GERMAN-ENGLISH PAROCHIAL SCHOOL

Second Year Will Begin on Monday, September 2-Bright Prospects for Future

GOOD ATTENDANCE EXPECTED they runshort on a certain number

Next Monday, September 2, the Lutheran German-English parochial school will again take up in the new building erected by Immanuel's Lutheran congregation on Yellowstone avenue and Seventh street. This school, which was started a year ago, has during the past school year been progressing fairly well in spite price is so much, and you can either of many inconveniences and difficult- take it or leave it. ies it had to encounter, and closed 23 pupils. Most of these inconveniences have now been overcome, the school is now to be housed in a fine new building practically arranged for school purposes; and with re newed courage and the best pros-pects for the future it will again be Department at Washington Issues started out.

This school, called Immanuel's Lutheran Parochial School, is in the first place a Religious school in which the pupils attending are daily instructed in the true principles of Christian religion according to the Bible, and the Catechism taken from the Bible. In the second place it is a German school, the pupils being instructed in the German language, and some instruction in singing.

The medium of teaching is German in the forenoon and English in the afternoon. A competent and efficlent teacher has again been placed A. L. Lang, a younger brother of the pastor, Rev. Titus Lang. This parochial school is not, as some people suppose, conducted Lutherans know very well that in a free country like ours, founded on the principle of complete separation between church and state, the public school is an absolute necessity. They honor and respect the public school system of our country, wish and hope that it may grow and prosper in its sphere, and without seek ing any national or state appropriations for their parochial schools, they willingly pay their taxes citizens to support and uphold this great system. But as Lutherans, being Christians, also wish to have their children instructed and raised according to Christian principles, in order that they might not be lost to the church, they prefer to send them to their own parochial schools, such as is being conducted by the Lutheran mission in Alliance. This parochial school is free to all children attending in as much as no obligatory but only voluntary tultion fees are dition to Alliance. solicited in order to cover certain minor expenses. All classes of children, either German or English, are For information apply to Rev. Titus Lang, 703 Niobrara Ave.

NICOLAI-SWITZER WEDDING

Clay County Young People Wed in Alliance

At the German Lutheran parsonage in Alliance, Saturday afternoon, August 24, 1912, occurred the wedding of Mr. William Nicolai of Sutton, Nebraska, and Miss Etta V. Switzer of Fairfield, Nebraska, Rev. Titus Lang, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical German Lutheran church, of-

The groom is a nephew of J. L. Nicolai of this city and has been in the employ of the C. B. & Q. railroad here for several months past. The bride is one of the popular and highly respected young ladies of the beautiful little city of Fairfield where she has made her home with her mother, coming to Alliance last week and arriving in this city on the morning of the wedding day. We are pleased to announce that

Mr. and Mrs. Nicolai will take up their residence in this city and will soon be at home to their friends at 610 Cheyenne avenue. Mrs. Nicolai's mother will come to Alliance and make her home with them. It is with unfeigned pleasure that The Herald extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

HOW MAIL ORDER GOODS ARE MADE mentally interested in

Some Inside Information Regarding a Line of Business that Has Grown Immense

The Hillsboro News, published at the manufacture of harness sold by mail order houses. While this inness business, no doubt the same facts would apply in general to other lines of goods sold by mail order readers the following extract from the News' article: visiting old friends and relatives and of home economics and agriculture. taking his regular summer vacation. Mr. Edwards, together with a partner, is running a harness factory in for the mail order houses. regard to his business he gave us the following interesting interview: harness on just as

only a half dozen houses to deal RAILROAD NOTES the same grade of goods and cheap

Just for instance one mail order house alone took 1,615 sets of one style of driving harness. They want this harness delivered at any time after January 1, just as fast as it can be delivered. Before January 1 these companies invoice their stock of goods and they will take only enough to fill their orders, provided before January 1. Just as soon as the invoice is taken, however, they will take all they order and just as fast as it can be delivered.

Most of our leather is bought at Detroit. At one time we could there and select our leather but today they say to us: There is a lot and there is anoth er, and there is another, and the

CLOSE ON SUNDAYS

Orders to Discontinue Sunday Service

BEGINNING SUNDAY, SEPT. 1

Beginning next Sunday there will be no delivery of mail at the Alliand being taught correctly to read, ance post office on Sundays except write and speak this language, In that which bears a special delivery the third place it is also an English stamp. Orders to that effect were school, giving its pupils a full seven received by Post Master Tash the grade instruction in English reading, first of this week. The order was writing and language, as well as in general and will go into effect all the natural sciences: arithmetic, ge- over the country, being in accordography, physiology, drawing, etc., ance with a provision of the post and some instruction in singing. congress which has just adjourned. Heretofore the general delivery window of the Alliance post office has been open on Sundays from 2 in charge of the school, namely, Mr. to 3 p.m. The new order absolutely precludes any delivery except special deliveries. The lobby will open so that persons having lock boxes can have access to them, but opposition to our public schools, they will receive no mail unless it was deposited in the boxes_before Sunday. The Sunday work hereafter will be limited to sending out the mail and delivering special delivery letters.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Reported by F. E. Reddish, Bonded Abstracter, Box Butte County, Nebraska

Almond C. Whitcher to Frances M. Whitcher, NE 13-27-50.

Frank M. Snedeker to Joseph F. Yanders, lots 1 and 2, block 3, Simonson's addition to Alliance.

J. J. Lyon to Joseph Yanders, lots 7, 8 and 9, block 3, Simonson's ad-

A. A. Truax Grain Co. to Mrs. D. C. Harrington, NE 27-25, SE 22-25, NE 10-24, all in R. 50.

James A. Hunter to Charles W.

Almond C. Whitcher to Frances M. Whitcher, SE 13-27-50.

block 4, Simonson's addition to Alli- way, might be decided by consider- rain for several weeks yet, ance.

W. W. Norton to Eleanor T. Skinner, lots 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12, Walnut Hill addition to Alliance.

Alexander Hill, Jr., to James S Mekiney, NE 26-25-49.

NEBRASKA SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Department of the University of Nebraska that Is Doing Splendid Work for the State

FALL TERM OPENS OCTOBER 14

As one of Nebraska's enterprising Jurors Drawn for Term Beginning Milliner newspapers. The Herald is funda permanent rural prosperity not only in our own community but in Nebraska as a whole. This type of prosperity depends much upon the intelligence, the district of Nebraska, Chadron character and progressiveness of our division, to be held at Chadron, Ne rural citizenship. Toward the establishment and maintenance of a high standard of citizenship in our farm jurors are from Sheridan, Box Butte, HARNESS BUSINESS A SAMPLE homes, the School of Agriculture is working. We are interested and working toward this same end and, drawn from Box Butte county: Geo as a newspaper that gives special Hillsboro, Illinois, recently gave attention to the interests of its counscient, Art Groves, L. F. Smith, Alsome inside information regarding try readers. The Herald is glad to liance: Ben Price, Hemingford. do all it possibly can to encourage and assist the good work that is beformation relates only to the har- ing done by the Nebraska School of Agriculture.

There are a four years' course in all agricultural and home economic subjects and a two years' course cov-The Herald is pleased to give its ering the same agricultural and home economics subjects for graduates of three and four year high schools A. W. Edwards of Chicago is here and a beginning course for teachers This school opens this fall on Oct. 14. We wish to suggest to our readers who may be interested that they Chicago, and they make harness only write for further information to Prof. Fred M. Hunter, Principal School of in speaking with Mr. Edwards in Agriculture, University of Nebraska,

Lincoln, Nebraska. Carl Young and Ben Joder are at cheap a basis as it can be made and Sweetwater, near Ravenna, half cent on everything. We have bridge

The Herald's Railroad Correspondent Returns from Vacation and Will Resume Duties

IMPORTANT DEPARTMENT

The Herald's railroad department has been omitted for some" weeks past for the simple reason that our correspondent was out of town. During this time our local news columns have contained many items of interest concerning railroad men, but beginning next week the railroad department will be resumed. This is one of the most important parts of the paper. There are many persons who are more interested in news concerning railroad people they are in the other matter that the paper contains.

While we have a regular corres pondent to furnish us railroad news we shall be glad to receive any items of interest that any one else may choose to furnish for the department. It is our intention to put this part of the paper in the lead again as it has be in the past, and we shall appreciate the co-operation of our readers.

SPEAKS OUT ON LIOUOR OUESTION

Editor of Scottsbluff Herald Opposed to Wet Goods Entering Dry Territory

TWO ITEMS TELL THE STORY

The Editor of the Scottsbluff Herald is a strong temperance man, but is not satisfied with the present local option law and its operation in this state. The following two items taken from his paper of last Friday tell the story:

The Old, Old Story of Booze Wm. Williard took an overload of ot-gut booze last Sunday and went into the restaurant operated by J. L. Loy at the lower end of Main street where he started some trouble that proved rather disasterous When Loy got thru with to him. him and tossed the fragments out into the alley, a cot in the hospital and the services of a physician were at the rooming house where he was necessary. It is said that Mr. Loy trounced Williard soundly-and haps deservedly. However, Loy was arrested and when the matter came niece, Mrs. Henry Sloan. up for a hearing in Judge Schenck's court Wednesday, he took a thirty days continuance. In the meantime nature is repairing the damage to Williard's physiognomy.

Law Not Properly Enforced The liquor laws of Nebraska, as usually enforced, are about as effective in the control of the booze trafstate needs we believe is a liquor people of this country Jeffers, lot 10, block 2, Alliance. $950 out the booze business. It should has been clear and warm. $75 ing possession as ownership—has been passed and is enforced, there George Smith to William Delsing, will be a falling off in the booze W NW, NE NW, NW NE, 2-28-49, business that will cause some of $50 the slop makers to turn their attention and efforts toward something that will benefit instead of cursing mankind.

THE STORK'S VISITS

Born to Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Kennedy, Saturday, a boy. Mother and child are reported as doing nicely.

Last Sunday a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glenn. Reports are that all concerned are doing fine.

A bouncing baby boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hazen last Monday.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT

On Monday of this week forty petit jurors were drawn to serve in the United States District Court, for braska, commencing the ninth day of September, 1912, at 9:30 a.m. These Cawes, Cherry and Sioux countles. Following are the names of those W. Duncan, Enoch Boyer, John M

LEAVE ALLIANCE

Pardeys Bid Adieu to Their Many Friends in this City and Go to Vernon, B. C.

WILL WRITE FOR THE HERALD

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pardey have been bidding their Alliance friends adieu the past few days and today noon took their departure the northwest. They go first to Sheridan, Wyoming, for a few days visit with Mrs. Pardey's sister and this family. Mrs. Hal Pardey and two we have to figure down to the last week, putting in a concrete railroad little children went to Sheridan last Thursday. From Sheridan they will go to Vernon, B. C., where Herbert Pardey, who is district manager of the Swift Canadian Company, makes TO BE RESUMED his headquarters, and where H. F. Pardey has been since the first of the month, having recently taken charge of a mercantile establishment. cided what business he will engage

Mr. Pardey, Sr., has not yet dein when he arrives at his new home. They chartered a car which was loaded and started for Vernon the first of the week. Mr. Pardey promises to furnish Herald readers some information about that country after his arrival there. This paper keep them posted on Alliance and Box Butte county news.

OBITUARY OF J. H. HEDGE

Stricken with Heart Failure While in Alliance on Business and Passed Away

FUNERAL WAS HELD SATURDAY,

James Hiley Hedge was born in New Brunswick, Boone county, Ind., April 23, 1855, to Paris and Elizabeth Hedge. At the age of twenty-seven decided his future destiny, and allied himself with the Christian force of the Missionary Baptist church at Barnard, Indiana, in which organization he proved himself a faithful follower of the Cross of Christ

About twenty-eight years ago came to Nebraska, and resided in and about Alliance up to the present time. His life speaks out in loudest praise for his love as a son and loy-alty as a brother. He departed for that brighter and happier land on Wednesday, August 21, 191 at the age of fifty-seven years, three months and twenty-nine days. He is survived by a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Paris Hedge; five brothers, Wm. R., Harvey T., Charley S., John T. and Jefferson A.; and three sisters, Rosie K. Stults, Elizabeth D. Eggers and Carrie A. Main. There was also a brother, George O., who long years ago in infancy passed to the realm beyond.

The funeral was conducted from the Alliance Baptist church, August 24, at 10:30 a.m., the pastor officiat-ing, interment being in Greenwood cemetery.

The deceased resided on a home stead near Jess, in Sheridan county. He came to Alliance Tuesday of last week to prove up on his claim the next day, which he did. That night he was stricken with heart failure stopping. A physician was summoned but without avail. The night before he had stopped at the home of his

The Herald wishes to express sympathy for the relatives and friends a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 4, and arriv- Departs This Life who have been so suddenly afflicted ing in Alliance at 12:30. by the ruthless hand of death.

Weekly Weather Report sons looking for land and a western have been offense for an agent or owner of a late crops before frost comes. There and cheap lands district. booze factory or joint to sell or of- has been no rain, except a few sprinfer for sale any slop in a town or kles that could scarcely be called mercial club will meet the train at county where the people have voted rains. The most of the past week Alliance, and any persons who mya also provide for a heavy fine im- forenoon is cloudy. Early this morn- the country will be taken care of and posed upon any common carrier ing there were indications of rain, shown around. bringing liquor into the county or but as the day advances it looks town as above named. When a law as though it will clear up without covering these points, as well as rain enough to interfere with hay E. Cotton to J. F. Yanders, lot 6, that of ownership-which, by the ing. People are hoping for no more

HOMESEEKERS' EXCUR-SION FROM CHICAGO

Chief Deputy Commissioner of Labor of Nebraska Will Conduct Excursion to Crawford

AT ALLIANCE THURSDAY NOON the resignation of Mrs. Strong. Mrs.

personally conducted homeseekers' excursion, in charge of Louis V. Guye, chief deputy commissioner of labor of Nebraska, will be run over the Burlington next week from Chicago to Crawford, Nebr. This train avenue, September 12. coln west, leaving Lincoln at 1:50

Apprentices Wanted

millinery trimming FOR NORTHWEST under the direction of Miss Clark, a noted trimmer Chicago, Ill. aaaaaaaaaaa

> Harper's Ladies' Toggery Store

Apply at

We want to sell you the best FLOUR in town

$1.60 per sack 1.50 Tip Top, Red Moon, 1.40 Delight.

Santos Coffee, in ten lb. lots, 22 1/2 per lb. Salt, in 300 lb. barrels, $2 per barrel Premium Bacon, 26c per lb. Premium Ham, 22c per lb Empire Ham, 20c per lb. Empire Bacon, 24c per lb. Acorn Bacon, 20c per lb.

FRESH FRUITS ALL THE TIME

Red Raspberries Gooseberries

Currants

Riackberries

Apricots Cherries Crabs

VEGETABLES OF ALL KINDS

Cantaloupes Cucumbers Beets In fact, everything

good to eat : : :

A. D. RODGERS

Finest Souvenirs of Alliance ever brought to this city, in beautiful and useful glassware, at

Denton's Variety Store

313 Box Butte Ave.

New Stock Japanned and Chinaware

Money Saving Prices

Call and see

Don't forget those campaign buttons with photo of your favorite candidate 5c and 10c each

This excursion has been advertised in Illinois, Iowa and eastern Nebraska and will no doubt bring many perlocation. Persons who are desirous of investigating the homestead lands the route tees of the towns along

A committee representing the com-Alliance, and any persons who may

W. C. T. U. MEETINGS

Pleasant Meeting, Aug. 22-Next Meeting, Sept. 12

Thursday afternoon, August he W. C. T. U. held a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Godfrey. This was a strictly business meeting, there being no program. The work of the past year was discussed and plans made for future work.

Mrs. Alice Bignell was chosen secretary to fill the vacancy caused by Wm. Acheson was elected assistant secretary. Committees were appointed to make plans for attending the county W. C. T. U. convention at Fairview, August 29.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. L. S. Campbell's, 1002 Big Horn

NAME OF TEACHER OMITTED

In the list of teachers of the Alliance city schools for the coming surprise. He closed his eyes on year, as published in The Herald two weeks ago, one name was omitted by mistake, that of Miss Anna Nerud, Fourth grade Central school. Superintendent Pate called the attention of The Herald to the omission and we hasten to correct the mistake so that patrons will know that she is still one of the teachers here. She has taught quite successfully in Alliance and people who have felt disappointed when noticing the omission of her name in The Herald will be glad to learn that she continues in the position which Girls wanted to learn she so ably filled last year.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Bids Wanted for Furnishing Coal and Unloading Cars

Bids will be received by the Board of Education of the Alliance City Of Schools until September 2, for coal

> 500 tons more or less of nut and egg, also 500 tons more of less of screened nut: same to be run over not less than an inch screen. Coal delivered f. o. b. Alliance in > car lots, or delivered in bins at the several school buildings. Bids will also be received for unloading cars of coal to the several > buildings. Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

>
> Bids will be received by the sec D. W. HUGHES.

Secretary.

retary.

at Ripe Old Age

Samuel A. Clark was born July 29, 1817, in Saratoga, New York, and It doesn't take many words to tell of Nebraska may board this train and died in Box Butte county, Nebraska, $45 fic as the efforts of a split-back what the weather has been the past beetle to walk backward. What this week. It has been just what the mercial clubs and citizens committed by the combination of the book butter country, Rebraska, will be met at the train by the combination of his grandson, Chas. 27. 1912, age 95 years and 29 days law that will make it a penitentiary wanting for having and to ripen the of the Burlington in the homestead The funeral was conducted from the residence at 1 o'clock, afternoon, by Rev. O. S. Baker, pastor of the M. E. church of Alliance. The remains were interred in Greenwood cemetery.

In the year 1838 he was united in marriage to Catherine Dolittle of New York state, from which state they moved to Illinois in 1848, From there they moved to Iowa in 1868. In 1900 in Maquoheta, Iowa, wife departed this life for the Heavenly world. In February, 1912, he came to Nebraska to live with grandson, Mr. Benjamin.

Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark, two sons and four daughters, three of whom are living, Mrs. Libb Train of Michigan, Mrs. Henry of Washington and Mrs. Laing Crabb of Missouri. There are also thirteen grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Mr. Clark united with the Methodist church when a young man and all his life was a consistent Christian. He was a student of the Bible and familiar with its promises, and like the old patriarch, looked for that city which hath foundations. He was characterized with good health, a genial disposition and unusual activ-

His sickness was of short duration, only about twenty-four hours. But he was ready to go and the coming of the silent messenger was no earth to open them in Heaven.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends and neighbors who so kindly sympathized with, and assisted us in the sorrow that came to our home in the loss of a dear grandfather, we are sincerely grateful for their kindness MR. 12d MRS. C. J. BEN-> children. M. E. CHURCH NOTICE

JAN. N and other grand-

There will be regular services at the M. E. church next Sunday. This will be the last Sunday of the conference year, and a good attendance will be very much appreciated.

Last week Conductor Clyde Bullock went to Albion, Nebr., for a short visit and to accompany Mrs. Bullock and Lloyd home. Mrs. Bullock and the boy had been visiting several weeks at the home of, her mother and with other friends. They arrived in Alliance on Wednesday of last week. The next day they all went to Crawford for a short visit at the home of Mrs. Bullock's brother, Clarence Miller.

Attorney A. F. Baldridge of Scottsbluff is in Alliance today on contest case before the U. S. land office. He came over yesterday accompanied by his son William, expecting to return today.