

WILL VISIT IN ENGLAND

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lunn and Son Arthur Leave for Visit in His Native Land

WILL BE GONE SIX WEEKS

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Lunn and three children left on Tuesday morning for the east. They stopped in Omaha, where two of the children, William and La Rhea, will stay with Mrs. Lunn's mother, Mrs. C. B. Rodgers, while Mr. and Mrs. Lunn and Arthur are away on their trip to England, Mr. Lunn's native land. They will leave New York, March 6th, on the White Star line ship, Celtic. They were planning to attend the inauguration of President Wilson, at Washington, March 4th. They will visit a number of places in England, but their principal stay will be at West Kirby, near Liverpool, at which place Mr. Lunn's mother and sister reside.

Before leaving Mr. Lunn kindly promised to furnish The Herald some items about their trip and visit, giving us permission to make such use of the items as we see fit, which will be to give our readers the benefit of them.

WIVES SURPRISE MACHINISTS

The Machinists met at their regular meeting in the M. E. hall on Monday evening. Their wives and friends got together and gave them a welcome surprise in the shape of delicious refreshments and a delightful program of dancing, card playing, etc., which lasted until the wee, emma hours of the morning.

There were about forty-five present at the entertainment and it proved a very good time for the men and their families to become more acquainted with their fellow workers and their friends. Everyone had an enjoyable time and the ladies have the credit for giving everyone a pleasant evening.

METHODIST PASTORS ORGANIZE

The Methodist pastors of all the churches from Bayard, Nebr., to Torrington, Wyo., have met and organized a ministerial association for mutual helpfulness in evangelical work in the valley towns. This association will be at Minatare during the week from March 2nd to the 9th, and will hold joint evangelical services at the church, for the week, visit all the families in town, and conduct a general church rally.—Minatare Free Press, Feb. 21.

ALLIANCE FIREMAN VERY SICK

Chas. Phifer Very Sick with Typhoid Fever at Newcastle

Chas. Phifer, a member of the Alliance Fire Department, is very sick with typhoid fever at Newcastle, Wyoming. Word comes to relatives here that he has been sick for four weeks, that he is delirious most of the time. His doctor states that his fever should break any time now. It is hoped that he will recover.

Mrs. J. Carr started Sunday for Broken Bow, to see her father, who is sick. While absent she will go to Oklahoma City, thence to Fremont, Nebr., to visit Mr. Carr's folks. She expects to be absent about two months.

Mrs. J. H. Curtis is having a fine new steam table installed in her cafeteria on Box Butte avenue. It is being installed by Newberry's, and will make a valuable addition to her equipment.

Dr. C. E. Slagle was called to Scottsbluff on Monday to operate on a Mr. Mulligan at that point.

Mrs. C. B. Johnson and her two children have been visiting with her parents at Grand Island.

Mrs. Eleanor Skinner, living six miles northwest of Alliance, has purchased a house and lot in Duncan's addition from C. B. Johnson.

W. S. Ridgell, state fire commissioner, was the guest of the Alliance Fire Department while in the city last week. When leaving he gave the boys his hearty and sincere thanks for their hospitality.

A. D. Rodgers and L. H. Highland made a business trip in the North Platte valley last week in the interests of the Alliance Fruit Company.

Geo. C. Snow, editor of the Chadron Journal, was one of those who organized the Western Nebraska Editorial Association in Alliance. Mr. Snow was appointed clerk of the senate finance committee at Lincoln but found that he could not spare the necessary time to give to this position, which is an important one. Senator W. H. Reynolds is chairman of this committee.

Mrs. B. V. Reeves, wife of B. C. Reeves, formerly of Alliance, and now at Hot Springs, is very ill with cancer of the liver and not expected to live. She was operated on recently.

J. A. Hunsicker of the Spauld neighborhood in Sheridan county, father of Mrs. J. M. Schirk of Alliance, came to the city last Wednesday. He was taken sick while here and was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Schirk visited friends in Edgemont the latter part of last week.

W. R. Herniman of Sioux county, west of Marsland, was in Alliance on last week's business the first of the week, and called at The Herald office. We are pleased to add his name to our Marsland list of subscribers.

Send $2 to The Lincoln Daily News and they will mail you that big paper daily from now until April 1,

1914, and also the Weekly Independent Farmer and the Monthly Poultry Topics, all three papers for over a year for $2. The regular price of The Daily News alone is $3. This will give you the daily paper during the legislature and during the exciting events of the coming Wilson administration. Nebraskans will cut a big figure in the coming four years. You may have these papers sent to different addresses if you want to give the farm paper or the poultry paper to friends. The News is a live daily, printing all the news and markets, great fiction stories, and brim full of interesting reading and discussions of the current events of the day. It is a clean paper, the kind you will want to your family. Send $2 today to the Lincoln Daily News and all three papers will start at once.—Adv-12-11*

NEBRASKA NEWSPAPERS

Among the Boys Who Do the Hard Work in Boosting for Their Towns and the State

ALL "STAND UP FOR NEBRASKA"

Chappell, the county seat of Deuel county, has a newspaper that would be a credit to any town several times its size. Some times when a local paper has no competition its publisher gets careless about how it is printed and does not seem to care whether he prints any news. Not so with Guy C. Newman, publisher of the Chappell Register. His paper is neatly printed and contains a fine lot of local news and correspondence.

The Marsland Tribune shows a marked improvement under the management of our good friend, Rev. Chas. H. Burleigh, who took charge of it last week. Bro. Burleigh is an old newspaper man and will give the people of Marsland a publication that will be a credit to that town. They ought to give him a good patronage.

Editor Arthur E. Clark of the Hemingford Journal has shown himself to be an enterprising newspaper man, and The Herald is pleased to commend him for his enterprise, but we must confess that since he commenced the publication of the Farmer and Rancher, the Journal has shown the effects of even an enterprising man having more than his hands full. If we may make a suggestion to Bro. Clark it is that he put another man in charge of the F. and R. and that he again devote all his time to The Journal.

Horace M. Davis, publisher of the Ord Weekly Journal and The Custer County Herald, is first assistant chief clerk of the house of representatives in the Nebraska legislature. He is giving the newspapers of Nebraska a splendid gratuitous service in the Lincoln news letters which he is sending out fresh from the seat of the legislative mill. Mr. Davis is a practical newspaper man, an interesting writer and for his news letters selects such things as the people are interested in.

There is one disagreeable thing about giving a write-up of this kind of the newspapers of our great state, and that is the small number that can be mentioned in one issue of the paper. There are so many more that cannot be mentioned than can be papers just as deserving of commendation as those that are mentioned—that we almost wish we had not undertaken to write this article. But we believe many of our readers will be interested in information concerning the Nebraska press, such as is briefly stated here, hence we expect that this will not be the only article of the kind to appear in The Herald.

Death of Walter Tice

The many friends of Walter Ellis Tice in Box Butte and Morrill counties learn with deep sorrow of his untimely death which occurred at Fairmont, Nebr., February 21, 1913, as the result of getting his arm caught in a corn sheller and mangled. It is claimed by the physicians that the injury that caused his death was not alone to his arm, but that being nearly drawn into the machine the effort to extricate himself injured the muscles in the region of his heart and hastened death. Deceased was born near Exceter, Nebr., March 3, 1884. His mother died when he was four years old, after which he lived with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Workman, until he was married to Miss Martha Colerick, at Deadwood, S. D., in October, 1903. He had a home- stead about twenty-two miles south of Alliance, in Morrill county. He moved with his family to Fairmont about a month ago. The remains were brought back to Alliance for interment in Greenwood cemetery by the side of the child which had passed on before. Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church at 10:30 a. m. yesterday, by the pastor, Elder F. A. Woten.

To the sorrowing wife and children and to the father and brothers The Herald wishes to offer a word of condolence. They will have the sympathy of all who learn of the misfortune which has befallen them or the loving husband and father in the strength of his young manhood.

FIRST GUN OF BIG PIANO SALE

W. M. Robinson, Manager of Orkin Brothers, Arrives in Alliance with Big Force of Salesmen and Clerks and Several Carloads of Pianos

FIRST AD IN THIS ISSUE

On another page you will notice the big advertisement of Orkin Bros. This is the opening announcement of the big Club Sale which was announced in our columns several weeks ago.

W. M. Robinson, manager of the piano department of the big firm of Orkin Brothers, arrived in Alliance yesterday noon. He now has a large force of salesmen and clerks employed here for the special sale. Prospective piano purchasers should watch our columns closely for announcements and by all means go to the Alliance store and be shown the beautiful pianos which are being offered at such low prices and terms.

Don't overlook the value of the want ads on page 5.

W. R. DRAKE'S CITY Meat Market

People of Alliance know the kind of Meats sold and service given by W. R. Drake when running a meat market before. With better facilities and better location, he can satisfy all old customers and any number of new customers that may favor him with their trade.

Meeting Held Monday Night to Organize Company to Construct Fairview Line

LINE WILL BE BUILT SOON

A meeting was held Monday night of this week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Aspden, in the Fairview neighborhood, for the purpose of organizing a company to construct a telephone line to Alliance.

T. J. Lawrence was elected president of the company and Wm. H. Aspden secretary-treasurer. Others present at the meeting who will be on the line are John and Ed. Pahlow and Dan Lawrence. There will probably be several more connected with the line besides those named.

A name was not decided upon at the time of the meeting to organize, but we understand that it will be known as the Fairview line. The farthest point from Alliance will be about eleven miles northeast. The

ORDERED NEW SPRING STOCK

Miss Mary Regan returned Saturday from Chicago, where she had been for a week or more. She ordered a stock of spring goods, millinery, ladies' furnishings, etc., for the Regan store. On her return she was accompanied by Mrs. Fitzpatrick, an expert trimmer who has worked successfully in Indianapolis, Detroit and other large cities. Miss Regan has a large circle of acquaintances among the ladies of Alliance and the surrounding country. She is familiar with their needs in millinery and other goods, and now that she is in business again with a large stock of new goods, she will no doubt receive a large trade.

Alliance Man Who Lived in Mexico and Served in Federal Army Considers Proposition Seriously

S. A. Powles, who is proprietor of the cigar, news and confectionery stand in the Herald building, was a resident of Old Mexico for a good many years and owns considerable property down there now. He was driven out two times by the revolutionists. Mr. Powles talks Mexican like a native and is thoroughly familiar with most of the country, having been an engineer there for a number of years. He also served in the United States army and has a thorough understanding of army life and practice.

It now appears that intervention is but a matter of a few days or weeks in Mexico by the U. S. army. If war is declared it will take 160,000 volunteers and if the young men of Alliance who have patriotic blood in their veins wish to join a local company, Mr. Powles says he is ready to start organizing at any time the call for volunteers is made.

Horse and cow hides should be salted well as soon as removed from the animals. Allow them to remain spread out a day or so before you bring them to us. We will ship them promptly and attend to your custom tanning in a business-like way. Our service costs you nothing. You are protected by a $1000.00 Guarantee.

SCISSORS AND PASTE

Northport Herald, Feb. 21: John Hagerty of Alliance visited with his daughter, Mrs. Pat Rowlan, and family over Sunday, returning to Bridgeport Tuesday. Mr. Hagerty is a veteran of the Civil war.

Hay Springs News, Feb. 22: Dr. Molzahn returned home from Alliance last Friday night with a new Ford run-a-bout. He tried to run over another machine on his way home, consequently his car had to be taken to the "auto hospital" the next day for a slight operation, but at present is able to be out again.

Rushville Recorder, Feb. 21: Attorney Joe Westover and wife and Chas. Feagins and wife autoped up from Alliance Sunday night to visit relatives and friends. They returned Monday afternoon accompanied by Mrs. E. V. Hippash.

Minatare Free Press, Feb. 21: S. K. Warrick shipped three cars of sheep today, one each to St. Joseph, Kansas City and St. Louis.

Dr. Slagle of Alliance operated on Glen Millican at the Vandiver hospital for appendicitis yesterday, and reports the patient doing nicely. The man's father and mother from Alliance were present at the time. His father is one of the old-time engineers on the Burlington between Alliance and Ravenna.
