BENNETT'S SYNDICATE PIANO SALE

1000 Pianos to be sold at Manufacturer's Cost
FOR CASH!

We must sell a huge share of "1,000 Surplus Pianos" right here in Alliance--Manufacturers, because of a scarcity of money, have placed us in a position to offer you brand

New Pianos
as low as $124

Write for large circular describing 1,000 pianos offered at less than makers' cost for CASH. Makers are overstocked; autos and player pianos have caused a slump in regular uprights.

Every "used" piano offered in this "Syndicate Selling" will be delivered in perfect playing order. Bennett's reputation backs each instrument sold as low as in the past.

And when it comes to "used" pianos the "Syndicate Sale" presents a positive feast of opportunities. In fact we have excellently conditioned "Used" Pianos at as little as each $59

Good "Used" Organs during this sale at as low as $16

Here's a marvelous Piano Purchasing Opportunity offered you right at the threshold of CHRISTMAS, and there isn't any other gift that will captivate a household half so much as a beautiful toned piano.

PLEASE NOTE. Bennett's regular easy payment terms are still in force on Bennett's regular lines of pianos. It is only the special "Syndicate Sale" instruments that must be sold for CASH.

CANTON CLIPPINGS

The Herald's Canton correspondent having failed to send in the news recently, we take the liberty of reprinting the following from the Canton department of The Curly Sentinel, of December 14:

Mrs. R. J. Spoon has had an attack of the grippe during the past week.

Mrs. Anderson bought some potatoes of J. B. Curry this week.

Mrs. Scott Henderson and daughter were Alliance visitors recently.

J. F. McCart branded horses for Grandpa Curry, one day last week.

Mrs. R. C. Hindman and mother spent Friday with D. E. Wallage.

C. W. Zimmerman and A. S. Powell hauled hay from the creek, Monday.

Mrs. Friel and children were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael near Lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hindman visited Monday at the J. B. Curry home.

Frank McCart was helping J. B. Curry do some horse shoeing last Monday.

Miss Florence Curry visited at Canton Sunday with Miss Mamie Whitaker.

W. E. Clark had the misfortune to lose a valuable saddle horse last week.

D. E. Wallage and R. C. Hindman made a business trip, to Minatare last Friday.

A number from this part of Sioux county attended the Lichte sale Tuesday.

A. S. Powell hauled out a load of 50 cases of tomatoes for the Canton store last Friday.

Burt Stewart was looking for one of his horses last week that had strayed.

Roy Hindman helped C. W. Zimmerman haul his feed from Pete Farrell's, last week.

A. S. Powell made a trip to the Pine Ridge the fore part of the week after wood and posts.

Mrs. Ella Hickey made a business trip to Alliance the last of the week, returning home Saturday.

Miss Angie Hickey spent last week visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Davidson, near Hemingford.

J. F. McCart and family and Grandma McCart took dinner with Grandpa and Grandma Curry last Sunday.

The Hayseed ball team had a practice game on the grounds near Wesley Zimmerman's, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Bertha Parkyn entertained at dinner, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Bass, Mrs. Jennie Broshar and Charles Safford.

Miss Bertha Huston was a weekend visitor in Alliance, going down Friday evening and returning Sunday afternoon.

Ivan Curry and sister, Mrs. Ira Roland, visited on Wednesday of last week at Mr. and Mrs. Wessel's south of Canton.

Doc Randall butchered a number of fine porkers the fore part of the week. The Canton store purchased most of them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Curry, Mrs. Ira Roland and children, and C. W. Zimmerman and family were Sunday visitors at A. S. Powell's.

The Homestead Sunday school is preparing to have a Christmas tree and entertainment at the school house, on Saturday evening, December 23.

Word has been received from Mrs. Certis, at Chadron, Ohio, that the aunt whom she expected to care for died shortly after arriving at that place.

Ivan Curry came out from Hemingford Tuesday of last week, bringing Mr. Wessel to repair his windmill. Mr. Wessel returned to his work in Alliance Thursday.

Perry Ball and wife were trading in Canton the latter part of the week. We are glad to note that Mr. Fall is able to be out and around again. Although his shoulder is not well, he is able to use his arm some.
