LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Mrs. Asa Briggs of Bonner was in Alliance Monday between trains 304 and 303.

E. A. McFall of Lakeside had business and visited in Alliance Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Lois Riley is at St. Joseph's Hospital recovering rapidly from an operation two weeks ago.

Perry Yeast, the well known ranchman, was transacting business in this city the first of the week.

Mrs. Roy Beckwith, who has been very sick with an attack of appendicitis, is now very much improved.

A new front is being placed in the building occupied by Louis Luft's saloon, at 221 Box Butte avenue.

The Daughters of Isabella held their second annual ball at the Phelan opera house last night, May day evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith were among the number who changed place of residence this week. They now reside at 807 Laramie.

The plate glass in the front of Holsten's drug store, which was broken during the storm, April 13, has been replaced by a new one.

R. A. Charlton made another trip to Denver during the past week, returning with an Overland car. Mrs. Charlton and child came back with him.

The Four Square Girls' Club will entertain the Young Men's Bible Club at the First Presbyterian church, Friday evening of this week, at 8 o'clock.

As announced last week, Coyle's restaurant at 215 Box Butte avenue opened for business on Tuesday of this week. It started out with a good trade, having forty-five persons for dinner the first day.

Mrs. Carrie Lore, who was operated on some days ago for appendicitis, has left the hospital and gone to the home of Charles Brinkman, to rest before going to her home in the hills.

Rev. R. M. Dungan, pastor of the Mitchell Christian church, will preach in this city, Friday and Saturday evenings, and Sunday morning and evening, May 10, 11 and 12. Watch for later announcement.

C. E. Wilson of Sheridan county came up to Alliance on 43 Monday returning on 44 the next day. He informed The Herald that grass was starting well and conditions are favorable in the cattle country.

Ray Johnson from Harrison, who was operated on some time ago for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Hospital and whose life was despaired of for some time, is recovering nicely and is well on the road to recovery.

Rev. D. W. Montgomery returned Monday from Henry, Nebr., where he spent two Sundays. He was joined at Bridgeport by his father, Rev. J. H. Montgomery, who came to Alliance for a few days' visit.

W. H. Lunn, of Omaha, brother of A. T. Lunn, arrived in Alliance yesterday and will remain a week or two, during which time he will be kept busy tuning pianos, as there is quite a demand here for his service in that line.

The room at 219 Box Butte avenue, formerly occupied by the Phil Pizer clothing store, has been painted and otherwise repaired, preparatory to being occupied by the Cook & Wilson saloon, which will move into it soon.

At a meeting of the Young Men's Bible Club, Sunday afternoon, the following persons were chosen as delegates to represent the club at the Chadron convention, Friday: Calvin Cline, Cecil Smith, Max Wilcox and Charlie Spacht.

One of quite a number of successful school teachers that the Alliance High school has turned out is Miss Alice Acheson, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. W. S. Acheson. She recently closed a term of school near Reno, in Sheridan county, in which she pleased the patrons by her faithful work.

Edward Schultz orders his address for The Herald changed from Alliance to Bingham. He has a Klondike eighteen miles south of that town, near the Tully ranch. He has been making improvements on his claim and has taken up his residence on it.

Miss Josie Hampton returned last Tuesday morning from Lincoln where she has been visiting with friends for the past three weeks. She met a number of Alliance young people who are attending school there. Josie reports an excellent time while there.

J. L. Lamb and W. G. Tinsman of Diller, Nebr., were in Alliance last Friday. They were looking over this part of the west with a view to making real estate investment. From here they went on farther northwest, but expected to come back to this county before returning home.

Mrs. Spruce entertained a few friends last Monday evening, in honor of her friend, Mrs. Waters. The ladies passed the evening playing "500". Mrs. Jerry Rowan won the hand painted plate. A dainty three course lunch was served. Mrs. Waters is a general favorite and will be greatly missed by her many friends.

E. E. Ford, who has been assisting in the First National Bank, left last Thursday with his father, C. E. Ford, for Chicago, from which place he will leave soon with his parents to spend the summer in Europe. During his stay in Alliance young Mr. Ford made many friends by his genial disposition, especially among the patrons of the bank.

A proposition that will interest the ladies is that made in the advertisement of Harper's Ladies' Toggery. In this issue of The Herald. This establishment is always up-to-the-minute and everything they offer is dependable. They will have a fine location, first door north of The First National Bank, and much more room, which their growing business makes necessary.

Steve Lewis has leased the Keystone restaurant of F. B. Dismar, with a view to purchasing it, and took possession this week. Mr. Lewis has had experience in the restaurant business in St. Louis, and going into a place here already popular should have a good trade. He starts out right by ordering a supply of printed matter for his business.

The Herald has a number of new advertisements this week which are deserving of notice. Among them you will find the ads of F. W. Irish & Co., advertising the celebrated Nettleton shoes for men; F. J. Brennan, the corner drug store; Forest Lumber Co., automobiles; Pardey Bakery, "made right, baked right" bread; A. D. Rodgers, quality groceries; Geo. A. Molling, dry goods, ready-to-wear garments.

Lloyd M. Smith, who has been teller in the First National Bank of this city for several years, has been transferred to Omaha. He has been given the position of assistant draft clerk in the U. S. National Bank of Omaha. This comes as a well earned promotion to Lloyd. He has been very faithful in his duties with the First National and has won the esteem of the bank officials by his work. We feel sure that this promotion is only a start and that as the years go by he will occupy a position worthy of one of his ability as a business man. He left last Sunday, for Omaha.

The growing business at Alliance of the Bennett Piano Co. has made more store room necessary, hence the adjoining room in the First National Bank building, which was vacated this week by Harper's Ladies' Toggery, has been secured by the Bennett people. The partition between the two rooms will be removed and the place fixed up in elegant style for a piano store and sales room. They have a car load of goods on the way, including two grands and six player pianos, and 1,000 rolls of player music. They will have a music library on circulating plan. All persons purchasing player pianos will have the privilege of exchanging music.

Miss Jennie Boon is confined to her bed with a severe case of tonsillitis. She has been sick a week and it is feared an operation will be necessary to relieve her.

Mrs. Gregory Zurn started today noon for Calgary, Alta, Canada, where she was called on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Alfreda Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is critically ill with typhoid fever.

Mayor-elect Barnes gave a dinner party at the Burlington today in honor of Colonel Irwin of Cheyenne. Others present were I. E. Tash, J. H. and Claude Vaughn, E. D. Maltery, R. M. Hampton and Nels Worley.

Mrs. Guy Lockwood and children leave today for Omaha to spend a couple of months visiting at the home of her mother. During Mrs. Lockwood's absence from Alliance The Herald will try to keep Guy walking in the straight and narrow way, but we are not sure how well we will succeed.

Considerable commotion was caused at 3:15 o'clock yesterday morning by the janitor at the First National Bank accidentally setting off the burglar alarm. The police force was aroused but when they attempted to round up a bunch of bold, bad burglars they found only the innocent janitor in their clutches. As he did not know how to stop the noise, the bank officials were notified and came down at that early hour to turn the thing off.

Brakemen McCarty and Ray Mark are now nicely settled in a south room over the First National bank.

Messrs. Ragland and Richey, who were employed here as brakemen a short time ago, have resigned and will try the N. P.

Mrs. Hughs, wife of Timekeeper Carl Hughs, and little daughter returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Belvidere.

J. W. Hughs returned Sunday noon from a three months' stay in California. Mr. Hughs is an experienced brakeman from the east and may decide to enter the train service here.

W. J. Tragasser enjoyed a day last week on the Albro ranch with his friend, Chas. Hoffman. Mr. Hoffman is very well pleased with his work and will no doubt make a grand success.

Conductor Forest Hill of the high line has quit the road and gone on to his ranch near Chadron. By his resignation the Burlington loses one of its best men. The good wishes of all the railroad boys go with him.

MORE SIGNS OF GOOD TIMES
 Activity in Automobile Business Indicates Return of Good Times

The spring automobile trade of the Nebraska Land & Auto Company is starting out fine and indicates not only that good times are about to return but that they are already here. The fact that public confidence in this company and their machines extends throughout northwestern Nebraska is shown by their sales which cover the territory surrounding Alliance, as well as in this city.

On Monday of this week they sold a Ford touring car to Leslie Booddy of Bridgeport, and on Tuesday delivered one of the same machines to Theodore Johnson, seven miles east of Hemingford.
