that there will be much of a shortage of feed this year.

SWAN'S NEW RESIDENCE

W. H. Swan's large new residence at 424 Laramie Avenue is nearing completion. The plastering has been completed, and now Art Mote and W. H. Glass are finishing the carpenter work. It will be ready for occupancy early in the fall, and will be one of the most elegant and convenient residences in this city. It is modern in every respect, well situated and finely finished. Being in a convenient location, it will be one of the

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Mother Superior Agatha of St. Agnes Academy, accompanied by several sisters returned today from Buffalo, N. Y.

The board of county commissioners met on Monday of this week as a board of equalization, this being an adjourned meeting. On Tuesday and Wednesday forenoons they were in session as board of county commissioners for the purpose of transacting general business.

J. L. Willis of Dalton, cashier of the Dalton State Bank, came to Alliance last evening, and will spend a few days in this city, the guest of his friend, Earl Mallory.

Miss Ella M. Andress, a teacher in the Omaha city schools, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas. She has been spending several weeks at a sanatorium at Hot Springs, S. D., and arrived in Alliance last night. Her health has been very much improved during the few weeks she has been in this part of the west. If she had a position as governess or something of that kind in this country, she would probably take a year off from teaching.

Lloyd C. Thomas came in from Lingle, Wyoming this morning, having spent last night in Bridgeport. He reports everything lovely in the irrigated country. The alfalfa in the vicinity of Lingle is exceptionally good this year, and the valley at that place is dotted with hundreds of stacks of the valuable forage.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Deuel and Joseph Lyon received a telegram Tuesday night informing them that Clyde Lyon, brother of Mrs. Deuel and Mr. Lyon, was very ill at the home of his mother near Callaway, and not expected to live long. They took the next train for Broken Bow, from which place they intended to drive across the country. Their brother, Clyde Lyon, was three years in the marine service, during which time he met with a severe accident, which caused him to be prostrated by the heat this summer.

MARRIED AT BRIDGEPORT

Two highly esteemed young people of Alliance, Joseph N. Johnson and Miss Agnes M. Deuel, were united in marriage last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nolan at Bridgeport, Rev. J. L. B. Jones, D. D., Ph. D., of Alliance, officiating. The bride has been a resident of Alliance for several years, being one of our most highly respected young ladies. Her father has a ranch ten miles from Bridgeport.

They will leave today for Minneapolis, Minn., to spend their honeymoon at the home of the groom's father, John Johnson, after which they will go to New Mexico to make their home. They will run an extensive sheep ranch in that new state.

Child is Shot by Her Mother.

The two-year-old daughter of Charles Cornell, living near Beaver City, was accidentally shot by her mother. Mrs. Cornell had a gun and was trying to kill a cat when the child ran in front of the gun. The bullet entered her forehead and came out at the back of the head. The doctors have given up all hope of recovery.

High Prices for Relics.

For a small silver cup of the commonwealth period, weighing three ounces, $150 an ounce was paid in London recently, while a Charles II tumbler, with the York hall mark of 1682, brought $100 an ounce.
