Telephoning Your Dressmaker

Telephone shopping has become a habit with millions of women, because it is the most comfortable way, saving time and trouble in making long trips down town.

The modern housewife demands a Bell telephone, because it not only reaches her local shops but connects her with every large city in the country.

Bell service is employed in all the details of every-day life, sometimes as a necessity, sometimes as a convenience, but always as a time and trouble saver.

Jeremiah Cast Into Prison, Jer. xxxvii.

Golden Text—Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Matt. v:11.

(1.) Verses 1-2—When sin is working wreck and ruin, how do you explain that men keep on in their disobedience to God, as Zedekiah did?

(2.) How did Zedekiah become king of Judah?

(3.) What if any relation was Zedekiah to the king of Babylon. (See 2 Kings xxiv:17.)

(4.) What makes people disregard one whom they believe to be a true prophet, as many of these Jews did Jeremiah?

(5.) Verses 3-4—Jerusalem was now besieged with a powerful army, and Zedekiah in fear sent to ask Jeremiah to pray to God for them; was there merit or demerit, in this request from such a man? Why?

(6.) Does God answer the prayers of the wicked for the success of their projects, or the prayers of good people in their behalf?

(7.) How should a man be treated who is constantly pointing out national sins, and forecasting their disastrous consequences? Is he a traitor or a patriot?

(8.) Verses 5-10—Zedekiah in spite of his oath to the king of Babylon had rebelled against him, and made a league with the king of Egypt; what did God say through Jeremiah should be the result?

(9.) What is the demerit of the sin to break an oath or betray a trust?

(10.) What reason is there to believe that there comes a time, in the life of an individual, when his fate is sealed and his doom certain?

(11.) Verse 11—The Chaldean king of Babylon raised the siege of Jerusalem, so that Pharaoh's army of relief returned to Egypt, possibly driven back by the Chaldeans. This gave Jerusalem a short respite. What should the wicked do while God withholds his judgments?

(12.) Verses 12-14—What was the probable object of Jeremiah in leaving Jerusalem, now he had the opportunity?

(13.) Was there any ground at all for accusing Jeremiah of being a traitor? (See chap. 28.)

(14.) Which is generally the worse, "a lie out of whole cloth" or one based upon facts perverted?

(15.) Verses 15-16—Why in view of God's almighty power does He permit his servants to suffer for their very faithfulness?

(16.) Verse 17—Likely by this time the Chaldean army had re-invested the city, and then Zedekiah, the king, gets Jeremiah out of prison to consult him. Is it a usual thing for bad men when in prosperity to reject good people, and when in adversity consult them, or ask their prayers?
Give your reasons.

(17.) Jeremiah told the king the blunt truth. Why should we always do that with sinners?

(18.) Verses 18-21—Does a good man ever get where he may not suffer hunger, cold, or other bodily discomforts, or when he does not desire bodily comforts as do other men?
(This is one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

ATTACK LIKE TIGERS

In fighting to keep the blood pure, the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strengthen and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif. "I have ever found."
They make rich, red blood, strong
