

BEGINNING NOVEMBER 1, 1912

WE WILL SELL

COAL FOR CASH ONLY

At the following prices, delivered in the city:

Colorado Lump	-	$8.40
Colorado Nut	8.20
Sheridan Lump	6.00

“Cash” does not mean 30 days, but payment with order or upon delivery of the coal.

FOREST LUMBER COMPANY

A. P. LEE, Mgr.

PHONE 73

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Wanted—Good agents to sell the Sweeper Vac Vacuum Cleaner, attractive proposition. Steady employment with an old reliable manufacturing company. The Sweeper-Vac is widely known as the MOST SATISFACTORY Vacuum Cleaner on the market. Sell readily at a moderate price and we know of no dissatisfied user of the Sweeper-Vac. Sent to any address prepaid upon receipt of $10.00. M. Montgomery, State Agent, 1714 Farnam St., Omaha, Nebr. Advertisement (1509-3-45)

Mr. Isham, the clothing salesman, passed thru Friday on his way to his home at Chadron to spend Sunday. Mr. Isham sells to a number of Alliance merchants.

S. D. Watson, of Ellsworth, a brother of Mr. Watson of the firm of Watson & Watson, returned to his home Friday noon. He had been engaged in surveying south of town for some parties.

Mr. Ralls, of the Forest Lumber Company, left on 44 Friday noon for Ellsworth for a short visit.

Frank McClung, of Bridgeport, was an Alliance visitor on Friday.

In addition to the party of Greeks leaving from Alliance Friday noon they were joined by nine others from Angora. These from Angora had been employed by the Burlington at that point.

St. Thompson, the genial traveling man, returned home from his regular trip Friday.

Miss Della Reed, county superintendent, returned to Alliance from a visit to some of her schools in the north end of the county, Friday.

S. P. Groat, from the San Luis valley of Colorado, was in town on business Friday morning.

E. M. Eldred, of Orlando, and formerly of Alliance, was in town last week, returning to his ranch on Friday.

Mr. Covalt, a ranchman of Merrill county, was in Alliance last Friday.

J. O. Keras, live stock agent for the Burlington, was in Alliance last of the week.

County Judge L. A. Berry returned Friday from a trip south on the Denver line.

Dr. W. T. Eikner, of Mason, Neb., stopped over in Alliance between trains Friday. Dr. Eikner was formerly located at Hemingford and returned there on business. He still owns several tracts of Box Butte county land.

Because 43 was late Saturday the Guernsey train came up from Bridgeport. The Denver train held on time.

J. Carl Thomas, formerly of The Herald force but now linotype operator for the Gering Courier, returned Saturday noon to stay over Sunday with home folks.

Will G. Comstock, of Richards and

Comstock, passed thru Rushville Saturday evening on his way home. While in Gordon Saturday he sold 1,600 acres of their ranch land, most of it going to local people. They appreciate a good chance to buy hay lands and add to their present holdings.—Rushville Recorder, Oct. 11.

Robert Reddish, who is now living on his Kinkaid homestead at Angora, came up Saturday noon to spend Sunday with the folks and visit Alliance friends.

The city grader was out Friday and Saturday leveling up the streets after the heavy rain.

Three auto loads of Omaha men went to the sand hills Saturday for a two days' hunt. We understand they brought home a large number of ducks.

Johnny Boyle of Mitchell passed thru Alliance Saturday on his way to Hyannis to get his cattle which he recently purchased there. They had been quarantined for a short time. He took them back to Scottsbluff where he is feeding them best pulp.

Lloyd Johnson was down from Crawford over Sunday to see home folks and friends.

Chase Feagins returned to Alliance Saturday.

A. Ultry made a trip to Ellsworth Saturday between trains. He just recently returned to Alliance after an absence of six years and stated that the change in the town in that length of time was amazing. He thinks a great deal of this part of the west. His home is at Grand Island.

W. D. Rumer has put the bankrupt Colburn stock of dry goods and clothing on display in the Watson building on the corner of second street and Box Butte avenue and is closing them out on special sale.

W. H. Elburn, state agent for the National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, passed thru Alliance Monday noon on his way from Scottsbluff to Hemingford. While in town he visited with John W. Gathrie.

Chase Feagins left Alliance Monday noon on a business trip to Wheatland, Wyoming. He will be gone for several days.

E. C. McCorkle, formerly a clothing salesman out of Lincoln, was in Alliance Sunday and Monday. He is now employed as traveling salesman by the National Cash Register Co.

Ed Wildy of Hemingford was in Alliance on business Monday. He accompanied James Wildy as far as Alliance Sunday evening. James Wildy was taking several carloads of stock to the Omaha market.

John Wallace has purchased a fine new set of work harness from I. L. Asherson for use in his dray work.

NEGRO IS FINED

Walter Graham, the negro arrested last week for obtaining money under false pretenses by giving a bad check to J. B. Denton, was fined twenty-five dollars and costs Friday by Police Judge Gregory Zurn. Graham stated that he would pay his fine and leave the city.

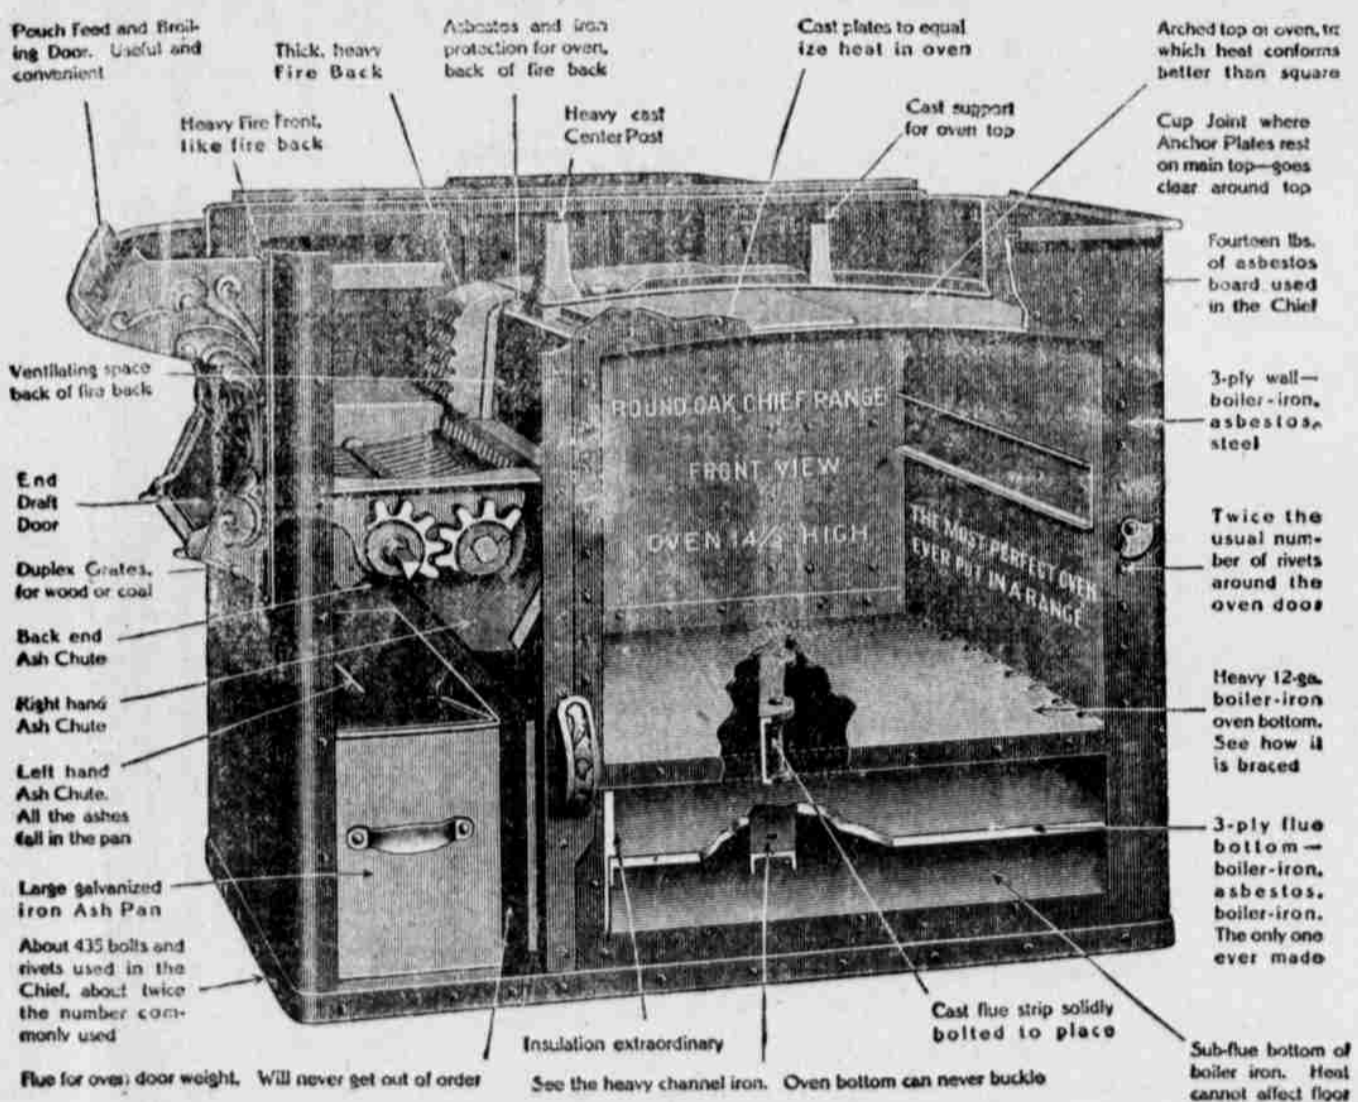

Steel Ranges

It's the Oven that Counts

The Round Oak Chief Exposed—Every Detail Shown—Nothing Concealed
You should know all about the range you buy

One of the Best Bakers in Steel Ranges

NOT ONE THING LEFT OFF THE CHIEF THAT WILL MAKE IT BETTER

Round Oak Ranges

With Reservoir

$52

Without Reservoir

$44

Newberry's Hardware Co.

Alliance, Neb.

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY

Geo. A. Hills, the Davista ranch harness maker and repairer, was the victim in a serious runaway on Tuesday resulting in a broken leg. He was driving a young nervous horse on which the breaching straps hung loosely, which evidently irritated the horse which began to kick and run, and becoming tangled in his own harness, fell, bringing the wagon to a sudden stop and throwing Mr. Hills to the ground and breaking his leg above the knee.

Dr. Platz was called from Torrington and set the broken bones.

HIGHLANDERS ATTENTION

Regular meeting of Alliance Castle No. 43 occurs on Friday evening of this week in M. B. A. hall. On this occasion the castle draw-bridge will be lowered and thirty new members will be admitted into the castle stronghold. All members are earnestly requested to be present and participate in the festivities.

A. D. RODGERS, Secy.-Treas.

GET WISE—ADVERTISE $3

VACUUM CLOTHES WASHER

As a side line in connection with his work in the grocery, Bert Duncan has taken the agency for the Vacuum clothes washer, a new invention which is claimed to be the best thing out in that line. He has had circulars printed to give the ladies of Alliance and vicinity some information in regard to this labor saving machine, and invites them to call and investigate it for themselves.

ROYAL HIGHLANDERS BALL

A grand ball will be given in Phelan opera house, Thursday evening, Oct. 24, under auspices of the Royal Highlanders. Music will be furnished by Minnie Wiker's orchestra. Tickets, $1.00. J. R. SMITH, Chairman Social Committee.

BUYS HORSES IN VALLEY

Cecil Smith purchased thirteen head of horses at Lingle, Wyoming, from the Davista Ranch company. He will ship them over in a few days, making up a carload here to ship east. Cecil spent three days in the valley.