A shrinkage in deposits of $68,756.56 is shown since our last statement call on December 5th, 1911. During the same period one year ago, the deposits dropped $118,700.44. This shows our community in relatively better shape now than one year ago, due to the spirit of conservatism which has been so marked during the past year.

Alliance now has a band but it is not the one organized last summer by T. S. Jones, who came here from Crawford. It is called the High school band but it is not composed entirely of High school boys. J. S. Wallace is leader. There are now about a dozen other members of the band and more to join soon. They have been practicing in The Herald office but having secured quarters in the basement of the Phelan Opera House building, will practice two evenings each week there. When the personnel of the band has been completed The Herald will give a list of the names of members.

FREE—The Bee Hive Store is giving away a real silk shamrock. Call and get one.

Large line spring hats at Simmons.

Don't forget that St. Patrick's day dinner in the basement of Holy Rosary church, from noon till 3 p. m. Price 50 cents. Everybody invited. The program for the evening's entertainment will be published next week.

The Alert fire department recently received several new devices which will greatly add to the popularity of their club rooms. They have turned part of their rooms into a gymnasium and have put in quite an assortment of apparatus, including rings, parallel bars, etc.

Miss Winnie Keller of Deadwood, S. D., arrived in Alliance last week to take charge of the ladies' furnishing and dry goods departments in the W. W. Norton store. Miss Keller is an experienced clerk in these special lines and Mr. Norton is very fortunate in having procured her services. She will be ably assisted by Miss Minta Painter, who was also recently employed by Mr. Norton.

J. C. Berry is now traveling salesman for the H. P. Lau Company, wholesale grocers of Lincoln. He went on the road for them the first of last week. His territory consists of northwestern Nebraska and the Guernsey line of the Burlington in Wyoming. With headquarters at Alliance he finds it possible to spend his Sundays at home, which is very agreeable.

Last Tuesday night the members of the Yeoman Lodge of this city were entertained by Mrs. Platt, of Kansas City, at the I. O. O. F. hall. She spoke about the lodges and also rendered several readings which were very much appreciated by her audience. Especially did "The Depot Clock" receive a very hearty reception and her repertoire seems unlimited.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Nohe, Jr., and little son, Hume, bid Alliance friends goodbye Monday morning and departed for Colorado and Arizona. Mrs. Nohe and the boy will visit in Colorado Springs for some time, remaining there until June or later. Mr. Nohe goes on to Crown King, Arizona, where he will hold a responsible position with the Montezuma Mining and Milling Company, a firm in which his father is interested. While their many friends in Alliance regret to see them leave this city, they will be pleased to know that they will be pleasantly located and that Phillip has a lucrative position with a company that has valuable holdings and will, no doubt, in the near future be making big money out of their properties.

Corsets and hosiery at Simmons.

Marvin Hunsacker of Lakeside was in Alliance yesterday.

Doyle Johnson of Mitchell was visiting Alliance friends the first of the week.

The B. P. O. E. of Alliance will hold a fair some time next month. The exact date of which and particulars will be given in The Herald later.

M. O. New, the jolly traveling salesman for the Seward mills, was transacting business in this city the first of this week and incidentally visiting friends, of which he has many here.

A. F. Allen was in Alliance Sunday. He has a homestead in the Redington neighborhood, west of Bridgeport, on which he resides, but occasionally returns for a few days' visit to this city, where he formerly lived.

Dr. F. W. Boland came down from Hemingford on 44 yesterday, returning on the local this morning. He is well pleased with the people of the town and surrounding country where he is now located, and evidently they are pleased with him, as he is already receiving a good practice. Hemingford is a good business town, much better we believe than the average town of its size, and is surrounded by a splendid country. The business or professional man who becomes established there is fortunate.

Miss Minelle Highland left for Denver a week ago Tuesday to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Dr. W. H. Lougeay, wife of a prominent specialist at that place. The funeral was held February 28. Minelle returned home last Monday morning.
