LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Dr. Boland, phone 65.

A nice little shower last Saturday laid the dust for a while.

Miss Marie Carey is employed as teacher at the Hashman school, nine miles northwest of Alliance.

Miss Alice Acheson began teaching school near Reno, but was called home Monday on account of the serious illness of her mother.

The Sheridan county fair this year is reported to have been the biggest and best in the history of the fair association.

Mrs. A. H. Robbins and son, of Alliance, spent the week visiting Engineer Robbins of this place.—Marsland Tribune.

Dr. and Mrs. Willis and daughter boarded train No. 44 for Alliance on Wednesday, where they spent the day visiting friends.—Marsland Tribune.

E. R. Morrison is a new subscriber to The Herald. He holds a good position with the C. B. & Q. railroad as a laboring man, and we appreciate his subscription to the paper.

Cal Simpson went to Bridgeport last Thursday and took a number of orders for apples to be shipped from Alliance. He is working for A. Berlin & Son, the Brownville apple men.

F. W. Scott, who lives east of Scottsbluff, shipped a car of cabbage to Alliance this week. The cabbage was of excellent fine quality, like all other products of the North Platte valley.—Scottsbluff Herald, Sept. 29.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting next Thursday, September 12, at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. J. J. Vance. The new members especially are invited to be present.

One thing Alliance can be thankful for is that we have had no occasion to apologize for some aviator not flying at a time promised, as has been the case with so many Nebraska towns this year.

Mrs. T. M. Burrow and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. L. T. Burrow, left Tuesday night for the west, one going to Washington and the other to Oregon for a visit. They will probably be gone several weeks. Mrs. T. M. Burrow will visit a brother whom she has not seen for thirty years.

Jim Feagins and son Fred left Sunday noon for Omaha. Mr. Feagins had several cars of cattle that he was shipping from Lakeside. Fred will visit a few days in Omaha, and will then go to Woodbine, Ia., where he will enter business college for the coming year.

Mrs. Roy Strong returned Saturday noon from the W. C. T. U. state convention at McCook; Mrs. Vance arrived Sunday, having visited over Saturday night at Sidney; Miss Laura Vance arrived Tuesday, visiting in Sidney three days from Saturday; and Miss Mabel Young and brother, R. C. Young, did not come in till later, having visited going to the convention and on their return at Denver, Hastings and Lincoln.

D. A. Jamison of Antioch was in Alliance on business yesterday. He came from Iowa to Nebraska three years ago, taking a claim five miles southwest of Antioch (Reno station), and besides holding his claim and attending to the work thereon, he devotes some of his time to the real estate business, selling land and locating homesteaders. Wishing to keep in touch with the current events of this part of the west he recently ordered his name added to The Herald's list of subscribers.

Mrs. E. Reeves left Tuesday morning for Hot Springs, having received word Monday that the children of her son, B. V. Reeves, had been having whooping cough badly, and that one of them, the babe, could not live long.

Mrs. W. S. Acheson who has been very ill is reported much improved at this writing.

Miss Ethel Nolan left Tuesday night for Omaha and Lincoln to be gone for several days.

Miss Blanche Macdonald returned the latter part of last week from a ten days' visit in Chicago and Michigan.

Miss McCoy entertained Miss Della M. Reed and her friend, Mr. Chas. Price, of Michigan, at an elaborate six o'clock dinner Friday evening at her ranch home south of town.

We are pleased to learn that W. H. Zehring, who went to Beatrice, Nebr., recently for his health, on account of that being a lower altitude than Alliance, has been improving for about ten days past, with good prospects of soon being completely recovered.

Wm. Hollinrake of Hemingford, whose ranch is about half way between that town and Marsland, stopped in Alliance between trains Saturday morning on his way home from Omaha, where he had been shipping cattle. He is one of The Herald's oldest subscribers (we mean he has been a subscriber for many years—he is not an old man), and favored us with a friendly call. Although his time was not yet out, he added another year to his credit on our subscription books.

Tuesday evening was the time set by Mr. Patton for beginning his class in shorthand, but some who wished to take lessons were not ready to begin at that time and it was thought best to postpone the opening till Friday evening of this week. This will give persons who wish to learn shorthand under the instruction of a competent teacher a splendid opportunity to do so without losing any time from work. The time of beginning is tomorrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in Room 1, over the Times office.

The Rushville Standard has been digging up some news from its files of sixteen years ago. Following is one of the items that will have a familiar sound to many Herald readers: "C. H. Tully shipped his cattle Tuesday night—300 head, to Carroll, Iowa. We understand that Mr. Tully proposes to retail them out to small feeders in that section of the Hawkeye state, where they have an immense corn crop this year. Mr. Tully and Chris Mosler both went with the cattle."

Following is the standing of the contestants for the diamond ring offered as a prize by the Alliance roller rink, up to and including Wednesday night, October 4:

Nelle Keeler	5590
Emma Coleman	4690
Emma Fraker	910
Marie Dismar	500
Thelma Carey	460

All votes for each week during the balance of contest must be turned in by Saturday night.

Mrs. J. P. Barge terminated a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Sweeney, and many Alliance friends last Saturday night and returned to her home at Central City, where her husband is in business, being one of the prominent merchants of that town. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. T. Wiker, who went to Central City on business, expecting to return to Alliance the last of this week.

DEATH OF SISTER ANITA

As we are about to go to press with this issue of The Herald we learn with sorrow of the demise this morning of Sister Anita, teacher of the primary grades at St. Agnes Academy. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, interment in the Catholic cemetery. Sister Anita came from Stella Academy, Niagara Falls, last spring. This is the first death of a Sister in Alliance. Indeed, blessed are they who die in the Lord.

The Best Advice On Lumber Costs The Least Money and when we say to prospective homebuilders that "now's the time to build" we are offering you really sound advice. No matter what you have heard about cheaper lumber, take it from us that you're on the safe side if you build right now. We haven't been in the lumber business for these many years for nothing—we know a thing or two and we're willing to admit you do too, but in the face of all this talk nowadays about timber conservation we believe you'll agree that lumber has a fixed value and that by delaying the building of your new home you will gain nothing but inconvenience.

We believe we can convince you the above is good advice—let's talk it over.
