

HON. EARL D. MALLERY
Popular Alliance business man, elected State Representative from the 73rd Nebraska district

MARRIED ON ELECTION DAY

Two Couples Married by Judges Ridgell and Zurn Tuesday

Tuesday afternoon, while the voting was going on full blast in the second ward, a smiling and serene couple appeared before Police Judge Zurn and asked that they be united in the bonds of matrimony. After recovering from his surprise he escorted them to the council chamber, and with the chief of police as best man and Charlie Jeffers as second best the ceremony was performed. The groom is Win. D. Harrington, of Alliance and the bride is Miss Beulah M. Smice, of Berea. Mr. Harrington has been employed at Alliance but will soon move to a farm near Alliance where the couple will make their home.

Elijah L. Williams of Alliance and Gertrude Christopher of Muskego, Oklahoma, were married on election day by Judge W. S. Ridgell. They will reside in Alliance.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION

The regular state teachers' examination will be held at the court house, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 15 and 16, 1912. DELLA M. REED, County Supt. Advertisement (48-2-1574)

GOES TO ARIZONA

Joe McNamara, formerly proprietor of The Alliance Shoe store, and a very popular member of the Elks here a couple of years ago, also a brother of Rev. Fr. McNamara, who died here, was in Alliance calling on friends Monday. Joe has sold out his business at Billings and has gone to Phoenix, Arizona, for his health, in the hope that the climate there will benefit him. Mrs. McNamara and the children are now in Omaha.

PROVE UP ON HOMESTEAD

Robert Walsh and Patrick Rowlin of Broadwater, Nebr., were in Alliance Saturday accompanying Frank Mulloy, one of the heirs of Mrs. W. Mulloy, deceased. Mrs. W. Mulloy had a homestead near Broadwater, and the heirs were proving up on the same.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Broome entertained a number of their friends at their home Sunday evening.
