The Best Advice On Lumber Costs The Least Money

and when we say to prospective homebuilders that "now's the time to build" we are offering you really sound advice. No matter what you have heard about cheaper lumber, take it from us that you're on the safe side if you build right now. We haven't been in the lumber business for these many years for nothing—we know a thing or two and we're willing to admit you do too, but in the face of all this talk nowadays about timber conservation we believe you'll agree that lumber has a fixed value and that by delaying the building of your new home you will gain nothing but inconvenience.

We believe we can convince you the above is good advice—let's talk it over.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Snodgrass at the home of Mrs. W. E. Spencer Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable time was had.

J. W. Mapps of Antioch made his weekly drive to Alliance with cream for the Alliance Creamery last Saturday and favored The Herald with a call, setting himself ahead on subscription.

Miss Florence Logan of Denver, a very talented musician, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Black on Sweetwater Avenue for the past two months, left for her home Sunday noon.

Mrs. Frank Dunning came last Friday from Hysham, Montana, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McCorkle, and friends in the city until after the holidays. Mr. Dunning will come at Christmas time.

E. Reeves came home Tuesday from a week's visit with his son, B. V. Reeves, at Hot Springs. This was his first visit to that part of the west and he found the trip to Wind Cave and the Soldiers' Home full of interest.

D. M. and W. N. Matthews and Robert Wilkinson drove over to Alliance from their places in Sheridan County near Jess, last Friday morning, returning in the afternoon, making the trip of 70 miles in one day.

Mrs. I. E. Tash will entertain the Woman's Club Friday afternoon. Members will respond to roll call with quotations from Helen Hunt Jackson. Subject of table talk will be, "Cause of double standard of morals." An interesting session is anticipated.

Fred W. Johansen, editor of the Hay Springs Enterprise, is another western Nebraska newspaper man who ran for county office this year and got left. He was candidate for clerk of the district court of Sheridan county and was defeated by the lady who was candidate for re-election.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild wish to express through The Herald their appreciation of the patronage given by the public to the bazaar held in the Phelan opera house, afternoon and evening, November 22. Request to make this mention was received last press day just a little too late for publication.

Miss Della Reed and Mrs. I. L. Achesson were the recipients of a timely Thanksgiving Day present the first of the week, sent to them from Weiser, Idaho, by Miss Reed's father, Ira Reed, the present consisting of a box of Rhode Island Red chickens.

James B. Curry, the Canton blacksmith, Frank McCart and Roy Hindman were west side visitors at the county seat the latter part of last week. They came over Friday and returned home Sunday morning. Mr. Hindman proved up on his claim last Friday, the other two gentlemen being his witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Knight left last Friday morning for Custer, S. D. having a double object in going. They had received word that their son who resides there was ill and wished them to come and they also thought that a few weeks spent near the pine forests might be beneficial to Mrs. Knight.

Mrs. W. D. Insko, whose advertising appeared in the last issue of the Herald, was somewhat delayed in reaching Alliance so that she did not have her millinery goods on display at the Burlington Hotel until Friday evening but she was well received by the ladies of Alliance on Saturday, whom she wishes to thank for their patronage. She expects to be here in the spring, at which time she will be pleased to meet again those who favored her with a call last Saturday, as well as many others.

Mrs. Dick W. Kenner visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Beaumont, of Hemingford.

A social dance at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Kaufold one night the latter part of last week is reported to have been an enjoyable affair.

E. A. Hall and Robert Graham find it necessary to put in more or less of their time at the big Bonner ranch, recently purchased of R. M. Hampton. Mr. Hall has been looking after their interests there several days during the past week.

Thos. Shay, brother of John Shay and brother-in-law of John Hill of this city, returns to his home in Iowa City, Iowa, tomorrow, after an extended visit with relatives in Alliance. Mr. Shay is a prominent stockman and grain buyer in his home town. He expressed himself as being favorably impressed with Alliance and surrounding country and thinks the day will come when the value of Box Butte county land will be greatly enhanced.

Deal Brothers have moved into their new office at 123 Box Butte avenue, having completed the improvements which have been under way for some time past. They are now better situated to handle their produce and fruit business than ever before. They have a convenient location for their warehouse and with their office in the same building will be able to handle their large business more conveniently.

J. A. Keegan received a Shorthorn bull calf Friday that is probably the best that ever came into this section of the country. It came from a breeding firm near Kansas City and the sire took second premium at the Royal Stock Show held there this year. Mr. Keegan began in the cattle business in a small way here four years ago by purchasing all of A. S. Reed's heifer calves, twenty-three head, and a selected sire from the same breeding firm that the above mentioned calf came from, and now has a fine herd.

Misfortunes multiply for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Countryman and family. Tuesday evening they received a telegram informing them that their son, Oliver, had been taken from Whitney, Nebraska, where he had been working, to Hot Springs, S. D., for a surgical operation. Mrs. Countryman left on 41 yesterday morning for that place. The message did not state the ailment, but Mrs. Countryman expected to have the boy brought to Alliance if the operation had not been performed by the time she reached Hot Springs.

THANKSGIVING DAY NOTES

Mrs. E. C. McClure will entertain the Woman's Guild this afternoon at her residence at 806 Cheyenne avenue.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon there will be Thanksgiving services at the Episcopal church. All are cordially invited to attend.

Union Thanksgiving Day services are being held this forenoon at the United Presbyterian church, the sermon being delivered by Rev. James B. Brown, of the First Presbyterian church.

The members of the A. M. E. church have been making great preparation for their concert to be given at the Marks Hall this evening. They would be glad to have a large attendance of white people as well as those of their own race. The program will no doubt be entertaining and well worth the price of admission.
