A. F. Allen, well known in Alliance through having formerly resided in this city but for some time past holding a claim west of Bridgeport, shipped a car load of cabbage from the North Platte valley to eastern points last week, passing through Alliance and stopping over Thursday.

H. E. Boon spent most of the summer at the ranch in Morrill county but came to Alliance last week to be at home a few days. He brings a good report of ranch conditions. While hay was a little short in some places, it was better than usual on the low ground and averages up pretty well. Stock is in good condition to go into the winter.

Word from the German hospital at Kansas City, Mo., is to the effect that Charlie Teater is improving gradually, being able now to get out doors two or three times a day. His physician states that he will recover from the disease for which he is now being treated, although not rapidly, as it was deep-seated.—Grant County Tribune, Oct. 5.

Uncle Hiram Wilson called at The Herald office last Saturday morning with samples of potatoes grown by his son, Charles S. Wilson, on the Wilson ranch, twelve miles north of Alliance. He left us four of the specs each of which weighed over a pound, one weighing a pound and five ounces. He informed us that they have twenty-three acres of potatoes this year, fifteen of which are yielding about a hundred bushels per acre, on the other eight acres the stand was poor so that they are not yielding as well. When it is considered that these potatoes were grown without irrigation or other heavy expense, on land that would sell for only about $20 per acre, it must be conceded that growing potatoes in Box Butte county is a good proposition.

ANOTHER RECORD BROKEN
South Omaha Live Stock Receipts Records Broken

The following from the South Omaha Drivers Journal-Stockman of Monday, October second, is interesting to the stockmen of the northwest and the part relating to the record breaking shipments over the Burlington will be of special interest to those who ship over that road, showing as it does the class of service given shippers. The Herald has information, in addition to that given in the item below, that the 397 cars of stock shipped into South Omaha by the Burlington on Sunday and Sunday night, Oct. 1, were all unloaded before 7 o'clock Monday morning.
"Just a week after the record for cattle receipts was broken comes another record breaker. Today 618 cars, approximately 16,553 head or sixteen cars and 100 head more than ever arrived on this market in any one day.
"The total number of cars of all kinds of stock, 874 cars, is also a record breaker, being thirty cars more than were here on last Monday. They were divided as follows: cattle, 618; hogs, 29; sheep, 217; horses, 10.
"Another record was broken today when the Burlington road rolled in a total of 397 cars of stock. This not only breaks the Burlington record at this point but is a larger number of cars of stock than any road ever brought to South Omaha in any one day.
"One of the most remarkable features about these big runs of stock is the ease with which they are handled. This is due largely to the increased space and improved facilities in the yards, but a great share of the credit is undoubtedly due to the new system of weighing the stock. Track weighing has been abolished and as a consequence the entire 874 cars were unloaded and yarded in good season and at no time was there any semblance of congestion.
We learn from the Hyannis Tribune of last Thursday that Mrs. C. E. Dahlberg, mother of Mrs. Dr. Barr, went to Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, a few weeks ago to visit a brother, and was taken seriously sick at that place the latter part of September, but was improving last week although still confined to her bed.
