THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1913

The wedding of Miss Esther Brown the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Brown, of Weaverville, to Mr. William C. Woods of Lingle, Wyoming, occurred Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock at the residence of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. West.

The residence was beautifully decorated in green and white. Miss Elsie Atkins of this city played the wedding music, and the bridal party entered the drawing room, as the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played. Miss Minnie Lyda was maid of honor and Mr. Oscar Brown was best man. The ring ceremony was used and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The ceremony was performed under a chandelier, which was attractively decorated with mistletoe and white ribbons. Miss Brown was attired in a traveling gown of blue cloth with a hat of the same shade and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The ceremony was followed by a reception after which Mr. and Mrs. Woods departed for Cincinnati, where they are spending the holidays. They will later go to Denver for a brief stay before returning to Lingle, Wyoming, where they will reside permanently.—Ashville Citizen.

A number of young people were entertained at the home of Chas. Tully, Tuesday evening. Dancing and cards were the order of the evening. Light refreshments were served at midnight. Those who were the guests were Misses Frances and Ethel Nolan, Emily Skiles and Meriam Seawell; Messrs. Ward Rubendall, Bob Reddish, W. R. Metz, Eugene Ford; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schlupp.

The Domestic Science section of the Woman's Club last Friday afternoon, was an enjoyable event. A paper on Uncooked Food was given by Mrs. James A. Armour. A piano selection was given by Miss Beulah Smith with violin obligato by Paul Thomas. Piano solos by C. A. Anderson and Miss Hattie Remswold were rendered. The luncheon was served in cafeteria style, each ordering a favorite dish. All kinds of tempting dishes were displayed at this style of luncheon. The next meeting of the club will be in the way of literary work and the subject will be "Passion Play", meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Campbell, 821 Box Butte Ave., Wednesday afternoon January 15th.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. J. T. Peckinpaugh entertained at a dinner party. The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards. A meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Mounts this afternoon. The subject was "China", with Mrs. Montgomery as leader. Papers on China were given by Mrs. Vance and other members, responding to the roll call with current events. Refreshments were served and a short musical program rendered.

H. P. Touhey was honored Monday night by a smoker given in the Zollinger rooms, by John Burke, as host. The entertainment for the evening was cards. Those present were Messrs. John Wiker, John Burke, G. G. Burke, F. M. Broome, Ralph Beal, Ray Mark, Dr. A. J. Kennedy, Dr. Boland, Roy McCluskey, Robert Reddish and Fred McDonald.

Mrs. J. E. Rice and daughter Ruth returned home from an extended trip through the east touching points in the eastern part of the state, Iowa and Illinois.

R. R. Reddish, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is reported a very little better.

SHOWER FOR MISS ROWLAND

The Daughters of Isabella gave a shower for Miss Agnes Rowland, at the home of Mrs. John O'Keefe. The house was decorated with hearts and cupid in red, festoons from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms being in abundance. A cozy corner was arranged for a doll bride in pink satin, and her groom. Miss Rowland there found showers of many beautiful presents. A two course luncheon was served. The table and dining room were in harmony with the rest of the house, and a huge bouquet of pink carnations were showered on the bride-to-be. Those present were Mesdames Dr. Copsey, Triplett, niece and sister, Lockwood, Shot, Driscoll, McLaine, Reardon, Brennan, Newberry, Hamilton, Buechsenstein, Yount, Kennedy, Connors, Vaughan, Burke, Jack Reardon, Frank O'Conner, Annie O'Conner and Mrs. Dwyer.

DELIGHTFUL HOUSE PARTY

(Omitted last week)
Miss B. Irene Shamp of Denver returned home last Friday, after being the guest of Miss Minelle Highland at a house party over New Year's. There were entertainments galore during her stay in Alliance. Four couples of young people enjoyed the elegant New Year's dinner, namely, the Misses Highland, Shamp, Virginia Broome, and Messrs. Homer Molyneux, B. Smead, L. L. Smith and L. H. Bennett. There was a watch party after theatre New Year's eve, and the next night a theatre party, a chili supper and the Elks' ball.

FREAD-BROWN

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Brown, 423 Missouri avenue, at 8 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, January 15, 1913, occurred the wedding of Mr. Samuel E. Tread and Miss Ethel M. Brown, Rev. A. L. Godfrey, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, officiating. After the ceremony had been performed the guests were invited to partake of an appetizing wedding supper, in the preparation of which the bride had done her part. The groom is one of the Burlington's faithful employees, holding the position of brakeman. The bride is one of Alliance's highly respected High school girls. They took the midnight

READER AND IMPERSONATOR

Francis Dowling, reader and impersonator, will speak in the Christian church basement next Tuesday night, January 21st. The reading he gives will be an extract from the book "Shepherd of the Hills", by Harold Bell Wright. The admission will be 20 cents for children and 35 cents for adults. The following recommendation from the secretary of the Regents of Education of South Dakota speaks for itself:
"The writer has heard Francis S. Dowling on several occasions, and had the pleasure of meeting and visiting with him, and takes pleasure in expressing his appreciation of Mr. Dowling's ability as an entertainer, as well as his quality as a gentleman.

Further, the writer feels that any audience before whom Mr. Dowling may appear, may be safely guaranteed an evening of real entertainment and enjoyment, and that they will leave his presence better equipped to meet the affairs of life, because of having come into contact with the inspiring personality of this man.
Respectfully,
FRED W. FORD,
