RAILWAY VOTES AND PERSONALS

From Saturday's Daily:

Fireman J. W. Burns is another in the list of railroad men who left town without paying his room rent or bills at a clothing store. How a big strong man can have any self-respect left after beating his bills is a mystery. They are worse than a thief. A thief can be arrested and punished.

Brakeman Thos. Kehler, who was sent from here to Galesburg, writes that he has been switching in the yards in Chicago. He had his knee hurt one day last week and has been off ever since. He expects to return to Alliance May 8.

W. J. Tragasser returned to Alliance Tuesday after a very pleasant month spent in California and Mexico. He reported for duty as brakeman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bently are spending a few days in Spearfish Canyon fishing.

Conductor U. N. Hoskins had to lay off on his arrival Wednesday from the west. His ankles that were so badly sprained last November are so sore and swollen he can hardly walk. If there is not a decided improvement soon Mr. Hoskins will go to Chicago for treatment.

The passenger train on the High Line carried two Pullmans Monday on account of the floods in the vicinity of Lincoln.

Engineer John Hicks of Ravenna was in Alliance this week looking after the houses he owns here.

Brakeman J. R. Hoke has gone to Chadron to spend Easter Sunday with home folks.

Supt. Holtorf of the High Line, met with a very painful accident last Saturday while working with his gasoline motor car. There was an explosion of gasoline in the car house. Mr. Holtorf had both hands and his face badly burned.

Miss Dorothy Hoag of the superintendent's office went to Omaha last Saturday, returning Monday morning.

Tony Nelson, who was formerly wire chief at Deadwood, has been transferred to Alliance and arrived here Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have many warm friends in Alliance who will welcome their return. Mrs. Nelson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Morris.

Dr. Hershman, examining physician for the company, spent Sunday in Omaha.

A third trick dispatcher has been added to the Deadwood office and the position of wire chief has been done away with.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. A. E. Nelson gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Lulu Hoffman who will be married to Mr. Tom Wallace in the near future. The guests were entertained to a very elaborate 7:30 luncheon. Miss Hoffman received a large number of beautiful presents. She has been in Alliance but a few months, but in that short time has made many friends.

Brakeman Fred Vaughn spent the first of the week in Broken Bow visiting relatives.

Conductor Edd Baird returned last Thursday noon from Aurora. He took his car out Friday morning.

The American Express Company has made an offer to the government relative to the rate for transporting gold bullion from Deadwood to the U. S. mint in Denver, which, if accepted, will deprive the Adams Express Company of the contract for transporting the bullion.

Fireman Horn has been sent to Crawford Hill for a few days.

Conductor Earl Calander of Ravenna brought his train straight through from Ravenna to Alliance arriving here Friday morning.

Fireman Trenkle, who has been in Seneca for some time, has been sent to Alliance.

Conductors Rad Randall and Tom Campbell made a trip to Gillett this week.

On Wednesday at midnight was the first that freight could pass over the track where the big washout was went of Edgemont.
