

The Winning Spirit

PERSEVERANCE and doggedness often-est bring results. One of our depositors started a savings account four different times. Three times he was forced to withdraw his savings to pay for life necessities, but he is still with us and now he has a wall of dollars between himself and possible sickness and want. He has the spirit that wins against all odds. And his savings account with us helps.

Everybody Knows Something About Lumber Values

these days, but the home-builder who listens to the cry of "wait until lumber is cheaper" is not apt to be any nearer his goal on his death-bed than he is today. The Government recommends TIMBER CONSERVATION and this alone is proof that lumber has a fixed value. Our years of experience in buying and selling lumber lead us to advise our friends that NOW'S THE TIME TO BUILD. There's but one crop of timber for most of us. If you contemplate a new home we want to talk with you—we have all grades of lumber. The lowest quality starts at good and goes up. Give us a call and learn the facts about these lumber values.

AMERICA'S GREATEST WOMAN ORATOR

Rare Treat for People of Alliance and Northwest Nebraska

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 21

Mrs. Mary Harris Armor of Georgia, who is called "The Greatest Woman Orator in America," will speak at the Phelan opera house in Alliance, Thursday evening, Sept. 21. So great is the demand for her lectures that we consider the Alliance W. C. T. U., under whose auspices she comes, fortunate in being able to secure her at this time. As the demand for her lectures is nation-wide, it is doubtful whether she will again speak in this part of Nebraska.

Not merely because of the cause Mrs. Armor represents, but also because to hear her eloquence will be a real treat. The Herald urges all its readers who can possibly hear her next Thursday night to do so. The address will be free to all who attend, and will be worth coming many miles to hear. We hope many from the country and neighboring towns will be present.

In behalf of those who have the arrangements for this address in charge, The Herald extends to everybody a most cordial invitation to attend. Come out and hear the speech. It will interest you, whether you believe as the speaker does on everything she speaks about or not. We would like to see the throng that will no doubt fill the opera house include every saloon keeper and bartender, the hard drinkers and the moderate drinkers, as well as the total abstainers.

From the many newspaper quotations that might be reprinted we give the following two:

Impetuous and Irresistible Eloquence
Mrs. Armor is a woman of intense earnestness, with a bright mind that works like lightning, a command of language that is as remarkable as it is unusual, and an impetuous eloquence that seems to come from the very depths of her soul. She is a woman of rare convictions and of rare mentality, and with the faculty of forcible expression developed to a wonderful extent.—The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer-Sun, Nov. 19th, 1908.

Wildest Yells of Applause
Mrs. Mary Harris Armor awoke the wildest enthusiasm, brought the immense audience to its feet again and again, with hat or handkerchief in hand, giving vent to the wildest yells of applause and approval. The ovation which Mrs. Armor received at the close of her speech lasted for two or three minutes.—Daily Journal and Tribune, Knoxville (Tenn.) Jan. 18th, 1908.

course. Mr. Mewhirter will remain as manager of the Wehn Telephone Company but will divide his time between this place and the other towns on the line wherever his presence may be required. We are glad to say that the Mewhirters' removal is only temporary, and that they will come back to Lewellen at the end of the school year.—Lewellen Gazette, Sept. 9.

Mrs. K. Tiffany and little son, Kenneth, of Cleveland, Ohio, who have been visiting in Alliance the past few weeks, started on their return journey Monday. Mrs. Tiffany is a sister of Mother Agatha of St. Agnes Academy.

Miss Amelia Walsmith of Deadwood, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph V. Cox, for the past three weeks, returned to her home Sunday morning on 41. Miss Walsmith made many friends during her visit here who will welcome her whenever she returns to this city.

Prof. G. H. Williams' address is now 1512 U St., Lincoln, Nebr. We mention this for information of his many friends who are readers of The Herald, as he has changed his address since going to Lincoln to attend the law school of the state university.

The amount of Mr. Newberry's contract for installing Bridgeport's water plant was incorrectly given in these columns last week. It should have read $12,770.62. The amount of O. J. Life's contract is $1,786, and that of the Bridgeport Lumber Co. $375, making a total of $14,931.62.—Bridgeport News-Blade.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pollard and Mr. and Mrs. O. U. Lenington and two children formed an automobile party that passed through Alliance Tuesday on their return home from a trip to Denver. Mr. Pollard is foreman in the Chadron Journal office, and favored The Herald with a fraternal call while in the city.

E. Reeves returned Monday morning from a three weeks' visit in the eastern part of Nebraska, having taken in the state fair. Mrs. Reeves went from Lincoln to Merriman for a visit of a week or ten days before returning home. Mr. Reeves says that it was well worth the trip to the state fair to see the bird men, two of whom made flights each day during the state fair.

Mrs. Maud Engstrom, a state deputy of the Woodmen Circle, was in town the first of the week in conference with the local officers, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. B. Mewhirter and Mrs. T. J. Love. The local lodge was never fully instituted and it was the mission of the state deputy's visit to mend the defect.—Lewellen Gazette.

C. E. Marks, of the Marks Harness Co., has a place of business of which he may well be proud, his store being the largest exclusive harness store in northwestern Nebraska. He has just had a half-tone cut of the same made which he is using on stationary to show the people what the front of his place of business looks like.

Mrs. G. W. Ragan of Angora came to Alliance, Saturday, September 2, with her children, Ruth and Arthur. They are residing at 710 Missouri Ave., to which address she orders The Herald sent. They came to Alliance for the purpose of securing the benefit of our excellent public schools. Mr. Ragan will remain on the ranch near Angora.

Who says the news in the local paper is not read away from home? Two weeks ago The Herald mentioned as an item of local news that Beal Brothers were about to begin shipping potatoes, and gave some further information about spuds of their growing, etc. The item was quoted by an exchange in Illinois in a way that would put this country to the good in the estimation of its readers.

The Herald does not wish to ask people to do a thing that would be regretted afterwards, but we prefer urging them to do what they will afterwards be pleased for having done. We doubt not that there will be some who will not attend the lecture to be given at the Phelan opera house next Thursday by "America's Greatest Woman Orator," Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, and who will afterwards regret they did not take advantage of the opportunity to hear her. For this reason we wish to ask all who can possibly hear this address to do so.
