MANLOVE HAS SUCCEEDED IN CLEAN ENTERTAINMENT

Halwood Robert Manlove, work of the circus clown or the vaudeville artist to the standards of art in the best music and the cleanest and best entertainment. Art—it is.

Manlove entertains the audience—such as the Chautauqua audience—that wants and insists upon the best—the cleanest—the most wholesome. He has presented his character delineations before some of the largest Y. M. C. A.'s and under religious auspices, and he has done this successfully.

He makes folks laugh. "And I pride myself," he says, "that

In all the work I have done there has never been a suggestion that might offend." The Chautauqua management is using Manlove's time on Sundays same as week days because he has a marvelous interesting program with a Sunday adaptation. And it is this work of Manlove's that succeeds on week days and succeeds on Sundays that has placed him in a class of entertainers in which he is almost alone. He will appear here Chautauqua Week.
