pose the socialist movement? If the democratic candidates are defeated this year, it will not be by socialists but by the other fellows. Besides, whether right or wrong, the socialists are at least doing some good indirectly by getting voters to think and study political issues for themselves, something that is needed under a democratic form of government.

Governor Osborne of Michigan is a republican, but he is a progressive who believes in reform in fact as well as in name. He was opposed to the renomination of Mr. Taft, as were all true progressive republicans, but after the nomination of Woodrow Wilson, Mr. Osborne did not favor the formation of a bolting party. Here is a part of what he has said about the matter: "I am of the firm opinion that there is no necessity for a new party. The issue is clearly drawn for the people. It is Wall Street vs. Wilson. It is even more than that. All the evil forces of America will finally line up with Wall Street and Mr. Taft."

As will be seen by the advertisements appearing in this issue of The Herald, there is some "cutting and slashing" in the prices of lumber at Alliance. This will be good news to persons in this city and surrounding country who expect to build this season.

The Herald has an article for publication from Rev. A. L. Godfrey in answer to the one written by J. H. Walsh and published last week on the Sunday base ball question. We regret very much that the copy for Mr. Godfrey's article was not received until Wednesday afternoon, hence it is necessary to defer publication of it until next week.

They're beginning to name babies after the democratic nominee for president; pretty soon the Woodrow Wilson cigars will appear on the market; but it is expected farmers will slight the New Jersey governor by continuing to name their bull calves "Taft" and "Roosevelt."

The Cleveland Leader says if woman demands equal rights let her have them, and as an instance relates that the wife of a Binghamton, N. Y., man has been sent to jail for beating him. That's not much to brag about. Recently an Alliance colored woman was fined fifty dollars and costs and sent to jail for lambasting her old man a few times with a beer bottle. It will take a faster town than Binghamton, N. Y., to get ahead of Alliance, Nebraska.

In publishing the Chautauqua program last week, which was copied from the printed programs furnished by the management, the statement was made that the price of season tickets was $1.50, if "purchased of the business men," and $2.00, if purchased at Chautauqua gate. In many places where the Redpath-Horner Chautauquas are given, it is done by the business men of the town, hence the announcements are printed as above stated, but here it is done under the auspices of the Alliance Woman's Club.

No, the Herald is not the "official U. S. land office paper" nor the "official state paper" nor the "official county paper" nor the "official city paper," but our readers will observe with pleasure that, after so long a time, it is beginning to receive the recognition in the matter of legal notices to which it is entitled.

Yesterday Governor Woodrow Wilson was formally notified of his nomination as the democratic candidate for president of the United States. His speech of acceptance is published in full in this paper. It makes interesting reading and should be read by every person who is interested in the politics of the nation.

They sometimes called this "the short grass country," but they'll have to call it the country of long grass and tall weeds this year.

"Progressive" is its name, Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is the nominee for president and Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California for vice president. They claim they will carry Illinois by 100,000 plurality and Pennsylvania by 800,000.

LIVE STOCK PRICES AT SOUTH OMAHA

Beeves Generally a Dime Lower, With Feeders Fully Steady.

HOGS ARE 5 TO 10c HIGHER.

Very Fair Run of Sheep and Lambs. Sheep Are Selling at Strong Figures. Lambs Are Quotably Steady—No Real Good Stuff There.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Aug. 5.—A good supply of cattle showed up today, about 4,600 head. Beef cattle were slow to a dime lower than last week's close. Only a few corn-fed calves arrived. There was a good demand for cows and heifers and despite the weaker tone to the fat cat market, the cow stuff generally sold about as well as it did toward the close of last week. Veal calves were in active request and stronger, and there was a very fair inquiry and a steady to strong market for bulls, stags, etc. Stockers and feeders were steady to strong for desirable offerings of all weights. Prices were more or less shaded, but the decline was not at all serious and values ranged from fully steady to possibly a dime lower for western range cattle.

Cattle quotations: Choice to prime beeves, $9.25@9.75; good to choice beeves, $8.75@9.25; fair to good beeves, $7.75@8.50; common to fair beeves, $5.75@7.50; good to choice heifers, $8.25@8.75; fair to good grades, $4.50@5.50; canners and cutters, $2.75@4.25; veal calves, $4.00@5.25; bulls, stags, etc., $3.75@5.50; choice to prime feeders, $6.25@7.00; good to choice feeders, $5.40@6.00; fair to good feeders, $4.75@5.25; common to fair feeders, $3.75@4.75; stock cows and heifers, $3.50@5.00; good to choice grass beeves, $8.50@9.25; fair to good grass beeves, $6.50@7.25; poor to fair grass beeves, $5.50@6.25.

Only a small supply of hogs arrived today, about 4,000 head, and prices were 5@10c higher. Several loads of choice light hogs topped the market at $8.25, the highest price since November, 1910. The bulk of the hogs went at $7.95@8.15.

A fair run of sheep and lambs were received today, nearly 11,000 head. There was very little of really choice stuff of any kind on sale. There were, however, some fairly good lambs and wethers in the supply. Prices paid for fat sheep in general are strong compared with last week's close, and the market for lambs is quotably steady. Only a small number of feeding lambs and sheep arrived today and the market is quotably 15@25c higher on lambs and 5@10c higher on sheep.

Quotations: Lambs, good to choice, $7.00@7.50; lambs, fair to good, $5.00@7.00; lambs, feeders, $4.75@5.55; yearlings, good to choice light, $4.75@5.15; yearlings, good to choice heavy, $4.50@4.75; yearlings, feeders, $3.60@4.25; wethers, good to choice, $4.00@4.50; wethers, fair to good, $3.65@4.00; wethers, feeders, $3.15@3.75; ewes, good to choice, $3.75@4.00; ewes, fair to good, $3.00@3.75; ewes, feeders, $2.00@2.50.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. ONE.

The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska, to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 5th, A. D. 1912.

"AN ACT for a joint resolution proposing amendment to Section 1 and Section 10 Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and supplementing Article entitled 'Amendments'."

Be It Resolved and Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That at the general election for state and legislative officers to be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, 1912, the following provisions be proposed and submitted as amendment to Section 1 and Section 10 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska:

Section 2. That Section 1 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislative authority of the state shall be vested in a legislature, consisting of a senate and a house of representatives, but the people reserve to themselves power to propose laws, and amendments to laws, and to enact or reject the same at the polls independent of the legislature, and also reserve power at their own option to approve or disapprove bills passed by the legislature, or part of any act passed by the legislature.

Section 1A. The first power reserved by the people is the initiative. Ten per cent of the legal voters of the state, so distributed as to include five per cent of the legal voters of each of the counties of the state, may propose any measure by petition, which shall contain the full text of the measure so proposed, and which shall be presented to the first regular state election held not less than four months after such filing. The same measure, either in form or in substance, shall not be presented for a second time to the people by initiative petition (either affirmatively or negatively) oftener than once in three years. If a measure proposed by initiative petition at the same election shall be approved, the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be enacted as law, and shall apply to those enacted by the initiative.

Section 1B. The second power reserved is the referendum. It may be ordered by the legal voters of the state, distributed as required for initiative petitions. Referendum measures shall be filed with the Secretary of State within ninety days after the legislature enacting the same. Initiative petitions (except those filed within ninety days) and elections thereon shall be had at the first regular state election held not less than thirty days after filing.

Section 1C. The referendum may be ordered upon any act except acts making appropriations for the support of the state government, and state institutions existing at the time such act is passed. When the referendum is ordered upon an act or any part thereof, the operation of the act shall be suspended until the same is approved by the voters; provided, that emergency measures shall not be suspended. The operation of the public health or safety shall continue in effect until rejected by the voters or repealed by the legislature.

Section 1D. Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive any member of the legislature of the right to introduce, and the legislature of the right to vote cast for governor at the regular election last preceding the filing of any initiative or referendum petition shall be computed. The veto power of the governor shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.

Section 1E. The initiative and referendum provisions of this section shall be self-executing, and shall be enforced by the Secretary of State to facilitate its operation. In submitting petitions and orders for the initiative and referendum, the Secretary of State shall provide that all proposals submitted in pursuance hereof shall be submitted in a non-partisan manner and without any indication or suggestion on the part of any person, firm, corporation or endorsed by any political party or organization, and provided further that the title of any measure shall appear on the ballot, and when two or more measures have the same title they shall be numbered consecutively in the order of their filing, and the names of the petitioners shall be printed thereon, including the name of the first petitioner.

Section 3. That Section 10 of Article 1 of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be amended to read as follows:

Section 10. The style of all bills shall be "Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska, that..." and shall be enacted except by bill. No bill shall be passed by the legislature unless by assent of a majority of the members elected to each house of the legislature and the question upon final passage shall be taken immediately upon its reading a third time, and no bill shall be entered upon the journal.

Section 4. That at said election on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November, 1912, on the ballot of each elector voting thereat there shall be printed or written the words: "For proposition to amend the constitution of the state, serving to the people the right of direct legislation through the initiative and referendum," and "Against proposed amendment to the constitution of the state, serving to the people the right of direct legislation through the initiative and referendum." And if a majority of the voters at said election shall be in favor of such amendment the same shall be deemed to be adopted. The returns of said election upon the adoption of this amendment shall be made to the state canvassing board and said board shall canvass the same in the same manner as is prescribed in the case of presidential electors. If a majority of the votes cast at the election be in favor of the proposed amendment, the Secretary of State shall, within ten days after the result is ascertained, shall make proclamation declaring the amendment to be part of the constitution of the state, and when so declared the amendment herein proposed shall be in force and self-executing.

THE CHICAGO MARKETS

Extract from Regular Market Letter of Clay, Robinson & Co., Live Stock Commission

REPORT OF CATTLE MARKET

Chicago, Ill., August 5, 1912.

A very satisfactory trade in cattle today, as concerned the salesmen. Total arrivals were 23,000, and buyers had need of all here. It was a 10c higher deal in beef steers of a desirable class, while common and medium kinds were merely steady. Top was $10.10, paid for prime Angus beeves, averaging 1,505 lbs. Bulk sales were at $7.50 to $9.50.

Cows and heifers generally steady sale, bulk beef grades at $4.85 to $7.00. Stockers and feeders steady to strong, sales largely at $5.25 to $6.50.

If your cattle are fat, their place is on the market. Prices are so high now that holding for the express purpose of striking a higher spot is attended with too much risk. Also cattle that have not the quality and flesh, and there is no intention to hold them much longer, should be put over the wheels to avoid strong competition with southwest pasture and northwest range cattle.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS

The United States Civil Service Commission announces examinations for applicants for a number of positions in the field, departmental and Philippine service, on August 21, 22 and 24, but special attention is invited to the stenographer and typewriter examination on August 27. For further information see bulletin in lobby or inquire at general delivery window at the post office, Alliance, Nebraska.
