LOCAL NEWS

Hay fever is all the rage now. If you haven't it, you're not in style.

Did you notice the Model Candy Kitchen's ad in The Herald?

Misses Neeland and Merchant of Hemingford are visiting this week with the Misses Tash.

Mrs. F. E. Holsten has issued invitations for a large card party to be at her home Friday afternoon.

The Eastern Star will have initiation at their regular meeting next Tuesday evening. A large attendance is desired.

Next Saturday afternoon the Royal Neighbors will hold a very important business meeting. All members interested are requested to attend.

Misses Lois and Ruth Wildy of Hemingford visited at the Tash home the first of the week. They were on their return home from visiting friends at Guernsey and other points.

Claude Vaughan has been spending a few days on the North Platte valley this week, buying up alfalfa for the wholesale trade of Vaughan & Son.

Mother Agatha returned a couple of weeks ago from her trip east on business connected with St. Agnes Academy. She was gone four weeks, visiting Buffalo, Columbus, Cleveland, Chicago and other points.

Fine weather we are having in this country. The recent rains put the pastures in good shape and boosted the corn and potatoes, and now the little dry spell comes in just right for haying.

F. E. Nichols from twelve miles northwest of Alliance was in town yesterday. Having heard that the potato crop at Scottsbluff was short he telephoned to see if the price there would pay him to haul a load of spuds over.

Mrs. F. C. McConnell, who for the past month has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. J. Rousseau, left for the south on 44 last Monday. Before going to her home in Waco, Texas, she will spend a few weeks with another daughter, in Kansas City, Mo.

J. F. Hill and family are now residents of Alliance, coming last week from Simla, near which place they own a section of land. They wish to place their two children in the Alliance schools. Mr. Hill will have employment in the shops. They will make their home at 312 East 3rd St.

Charley Rhear, a young Montana sheep man, was in Alliance during the past week interviewing real estate men with a view to purchasing a ranch in this part of Nebraska. He had been as far east as New York City looking for a location, but did not find anything that suits him as well as Nebraska, which is his native state.

Last week The Herald should have mentioned the departure of Mrs. S. J. Holdridge and son, Merle, for Kansas City, where the latter will attend business college. They have many friends in Alliance who will join with us in the hope that they will decide to return here after Merle has completed his business course. Before leaving, Mrs. Holdridge called at The Herald office and ordered the paper to keep them posted on happenings in this part of Nebraska.

John Ritter, a brother-in-law of Martin Mulhall, one of the old timers in the Ellsworth neighborhood, came out from Dubuque, Iowa, about six months ago with his wife and four sons. He and three sons each have a claim of 640 acres south of Ellsworth, the other son not being old enough yet to enter a claim. At present Mrs. Ritter is visiting friends

In Chicago. Mr. Ritter was in Alliance the fore part of the week on business. He made The Herald office a call and left three dollars on subscription, taking one of the premium wall charts. As he is a new subscriber, he is credited three years on subscription.

F. H. McCarthy of Union, Nebr., stopped off at Alliance last Friday, on his way to Billings, for a visit with his brother, Lycurgus. This was his first visit to Box Butte county, but seemed to be favorably impressed with the country, and may decide to invest in some real estate here.

A. C. Christensen of Omaha, traveling salesman for Miller & Cooper, wholesale celery dealers, was in Alliance Monday making contracts with local merchants for handling their goods which have a reputation for being first-class quality. Mr. Christensen being an old-time acquaintance of The Herald editor, made this office his usual welcome call.

A. E. Hilderbrand, special representative of the Western Land-Products Exhibit which is to be held in Omaha in October, was in Alliance recently making arrangements for an exhibit from Box Butte county. This is a matter that should be of special interest to our real estate men, and The Herald is pleased to learn that they are taking hold of it with a view to seeing that we are properly represented at the Omaha Land-Products Exhibit as well as at the State Fair in September.

The Herald regrets the necessity for recording the departure from Alliance of Virgil Smith, who for the past three years has been employed at Darling's furniture store. He left last Saturday night for Humboldt, Nebraska, the home of his parents, where he will make a visit, and then go to Ames, Iowa, to begin a two years' course of study at the Iowa State Agricultural College. During his residence in this city he showed himself to be an industrious, upright young man, and made many friends who will be delighted should he decide to return to Alliance after completing his college course.

Today and tomorrow (Thursday and Friday) are the two days of the old soldiers' reunion at Scottsbluff. The celebration will be of the nature of a street fair. Various sports have been provided for the amusement of the people. Among the speakers are Addison Waite, secretary of state, and Hon. W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, the "Little Giant", who is well known throughout the state as a politician and successful attorney and who is now prominent as a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator next year.

ST. AGNES ACADEMY

School Will Open on Tuesday, September 5th, With Bright Prospects

WILL BE LARGE ATTENDANCE

Tuesday, September 5th, is the day set for the opening of school at St. Agnes Academy. Tuesday is selected as the opening day instead of Monday in order that students from a distance may come on Monday and be present on the opening day.

The indications are that the attendance the coming year will be much larger than any previous year. This is expected, not only because the attendance has increased each year since the school was established, but also because of the many inquiries that have been received during the summer. It is fortunate that the Academy now has ample facilities to accommodate the large number of students that enroll. The large new addition to the building which was just being completed at the close of the last school year is now well equipped, giving additional dormitory, music rooms and gymnasium, as well as more room for other purposes.

In addition to the twelve grades carried in the public schools, including the four years' High school work, a Commercial department and a Music and Arts department are maintained, and to each of these special attention is given. So far as we know there is no school in Nebraska outside of Lincoln and its suburbs and Omaha that has a better equipped musical department. The Commercial department is also especially strong. Persons who expect to enter the Commercial course this fall are requested to enroll this week.

Following is the Academic Calendar for the ensuing year:

- September, First Tuesday—School Opens.
- September 7—Mass of the Holy Ghost.
- November 1—Feast of All Saints.
- November, Last Thursday—Thanksgiving Day.
- December 8—Feast of the Immaculate Conception.
- December 22—Christmas Vacation Begins.

January 3—Christmas Vacation Ends.

January 21—Feast of St. Agnes.

January 25—Semi-annual Examinations Begin.

February 22—Washington's Birthday.

April 3—Easter Vacation Begins.

April 10—Easter Vacation Ends.

May 6—Ascension Day.

June, Second Week—Final Examinations.

June, Third Wednesday—Closing Exercises.

June, Third Wednesday—Mass of Thanksgiving.

Many a Man Owes His Success to the Building of a home because it has served as an anchor and kept him in a straight line and away, possibly, from the many "get rich quick" schemes which are so plentiful today and which so often mean riches only for the smooth tongued promoters thereof. By investing in YOUR HOME TOWN you are dealing with values and people with whom you are acquainted—people who are interested in your welfare because your success means the success of others about you, and the more successful citizens a town can boast of the better place it will be. All the lumber we have in our yards was purchased with the view of giving our customers honest values, and when you decide to build we want to tell you more about our methods.
