SOCIALIST CANDIDATE MAKES ROUSING SPEECH

Fred J. Warren of North Platte, Candidate for Congress, Speaks

Hon. Fred J. Warren, socialist candidate for congress from this district, who is now police judge of North Platte, spoke to a good audience, composed mostly of voters, with a few ladies and children present, at the Odd Fellows hall last evening. It had been previously announced in The Herald that the speaking would be in the Phelan opera house, but a change was made in the plans of which we were not notified in time to make correction thru the paper.

Judge Warren is a fluent speaker in fact much more of an orator than the average stump speaker. Without doubt he made a favorable and lasting impression upon the minds of his hearers. If there were any present who had the common idea that the socialists are after division of property, abolishment of private ownership of property, etc., they undoubtedly were convinced that there are at least some socialists who do not advocate those things.
