MARRIED? GOING TO BE?

Don't do it, unless you have money in the bank. Happiness, without a little ready cash for emergencies, seldom lasts long for two. Every man, no matter how large or small his business, should always keep some cash on hand.

If you have a bank account, know the value of money, can live within your income—GO AHEAD—you have our best wishes. When it's all over, this bank will welcome your account.

The First National

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Miss Emma Tash spent several days in Hemingford last week.

Jack Miller has been appointed Drill Master for the Boy Scouts, and will give them his best attention.

Mrs. Bowles, the milliner who has been visiting at the Sherlock ranch the last week or two, will return to the city Saturday. Mrs. L. J. Hall has had charge of the millinery shop during Mrs. Bowles' absence.

L. J. Hall, the Singer sewing machine man, came over from Rushville to spend Sunday at home. He reports good business in the towns along the line of the Northwestern.

The appearance of the interior of the post office has been greatly improved by a coat of alabaster, put on by Messrs. Burns and Pleasant, who are now improving the rooms at the Younkin Rooming House with a similar coat.

Clare, the nine months old son of Prof. and Mrs. G. M. Burns, is recovering from an attack of cholera infantum.

Mrs. B. F. Gilman, who has been visiting at the home of her mother and other relatives at Portage, Washington, since the fore part of June, is expected home about the first of September. Her many friends will be pleased to have her back home again, but no one will be as delighted as Attorney Gilman.

Engineer Peters, of Edgemont, S. D., arrived in Alliance Tuesday from Denver, driving a big White Steamer auto on his way home. He has a good deal of ranch land in the vicinity of Edgemont and will use his car in looking after the same, as well as for pleasure driving.

Guy Lockwood's new electric gong, which he has put up for use of the lunch counter recently opened, attracted a great deal of attention the first few days. Now that the people in this part of the city have learned that it is not a fire alarm or a police call, they do not get alarmed when they hear it.

Young Mr. Crozier, of Ellsworth, who is one of the proprietors of a store at that town, was in Alliance this week Monday and Tuesday.

Chas. C. Jameson, of Ellsworth, secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska Stock Growers Association, was in Alliance yesterday. Part of his business was to make arrangements for the publication of a stockmen's brand book.

State Manager Tiley held a special meeting of the Yoemen lodge at the K. C. Hall Tuesday evening. We understand that there was a large attendance present and a very interesting meeting was held.

C. A. Burlew, one of Hemingford's most successful business men, was seen on the streets of Alliance yesterday.

Barney Halbur, a ranchman from northeast of Hemingford, was in Alliance yesterday on business. The Herald office was favored with a short call. Mr. Halbur informs us that after potato digging time is over he expects to make a trip to his old home in Carroll county, Iowa, and eastern Nebraska. He reports corn and potatoes fine in his neighborhood.

Miss Inez Beck returned the first part of the week from St. Joseph and eastern points. She reports a very enjoyable time.

A business transaction of interest to Alliance people this week was the selling of the residence of Mrs. Ince McCorkle Dunning, 605 Big Horn Ave., to Carl Witham. Mr. Witham will remodel the house and expects to have it modern in every way.

Dr. Turner, of Hastings college, was to have delivered a lecture at the First Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening of this week, but after announcements had been made, arrangements were changed so that he could not be present at that time. We suppose the lecture will be delivered some time in the near future.

Mrs. Ella Hawkins and children expect to leave soon for California.

Lloyd Tulley, who has been on the sick list the past week, is able to be up and around again.

H. T. Carey is enjoying a visit from his sister, Mrs. Carey of Indiana. After visiting a short time in Alliance they will continue their journey to the coast.

Charles W. Lockwood, of Hemingford, successor to D. E. Johnson in the mercantile business at that place, was in Alliance last Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Ayers and children, of Sterling, are visiting her mother, Mrs. P. McDermott. They are just returning from a very enjoyable camping trip in the Black Hills, and will visit here a few days before returning to Sterling.

Mrs. Irwin Wright, of Dunning, Nebraska, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson, returned home the latter part of the week.

Miss Hazel Thornberg of Lincoln, who has been the guest of Miss Alice Carlson the past week, returned to her home Monday morning. Miss Thornberg made many friends while in Alliance who will be glad to see her return at any time.

Mrs. Fred Kauffold informed The Herald last week that they have twenty acres of potatoes on their place eleven miles northwest of this city for which they were recently offered $1,000, the purchaser to take them in the ground and dig them. They refused the offer, and think by digging and marketing them themselves they can realize $1,500 from the twenty acres.

Miss Jose O'Donnell left for Denver the latter part of the week. She will spend two weeks in the wholesale house before returning to Alliance, where she will trim the coming season.

G. J. Barry, contractor and builder, of Spokane, Wash., who has been prospecting in the towns along the Platte valley, passed through Alliance last Friday, enroute to Crawford, where he formerly did some work in his line for the government. He may locate in northwestern Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nichols, of Omaha, arrived in Alliance last Friday morning. Mr. Nichols is with the Wood Bros. Commission Company of South Omaha, and will spend a couple of weeks in the interest of his firm, traveling through the sand hill cattle country. During this time Mrs. Nichols will remain in Alliance.

The Alliance office of L. C. Wakeman & Co., who have been engaged in the supply business here, has been temporarily closed. L. C. Wakeman and his assistant, H. C. Hurt, left last Friday morning for Aurora, where they expected to open an office for the same business in connection with R. W. Beal's produce commission house. The supply office of Wakeman & Co., at Sterling, Colo., will be continued, and the Alliance office may be reopened some time in the future.

The Co-Operative store has recently installed an up-to-date accounting system which is proving to be a great convenience to them with their rapidly increasing trade.

Miss Cecil Patrick, who has been a guest at the home of the Misses O'Donnell the past few weeks, will return to her home at Hot Springs Friday morning.

F. J. Was, of the First National Bank, accompanied R. M. Hampton on a trip to the latter's ranch the forepart of the week. That Mr. Was is not accustomed to western Nebraska sun and wind was plainly evident on his return to town.

Miss Bess Mitchell, of the law office of Wm. Mitchell, has gone east on her annual vacation. She is being relieved by Miss Gregg. Miss Mitchell expects to be gone about a month.

Mrs. John Wallace has moved to the Younkin building where she may be found by all her old customers and friends, and kindly invites them all to call. She will continue her business as dressmaker. Phone 161. 36-11-619.

Word received from Mrs. R. T. Watson states that she is enjoying greatly a visit with her brother, G. M. Parker, and family, at Piryallup, Washington, where she has been the past three weeks. She expects to continue her visit about ten days longer, before returning home.

W. H. Zehrung is ill, suffering from lead poisoning, which disease is not uncommon among those of his profession, that of painter. Unless Mr. Zehrung experiences a decided change for the better soon, he expects to go to Hot Springs in the hope of receiving benefit from the hot mineral water baths to be had at that place.

Good pictures of the cyclone can be secured from Harvey Meyers, Alliance, or by calling at Holsten's Drug Store.

E. J. Purinton and bride, from Lincoln, arrived in Alliance Tuesday noon to spend a few days with his father, D. E. Purinton. Young Mr. Purinton is a dispatcher in the Burlington offices at Lincoln. His bride is a highly esteemed young lady of that city. The Herald wishes them a pleasant visit in Box Butte county, and much joy and happiness down the journey of life.

Miss Ruth Morris, Mrs. John Wikler and Mrs. Morris departed Sunday morning for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Nelson, in Deadwood.

Potato stories are now more interesting than fish stories. Denny Landrigan gives us one as a starter: A few days ago he dug several bushels to sell. A neighbor wanted a peck and in weighing them Denny gave good measure by making it sixteen pounds. On counting the potatoes it was found that there were just twenty-five of them, averaging a little more than three-fifths of a pound to the spud. Not so bad this year with spuds selling at $2.00 per.

T. S. Jones has resigned the leadership of the Alliance band, and has accepted a more lucrative position offered him by George Younkin as leader of the Younkin eight piece band and orchestra. Mr. Younkin is determined to make a success of his vaudeville and moving picture show in the big tent recently purchased, and will spare no pains or expense in making it an attraction that will draw crowds. They will leave soon for Scottsbluff where they will show a week. From there they will go to Wyoming points, thence as far south as Texas.

Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Brown left Monday morning for Sutherlin, Oregon, where they will spend Mr. Brown's annual three weeks' vacation. They were accompanied by Rev. Brown's mother, Mrs. Robert Brown of Hastings, Nebraska, who arrived in Alliance Saturday morning. Rev. Brown informed The Herald that he will be gone from Alliance two sabbaths, August 20th and 27th. Rev. D. W. Montgomery will supply the pulpit, morning and evening, Aug. 20th, and Rev. Mr. Sayre of Gering, the Sunday following.

Little Evelyn Kuhn, who has been very ill with diphtheria the past week, is reported some better at this writing.

Conductor W. E. Cotant returned to Alliance the forepart of last week from Chicago, where he has been several months. Mr. Cotant is feeling much better than when he left Alliance.

Miss Roberts, of the Horace Bogue millinery store, returned home Sunday, after an absence of ten days in St. Louis and Kansas City, where she went to buy her fall stock of millinery supplies.

SALE ON FANCY WORK, Stuckey Company.

Cattle business in the sand hill country has been lively this week, M. C. Hubbell and Chas. Tully shipping fifteen cars. Some of the cars were loaded at Lakeside and others at Ellsworth.

Alva Lotapach and wife, of Minatare, were Alliance visitors the latter part of this week.

Mrs. Lee Achoson and children are spending a few weeks in Iowa, visiting at different points.

The home talent play which is under the direction of Miss Ware, and which will appear at the Phelan opera house, August 23rd, is progressing very nicely. "The Bachelor's Reverie" is a play that will please every one, and no doubt a large number of people will take advantage of this opportunity to hear some good music, as well as to see some good acting.

Willie Graham of Minatare, who is employed in the bank at that place, is spending his annual vacation on his father's ranch southeast of here.

J. L. Westover returned Tuesday from a visit with home folks in Rushville. He attended the wedding of a sister while away.

Mrs. R. G. Fleming and daughters, Isabella and Bernice, returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Fleming's parents and relatives at Missouri Valley, Iowa.

At the next regular meeting of the M. B. A., to be held Wednesday evening, August 23rd, a social will be given to the members and their families. Refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, etc., will be served free to those present.

F. E. Sanders, 715 East 9th St., is a new subscriber to The Herald. He has been working in the shops at Alliance the last seven years, and that he is making good in his work is shown by the fact that besides supporting his family comfortably, he has purchased the property where he resides, an example which many wage earners would find to their advantage to follow.

Simon Spry returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Omaha.

Miss Sue Duffield and father bid adieu to Alliance friends Monday morning and left for their home in Indiana. They have spent the greater part of the summer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCluer, and made many friends during their visit here.

Claude Vaughn and wife were Alliance visitors the first of the week, coming up from their ranch at Bonner.

SALE ON FANCY WORK, Stuckey Company.

Mrs. James Gaddis is reported as being seriously ill. Her large acquaintance of friends in this city will hope for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. C. E. Bennett was hostess at the meeting of the Ladies' Guild yesterday afternoon. A very enjoyable time is reported.

Glen Miller, son of J. B. Miller, who was thrown from a horse last Saturday afternoon, resulting in a fractured wrist and one bone broken, is improving nicely at this writing.

Mrs. A. R. Ocker, of Edgar, Nebr., arrived yesterday noon to make her sister, Mrs. Carl Witham, a ten days' visit.

George B. McGill, machinist at the Burlington shops, met with a very painful accident yesterday, resulting in the third finger of his right hand being cut off. Mr. McGill was taken to the hospital where he is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Money Invested in a Home Brings You Real Rewards that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you're ready.

BIG VOTING CONTEST BEGINS

Alliance Roller Rink Will Give Away Elegant Diamond Ring

Manager E. E. Hislop of the Alliance Roller Rink had tickets printed and last evening started a big voting contest, the prize in which is a lady's elegant diamond ring which is now on display at Holsten's. The contest will close not later than November 1st, at least two weeks' notice to be given of the closing date. Every skate ticket purchased entitles purchaser to ten votes. Only ladies who skate during time of the contest will be eligible to become contestants.

Three have been a number of voting contests in Alliance that have attracted a great deal of attention, but we expect that this will be one of the most interesting of all of them. The ring is a very valuable one and as there are so many Alliance people who enjoy roller skating, there will without doubt be a lively contest.

Five Varieties of Apples

Letter from Henry Hopkins That a Car Load is Coming to Alliance

ARRIVE TODAY OR TOMORROW

The following letter which The Herald has received from Henry Hopkins, whose visit to eastern Nebraska and Iowa was mentioned in last week's issue, will be of special interest to readers in Alliance and surrounding country:

Thurman, Iowa, August 14, 1911. Mr. Thomas, Alliance, Nebraska. Dear Sir: On my trip in the eastern part of our great state of Nebraska, and some Iowa points, I concluded that Box Butte is a pretty good county to live in, but in the line of fruits we are not in it, consequently I made up my mind if there were any good apples for sale, I would buy them for Box Butte. I located a nice lot of five varieties and am loading a car right now. Expect to them in Alliance about the 17th or 18th of August.

Yours truly, HENRY HOPKINS.
