LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

From Saturday's Daily:

Miss Mabel Bigelow who is teaching in Alliance schools, has been offered a raise in wages if she will teach for another year. Miss Mabel is a Sioux county girl and taught one year in the Harrison schools, where she gave good satisfaction.—Harrison Sun.

Mrs. A. F. Baldridge and little son Cecil, formerly of Alliance but now of Scottsbluff, are in the city attending the tabernacle meetings. They are the guests of Mrs. L. E. Mark.

T. S. Fielding, the tailor, is now conveniently located at 315 Box Butte avenue, having moved his shop from the Charters hotel building.

Mrs. J. H. Farley of Hewett, visited this week with her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Roberson, and attended the tabernacle meeting.

A. R. Wilson returned last Thursday from Thayer county where he had been visiting his home folks and looking after business matters. He was snowed in for a long time at his fine Thayer county farm five miles north of Belvidere. Mr. Wilson informs us that he was in Lincoln at the time of the man hunt and says the excitement was intense there at that time.

M. L. Whitaker, merchant and post master of Canton, came to Alliance Monday via Hemingford accompanied by his son Ray S. Whitaker, who filed that day on a claim located near Mud Springs, in Sioux County. They remained in Alliance till the next day and took advantage of the opportunity to attend the tabernacle meeting Monday night.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Rev. Titus Lang left yesterday for Big Springs, Nebraska, to attend the conference of the Lutheran pastors of western Nebraska and Wyoming. The conference will be in session two days, today and tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodenough of Mullen arrived in Alliance last Saturday, and the next night Mrs. Goodenough, who was the landlady of the Evergreen house at Mullen, took charge of the Alliance cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Goodenough are experienced hotel people and no doubt will make a success of their business venture in Alliance. They will try to dispose of their interests in Mullen.

Mrs. Emma Stralow of Bingham has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Lotspeich, for the past week and attending the tabernacle meetings.

T. J. Threlkeld received a telegram yesterday from Hemingford asking him to come to that place and embalm the remains for shipment of the two persons who were lost and died in the blizzard Saturday night.

A young men's Bible class was organized Sunday afternoon at the tabernacle. The officers elected were: E. L. Meyer, president; Webster Bernhardt, vice president; Max Wilcox, secretary-treasurer. The first meeting will be held Friday evening at the home of Max Wilcox.

Seward Will Have Carnegie Library. Seward, Neb., April 12.—Mayor Diers received a letter from the Carnegie library board of New York city which conveyed the information that as soon as a site is procured and the city provides for its maintenance, the $8,000 for the library building will be forthcoming. W. Q. Dickinson donated sites for the Carnegie library and Young Men's Christian association buildings.

Corn Holders Get Big Price. Omaha, April 12.—Cash corn continues to soar. Demand for the cash article is so urgent and receipts are so light that holders are demanding almost any price for this cereal and buyers are willing takers on the advance. One car of No. 3 white corn sold for 78½ cents and several cars of ordinary grades brought 78 cents.

Elevate Priest to Episcopate. Omaha, April 12.—Rev. P. A. McGovern of Omaha was consecrated as bishop of Cheyenne. High dignitaries of the Roman Catholic church from all parts of the west were present to do honor to the first native son of Omaha to be elevated to the episcopate. Archbishop Keane was the consecrating prelate.

Child Drinks Acid Found in Old Bottle. Farnam, Neb., April 12.—The three-year-old son of Shelley Snyder, living several miles northwest of town, while playing in the yard picked up a bottle which contained carbolic acid and drank the contents. Death followed soon.

Half Dozen Stores Burned at Homer. Homer, Neb., April 12.—Fire here destroyed a half dozen stores and caused a loss of $50,000, with $40,000 insurance. The principal loser was the Edwards & Bradford lumber company, $30,000, fully insured.
