NORTHWEST NEBRASKA NEWS

Rev. C. H. Burleigh came up from Gordon Friday and paid this office a fraternal visit. He is traveling with samples for the Collins Calendar House and has a fine line. He reports Mrs. Burleigh as still in a precarious state of health since her awful experience in that runaway accident. Bro. Burleigh makes his home in Crawford, where his daughter Gladys and husband are located.—Rushville Recorder, Feb. 23.

The revival meetings in the M. E. church were brought to a close last Sunday night, when Dr. Jones preached an interesting sermon on children, to a large congregation. It would have been a good thing if every parent could have heard some of the truths the divine had to deliver, for we believe that 90 per cent of the average parents do not study their children close enough to realize some of the tragedies of child life, in the making of future citizens, let alone Christians. At the end of the sermon a large part of the congregation advanced to the altar to shake hands with the preacher and say a good word.—Rushville Recorder, Feb. 23.

Felix Sandoz and Fred Meler came up from Running Water precinct on Tuesday and remained over night in town. Felix bought the farm, consisting of 400 acres, of Fred and they were up having the transfer placed on file. This gives Felix a nice place of 880 acres, which will permit him to keep quite a number of cattle besides all the good land he wants to farm.—Rushville Standard, Feb. 23rd.

Mrs. Dr. Copey of Alliance, who has spent the past three weeks visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary O'Bryan, and other relatives in and near Broken Bow, returned home Monday morning.—Custer County Chief, Feb. 23.

The Misses Nora and Swendola Johnson were visitors at Alliance the fore part of the week, going down Wednesday. * * * H. L. Hawkins, who has been spending a few days at home, attending to matters connected with school district number 52, Sioux county, returned to his work at Alliance, Sunday. * * * Instead of going to Alliance last week as he said he would, Ben Curtis made a trip to Hemingford, but we are informed on good authority that he made the Alliance trip Tuesday. We hope this explanation will be sufficient, as we mean to be truthful. * * * A farmer near Canton brought in the following list of produce to exchange for supplies: 35 pounds of butter, 15 dozen eggs and 13¹/₂ pounds of beans, for which he received $19.58. How is this for him? And this is not impossible for most any one, ordinarily.—Canton correspondent, Curly Sentinel, Feb. 29, 1912.

Pete Watson was moved down near Mitchell right after his accident, to be closer to the doctor's care. Pete was reported much better and is getting along nicely. * * * Howard Lashley took Ralph LaFever and family to Mitchell the latter part of last week. Mrs. LaFever and the children left for Missouri, and Mr. LaFever went to Alliance.—Curly Sentinel, Feb. 29.

The Culture Club met Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. H. Reimund was elected delegate to attend the district convention to be held at Chadron April 10. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weston, of Hay Springs, passed through Crawford Tuesday on their return from a business and pleasure trip to Alliance. * * * Mrs. M. O. New, of Orella, was a Crawford visitor Thursday. * * * E. L. McCauley, superintendent of construction work for the Crawford Telephone Co., has been suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism and his condition was such that it was thought best to send him to the Sisters' hospital at Alliance, which was done Tuesday.—Crawford Tribune, March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weston visited relatives and friends in Alliance the first of the week.—Hay Springs Enterprise, March 1.

Eugene Burton of Alliance, assignee of the estate of Hosier & Fetters of Angola, received only one bid for the stock of merchandise last Tuesday, and that for only $200. Mr. Burton will now proceed to sell the stock at retail.

M. Hunsaker of Lakeside is visiting this week at the home of his brother, Thomas Hunsaker.

* Mrs. C. E. Mathews is visiting friends in Alliance this week. * * * L. T. Poole returned home from the west last Saturday. * * * Mrs. Charley Evans returned from a few days' visit with friends in Alliance. * * * Mrs. John Hunsaker of Alliance is spending the week visiting at the home of Thomas Hunsaker.—Marsland Tribune, March 1.

L. W. Wilson drove down from Merna in his auto Tuesday, taking Mr. S. K. Warrick of Alliance with him.—Broken Bow Free Press, Feb. 29.

* * * Superintendent and Mrs. R. M. Marra went to Alliance yesterday, where Prof. Marra served as one of the judges in the debating contest last night.—Bridgeport News-Blade, March 1.

WOES OF THE HIRED MAN

Walt Mason Writes in Rhyme of Winter Discomforts.

Oh, winter has its joys and charms as I've remarked before; we do not heed the storm's alarms, its fury or its roar when by the fire we sit and drowse and suck a briar's stem; but, oh, the man who milks the cows at 5 o'clock a.m.! The hired hand he leaves his couch before the rooster crows; what wonder that he has a frown as he puts on his clothes? They're colder than the law allows, with ice along each hem; and he must go and milk the cows at 5 o'clock a.m. Down to the arctic barn he goes and packs his frosty pall; and Bossy biffs him on the nose with her long frozen tail; his language would the dead arouse—each cussword is a gem; I weep for him who milks the cows at 5 o'clock a.m. Talk not of hardships or of woe ye who at ease recline, till ye have sat in sleet and snow, to milk the spotted kine! When old King Winter doth carouse with ice work diadem, shed tears for him who milks the cows at 5 o'clock a.m.—Walt Mason.

"VOTE FOR A HOME MAN"

Hay Springs News Gives Advice that Others May Use.

The question of who shall represent the district composed of Box Butte and Sheridan counties in the next state legislature, and the part of the district he shall be from, is becoming somewhat acute. There are some people down this way who think it is about time for Box Butte and south Sheridan to have representation in the state legislature. The following item from last Friday's Hay Springs News makes some suggestions that others may act upon:

Representative W. R. Kent says it has always been customary, when in office to run for the second term, but he is not going to. He says F. W. Johansen made a good race for this office a few years ago, and believes he would have been elected if his opponent had not received the greatest number of votes. He has always heard an "official bug" buzz around his head and therefore he is going to resign in his favor. Now, Fred, get busy, you know everybody here would "vote for a home man."

ALLIANCE HOSPITALITY

Ye editor was a visitor to Alliance last Saturday, and while there was entertained most substantially by the Eagles and Elks, who did everything possible to make enjoyable the time passed in their city. Both club rooms were thrown open to self and friends, and Carter Calder, Al Seufert and the Worthy President of the Eagles did the entertaining, of which art they are past masters. Mr. Calder is making good as secretary of the lodge, and has the support of all the members. Mr. Seufert devoted his time to our entertainment, and is certainly a grand host.—Edgemont Express, Feb. 23.

BOY WITH SNOW WHITE HAIR

The Columbus Telegraph of March 1 says there is a boy in that town who has snow white hair on his head but who has seen only fifteen birthday anniversaries. This boy was born on February 23rd. February 29th of this year was his fifteenth birthday. We would like for some of the boys and girls who read The Herald to tell us in what year he was born and how old he was on his last birthday. If we receive any answers before next publication day, we will be pleased to publish the same with the names of the boys and girls sending or bringing them to this office.

BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

Alliance Public Library Continues to Make Progress in Meeting Demands of Public

BOOKS RECENTLY ADDED

Readers of The Herald who have read the articles in this paper in regard to the Alliance public library know of the progress that institution has been making under the efficient management of its board of directors, and particularly under the patronage of the Alliance Woman's Club. Mrs. Nellie G. Wilson is the present librarian. This paper was furnished last week a list of books recently added, but the item was crowded out of our last issue. We are pleased to publish the list this week, which is as follows:

List of New Books

"Strawberry Acres," by Grace Richmond.

STRASAK-WEIR

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Grove, six miles northwest of Alliance occurred the wedding of Mr. James H. Strasak and Miss Odessa Weir, Sunday, March 3, Judge Berry officiating. Only the relatives and a few immediate friends were present. After the ceremony a bounteous wedding dinner was served.

The bride has been a resident of Sioux county and the groom has grown to manhood in this part of the state. They will make their home on Mr. Strasak's ranch at Lisico, Nebraska. The Herald extends congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

BETTER RETURN THAN MAIL

The postal authorities at Washington, recognizing the liability of post masters to make mistakes in getting letters in wrong boxes, have fixed a penalty of two hundred dollars on persons taking mail out of the office other than their own and not returning it at once. The law also includes newspapers. The excuse that it is the post master's fault "cuts no ice." If you have been getting other people's mail out of the post office and not returning it, better quit now before you get yourself in trouble.—Ex.

NEARLY A TON OF HONEY

Adam Zurn, brother of Judge Gregory Zurn, arrived in Alliance last Thursday from his home near Crawford, driving through with a load of honey. When Mr. Zurn left home he had with him more than 1,500 pounds for sale but had disposed of all but 255 pounds by the time he reached Alliance. In his apiary are 60 stands of bees which gather their honey from alfalfa fields, and a very good product it is, too.

FATTENING HOGS IN NEBRASKA

The Nebraska Experiment Station has just issued Bulletin 123, which includes the results of several years' work in fattening hogs on alfalfa and corn, and on alfalfa, corn and other grains and mill products, at the North Platte Substation. The results of feeding alfalfa hay in the rack, chopped alfalfa and alfalfa meal, and of feeding various proportions of corn and alfalfa are compared. This bulletin follows Bulletin 121, which shows the cost of keeping brood sows, the cost of the pig when it has reached the weight of 50 pounds and the cost of growing pigs during the summer. This bulletin may be had free of cost by residents of Nebraska on application to the Agricultural Experiment Station, Lincoln, Nebraska.
