OBITUARY

On March 20th occurred the death of Eunice May, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pahlow, being at the time of her demise 1 year, 9 months and 24 days old. A funeral service was held at the home March 21st, interment being in Greenwood cemetery.

We sincerely regret the omission of the above notice, data of which was furnished us for our issue of March 21st.

There is a Reaper whose name is Death.

And with his sickle keen,
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,

"And the flowers that go between."
"Shall I have naught that is fair?"

saith he;
"Have naught but the bearded grain?"

Though the breath of those flowers is sweet to me,

I will give them all back again."
He gazed at the flowers with tearful eyes,

He kissed their drooping leaves;
It was for the Lord of Paradise

He bound them in his sheaves,
And the mother gave in tears and pain,

The flowers she most did love;
She knew she should find them all again

In the fields of light above,
Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,

The Reaper came that day;
'Twas an angel visited the green earth,

And took the flowers away.
—Henry W. Longfellow.

GRAIN DEALERS MEET

Convention of Farmers' Elevator Association at Beatrice.

The convention of the Farmers' Elevator association was held in Hastings and representatives were present from Aurora, Lincoln, Cortland, Beatrice and Kansas City. The purpose of this organization is to band together the farmers' elevator companies of the state.

J. W. Shorthill of Aurora, Neb., secretary of the association, spoke on the subject of "Insurance," and his talk contained many suggestions of great value to those in the grain business. The questions of "Scales" and "Shrinkage" were discussed by a number of the members present. These are two of probably the greatest problems of the grain men.

Miss Jessie Barnhill of Kansas City, probably the only woman grain buyer in this part of the country, was present. It is stated that last year she purchased more grain than any man who was in attendance at the convention.

NEW FRAUD COMES TO LIGHT

Man Impersonating Food Inspector Gathers Many Samples.

Posing as a pure food inspector an unidentified man has been working in Omaha during the last few weeks, collecting samples of vinegar, catsup, butter and varieties of canned and bottled goods from manufacturers and jobbers. Wherever the man may be, those who have been on his trail declare he undoubtedly has a full larder.

Government secret service men have been working to get a trace of him, it having been learned that he has left Omaha, probably to continue his work in some other place. Marshal Warner and his deputies have worked some on the Omaha end of the case, but the stranger was careful not to attract too much attention by collecting too many samples at one place.

Bethany People Protest.

The state railway commission has been engaged in hearing the petition of the people of Bethany for a reduction of fare on the Omaha, Lincoln and Beatrice interurban road between that place and Lincoln. At present the fare is 10 cents each way or 15 cents for the round trip if a ticket is purchased. They want a straight 5 cent fare, which the company asserts it cannot afford to give and further that the company is organized on the railway law and is entitled under the law to charge 2 cents a mile.

Feeding-in-Transit Rates.

The railway commission has fixed the feeding in transit rates on live stock between South Omaha and the following stations on the Burlington road as follows: Atkins Siding and Bayard, 8 cents; Minstare and Hayward, 9 cents; Scottsbluff and Covert, 10 cents; Mitchell and Tooehy, 12 cents; Henry, 13 cents per 100 pounds. The same rates apply to Nebraska City.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTORS

People of Waco, Texas, of the Generous Sort. Gifts to Missions

In the First Baptist church of Waco, Texas, of which Dr. F. C. McConnell, father of Mrs. J. G. Rousseau, of Alliance, is pastor, a collection was recently taken for foreign missions at a morning service, amounting to over $3,000. The largest amount contributed was $250 and the smallest $1.00.

Their share to the support of Baylor University last year was $12,000.

We understand this is the wealthiest Baptist community in the United States and from reports they seem to be following the scriptural injunction to "give according as the Lord has prospered them."

FOREIGNER GOES INSANE

Friday night Toni Maddix, who hails from the Mexican border, arrived at an Alliance hotel and registered. He was unable to speak any English but made his wants known in Spanish, which was understood by one of the clerks. He was given something to eat and was shown to his room. The night clerk noticed that he acted peculiar. Early in the morning a commotion was heard upstairs and the clerk upon going up to see what the trouble was found Maddix in the hall and very scantily attired. He was told to go back to bed, which he did. He locked the door and refused to open it in the morning when he was called. After repeated efforts to get into the room, the management finally called Chief of Police Hunsaker. It was necessary for him to crawl in through the transom and unlock the door from the inside. The stranger was then taken to the city jail and later turned over to the sheriff.
