MARSLAND CO-OPERATIVE CO.

Stock Company Incorporated with Capital of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars

People of this city and county have known for some days that Ora E. Phillips, ex-county superintendent, had secured the organization of a stock company at Marsland, but information in regard to it seems to have been pretty badly mixed. The Marsland Co-operative Company has been incorporated with a capital of $25,000 for the purpose of engaging in general mercantile business. The officers of the company are: Burt Furman, president; C. E. Mathews, vice president; Ora E. Phillips, secretary-treasurer and general manager. The Board of Directors consists of the three officers named, and H. G. Furman and A. S. Eneyart.

E. T. Eneyart of this city will be connected with the business of the Marsland Co-operative Company. He and Mrs. Eneyart will move to that town this week. Luke Phillips will attend to the business of the Phillips Land Company at Alliance. The business of the Alliance Tailoring Company will be continued at the same location where Mr. Eneyart has had charge of it, 403 Box Butte avenue.

BASKET SOCIABLE

The choir of the Episcopal church will give a basket sociable at the opera house on February 16th. There will be a short program before the selling of the boxes. Programme begins at 8 p. m.

WYOMING PARTIES WED

Lingle Young People Married at Residence of Alliance Friends

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Acheson, 713 Laramie avenue, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, February 7, at six o'clock, at which Rev. A. L. Godfrey, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, officiated. The contracting parties were Mr. Bernard E. Rider and Miss Margaret M. Morris, both of Lingle, Wyoming. The bride is a very attractive young lady, well educated and accomplished, a successful Wyoming teacher. She attended Junior normal at Alliance last year and formed a goodly number of acquaintances and friendships. The groom has extensive land and cattle interests twenty miles north of Lingle near Ft. Laramie. He is well and favorably known in eastern Wyoming and will make a worthy husband for his estimable bride.

From Alliance the newly married couple returned to Lingle today. They will make their home on Mr. Rider's ranch until spring when they may remove to Scottsbluff. The Herald believes both Mr. and Mrs. Rider deserve congratulations and best wishes and we are more than pleased to extend the same. May a long and happy married life be theirs.

LENTEN TEA

The Junior Guild of St. Mathew's church will give a tea, Tuesday, Feb. 13, at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Miller, 408 Cheyenne Ave., from 5 to 8 p. m. This is the first of a series of teas to be served during Lent. Everybody is invited.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. M. L. Phares spent last Sunday with her niece, Mrs. L. J. Mungler, of Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Covatt came in from their ranch near Broadwater, Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Biddle, of Spade, visited with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Ralls, last week.

Messrs. Zickert of Bingham, Wheeler of Spade and Cronroy of Ellsworth were in the city on land office business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Harris' little son, Clifford, who has been dangerously ill with acute bronchitis, is much improved at this writing.

Glen J. Miller and wife of North Platte will terminate a three weeks' visit with the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Katon, tomorrow.

A twelve pound baby girl arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Young on February 1. Mother and child are doing nicely. Mr. Young is janitor at Central school.

Mrs. T. M. Burrow has been ill at her home with pneumonia for some time and is reported quite low today. We hope to be able to report an improvement in her condition in our next issue.

The skill of Stanley Naylor, the sign artist, is adding elegance to the front door and windows of the Geo. A. Molling dry goods store, already noted for its beauty.

We wish to call the attention of our readers this week to the advertisement of the Co-Operative store. They carry a fine line of groceries and are making some attractive prices.

The Misses Missouri Monier and Mary Wilson, two of Alliance's teachers, entertained friends at the W. E. Spencer home last Friday evening. Refreshments were served and a jolly good time is reported.

One of Kilpatrick Bros.' men was badly hurt in a runaway last evening as he was leaving town for the ranch. He was badly bruised and will probably be confined to his room for a week or so before being able to return home.

Everett Eldred made a trip to Omaha and from there went into Iowa to purchase a car load of imported bulls, which were shipped to Alliance. A stallion was included in the shipment. S. Avery of Orlando, Mr. Eldred's father-in-law, came to town this week to receive the stock.

The Alliance Grocery Company has learned by experience that it pays to call public attention to their business through the means of printer's ink. Mr. I. H. Highland, the manager, orders an interesting ad in this issue of The Herald.

We are requested to advise our readers who may be interested in the B. of L. F. & E. annual ball to be given at the Phelan opera house next Wednesday evening to not purchase an unnumbered ticket and to purchase only of those authorized to sell the same. One or more of these ball tickets came up missing before being numbered and will not be accepted at the ball if presented.

Frank Emphy, a traveling salesman who is well known in Alliance, was taken sick while in this city about a month ago. He was stopping at the Burlington Hotel and was taken from there to St. Joseph's hospital, where he remained until convalescing, when he went to his home at Hastings. He was in Alliance again Wednesday. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his illness.

Miss Virginia Watson, the accomplished teacher of the Ellsworth school, visited with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Watson, last Saturday and Sunday. Her weekly visits to this city are principally for the purpose of pursuing her musical studies.

HOLY ROSARY CHURCH

New Pastor and His Assistant Carry Forward the Great Work Laid Down by the Late Father McNamara

ALL DEPARTMENTS PROSPERING

The magnificent organization of the Catholic church is shown by recent events in Alliance, some of which have been very sad but have not stopped the progress of the church in its various departments of Christian endeavor. It is universally conceded that to the late Father McNamara is due the credit for having built up Holy Rosary church to its present position of prestige, and also St. Agnes Academy and St. Joseph Hospital. But when worn and broken in health by his too arduous labors he succumbed to the cruel hand of death there were others who could be put into the place thus made vacant and carry forward successfully the work which he had so nobly begun.

Rev. Father Donnelly, who so ably assisted Father McNamara, was following his death made pastor of the church. An assistant being necessary, Father Timothy Maloney, who was ordained in Ireland for the Omaha diocese, was appointed to the position, January 28 being his first Sunday in Alliance. He came here from South Omaha, where he served for a while as assistant pastor of St. Peter's church.

It will be a pleasure to the many friends of Holy Rosary church, St. Agnes Academy and St. Joseph Hospital to know that the work is now moving forward nicely. The recent hard times affected the school somewhat, as it did nearly every school in the land, but prospects for its future are very bright. As those who have read this paper during the past few years are aware, this school is splendidly equipped as an educational institution. The work of the present school year is going on nicely and we have no doubt the attendance the coming year will be larger than ever before.

St. Joseph Hospital is doing excellent work and, although the demands sometimes tax its present capacity, it is probable that an addition to the present building will be erected within the next few years and its capacity increased as demands upon it continue to increase.

INJURED BY RUNAWAY

Marvin Hunsaker of Lakeside Sustains Serious Injury Tuesday

On Tuesday of this week Marvin Hunsaker of Lakeside, who is well known in Alliance and has many friends among our readers, met with an accident that resulted in a broken shoulder. He was driving out from Lakeside to a ranch with a cattle inspector when, from some cause, the particulars of which we have failed to learn, the team became unmanageable and ran away, throwing both men out with the result of an injury to Hunsaker as above stated.

He was taken to his home at Lakeside and Dr. Hand of Alliance called to attend to his injuries. At last report he was getting along as well as could be expected.

LINCOLN LEGION DAY

Appropriate Observance of Anniversary of Lincoln's Birthday by Alliance Methodist Episcopal Sunday School

PROGRAM ON TEMPERANCE

Preparations are being made for appropriate observance of Lincoln Day next Sunday by the members of the M. E. Sunday school. The Alliance department of the Anti-Saloon League, known as the Lincoln Legion, recommends the observance of "Lincoln Day" with appropriate temperance program. This department of the Anti-Saloon League's work is doing much good through the power of moral persuasion. Those who enroll as members of the Lincoln Legion sign the following pledge, which was written, signed and advocated by Abraham Lincoln: "Whereas, the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is productive of pauperism, degradation

THE EAGLE RESTAURANT

Geo. E. Younklin has gone into the restaurant business again. Last week he bought out the restaurant and lunch counter which Howell Bros. have been running recently, the stand commonly known as "Sunny Jim's Place." Mr. and Mrs. Younklin took charge a week ago today, since which time they have had a steady increase in trade. They are well known in this part of Nebraska as successful restaurant people, and as their many friends and acquaintances learn that they are in this line of business again, their trade will continue to increase. They have remained the place. It is now "The Eagle Restaurant."
