

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS

Last Friday Mrs. M. E. Bernhardt traded her Alliance property to J. C. McCorkle for a quarter section farm a mile south of Beres. Mr. McCorkle will rent the house when Mrs. Bernhardt moves out, which will be in about three weeks.

Mrs. M. P. Nason whose illness some months ago was noted in The Herald, but who was supposed to have recovered, returned to the hospital Tuesday, on the advice of her physician, for another operation. It is thought that she will soon recover from this operation and that she will then probably have good health.

E. W. Ray has moved his plumbing business from West Third St. to the building occupied by Fielding's tailoring shop. He has arranged to keep potted plants and cut flowers on hand at all times.

Miss Margaret Bell, of the First National Bank force, left yesterday noon for Omaha, accompanied by her mother. They will visit there, returning here the first of the week. Mrs. Lloyd C. Thomas is filling her place at the bank during Miss Bell's absence.

The prisoner who was arrested the first of last week and given thirty days in the county jail at hard work for stealing four pairs of trousers from the Norton store, took it upon himself to "bite" yesterday morning while working with his colleague in crime on the court house yards, preparing for starting construction work on the new building, and decamped. The last heard of him he was going twenty miles an hour in the direction of the sand hills. His departure saves the county an expense of $150 per day and helps Alliance out considerably.

W. M. Melcher of Rushville came over to Alliance to attend the horse sale yesterday.

James Feagins is on a trip to Texas, where he will purchase a bunch of Texas cattle.

Miss Nellie Cook of Scottsbluff returned to her home this noon. She came down as a "roofer" for the basket ball team Saturday evening. While here she was entertained at the homes of Miss Devona Dickenson and Miss Florence Rails.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bell have returned from Illinois, where they have been visiting since his operation.

A party of railroad men are spending a week on the Rennau homestead on a big hunt. They took a tent and complete camping outfit. Those who compose the party are: Messrs. Rennau, Shawyer, Bell, Henry and Claude Rennau, and Reuben Knight.

Dr. Peterson is sick with an attack of pneumonia.

A pall of hot ashes started a fire in the rear of the Watson building Monday night. Some one turned in a fire alarm, but by the time the fire boys had arrived R. T. Watson had the fire extinguished, but not until it had spoiled the porch of the building.

G. A. Griffin, a prominent real estate dealer of Rapid City, S. D., was in Alliance yesterday on business. From here he went to Lincoln, expecting to get a bunch of five or six prospective land buyers in the east part of this state. We had the pleasure of adding Mr. Griffin's name to The Herald's subscription list while he was in Alliance.

Buy milk cows, horses or farm machinery at the Wilson-Bargess sale, description on want-ad page.

Dr. Slagle states that Mrs. W. W. Norton, who was operated on at St. Joseph's hospital Saturday, is rapidly improving.

Engineer Charley Willis is visiting and hunting at F. E. Allen's ranch 82 miles east of Alliance with Mr. Allen.

Engineers Harbottle and Carter are on a trip to Canada where they wish to take employment.

J. F. Hale was the victim of a painful but not serious accident in the Burlington shops. A heavy monkey wrench, with which he was working, fell and fractured a couple of ribs.

Condensed Notices

Owing to lack of space for the usual announcements, we are compelled to condense our church notices this week. Unless otherwise noted below, regular services will be held at all the Alliance churches on next Sunday.

BAPTIST—Morning sermon, "Practical Christianity"; evening, "Repentance and Restoration." B. Y. P. U. topic, "How may every Sabbath be the Lord's day?" Mrs. T. A. Cross, leader.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN—The Rev. D. W. Montgomery will preach both morning and evening.

CHRISTIAN—Morning sermon, "The New Testament Church"; evening, "Hell."

EPISCOPAL—Morning sermon, "The Carnal Mind, the Spiritual Mind"; evening prayer, subject suggested, "How do you explain Retribution?"

Straight at It.

There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well out with it first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason so far as we can see why you should not do so. This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

GRAND JURY TO CONVENE

Judge Westover Calls Grand Jury to Meet on March 24th

District Judge Westover has ordered a grand jury called to meet on March 24th. The sheriff has already served subpoenas and preparations are being made by those interested. The grand jury consists of sixteen members and will stay in session until all business brought before it shall have been disposed of. The findings of the grand jury will be brought up before the regular term of district court, which convenes next month.

A petition against the calling of a grand jury was signed by fifty citizens of Alliance but the judge declined to comply with the request.

URGED TO BECOME CANDIDATE

Dispatcher A. J. Welch has been urged by many of his friends to become a candidate for postmaster at Alliance. Yielding to their requests, so The Herald is informed, Mr. Welch will permit the use of his name as a candidate in the event of a post office primary being held at Alliance. We have no means of knowing beforehand what the result of such an election will be, but we know that Mr. Welch has many friends who would be glad for an opportunity to vote and boost for him.

MUSICAL TREAT IN STORE

A rare musical treat is in store for Alliance people. Mrs. Wayne D. Zediker completed arrangements for a recital at the Phelan opera house, April 7th, by Sidney Silber, director of the piano department of the University School of Music at Lincoln. Prof. Silber is an American by birth but was educated in Berlin, and has played solo parts very successfully with the leading symphony orchestras of this country and Europe. He has prepared a special program for Alliance. His recital here will be the first and only one to be given by him this year outside of Lincoln. Further announcement and program will be published in a later issue of The Herald.

GADSBY STORE ROBBED

The Gadsby hardware store was entered Monday night by burglars, who broke the glass in a window over the catch, opening it by putting their hand through the hole. It is supposed that there were either two or three men.

The burglars secured six revolvers, several electric searchlights, a number of pocketknives branded "G. G. Gadsby" on the blades, several razors and some small jewelry. The total value of the goods stolen is estimated by Mr. Gadsby at about $200.

The sheriff immediately got busy and notified the officers in surrounding towns as soon as the theft was discovered Tuesday morning but so far no clue has been discovered.

Mrs. Rodgers, mother of Mrs. A. T. Lunn, returned from Omaha with the two Lunn children on Monday noon. They did not accompany their parents on their eastern trip farther than Omaha.

James Keeler, accompanied by Geo. Hitchcock, his Overland sub-agent at Hemingford, went to Denver last night to bring back overland a couple of new Overland cars, which Mr. Hitchcock has sold to Hemingford parties. They will probably get back to Alliance Saturday.

DEATH OF MRS. S. B. WILSON

Mrs. Charlotte Wilson, wife of Spencer B. Wilson, night porter at the Burlington station, died Saturday evening, after an illness of about two months, having had an attack of pneumonia. The funeral service was conducted at the residence in West Lawn at 2:30 this afternoon, Mrs. P. M. Maxfield, pastor of the A. M. E. church, having charge of the service. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Wilson was one of the most highly respected colored ladies of this city. She was 38 years, 1 month and 13 days of age at the time of her demise. She was the mother of nine children, seven of whom are living. To the motherless children and the bereaved husband The Herald wishes to offer a word of sympathy.

COME TO ALLIANCE

D. D. Barton, of Spokane, Washington, arrived on 44 Monday to take a position in the office of the

You'll get a good fit
THE chief reason, we believe, why some men have their clothes "made to measure" is that they think they get a better fit; and if you go to some very high-priced expert you will probably get clothes, if not better fitting, better made than any ready clothes; even ours. Such a tailor will charge $50 to $75 for a suit; if you want to pay so much, do it.

But there are many men who go to some small tailor; or select their cloth from a sample, have their measure taken by somebody who may or may not know how, and wait a week or two for the suit to be made and sent.

They think they're getting something "special." But such a man can find, in any store selling our goods, better clothes—better style, fit, tailoring—for less money; and in nine cases out of ten, wear the suit home.

GEORGE D. DARLING

Among those who may properly be called old timers in Alliance is Geo. D. Darling, the popular furniture dealer and undertaker. He came to this city twenty-three years ago. In 1897 he went into partnership with Thomas Beck, in the hardware, furniture and undertaking business, but in 1901 Mr. Darling went into business by himself, being located then in the Nelson Fletcher block. A little over two years ago he moved to the new Wood & Reiman building at 115-17 West 3rd St. This building is splendidly adapted to his business. In fact, it was constructed for his use with the view to making it just what he wanted. It contains 8,000 square feet of floor space, in addition to the basement which is used as a ware room. It is not saying too much to speak of Mr. Darling's Alliance store as being one of the finest of the kind in the west half of Nebraska, if not the finest, best equipped and best stocked.

J. C. McCORKLE

It is a pleasure for The Herald to boost the man who boosts our town and county. For that reason we are always glad to mention something of the good work done by J. C. McCorkle, who has done more than almost any one else to bring this country to the notice of eastern people and encourage investment in land here and the proper cultivation of the same. Mr. and Mrs. McCorkle came from Superior, Nebr., in the spring of 1886. He acquired three quarter sections of land by pre-emption, homestead and tree claim, on the Niobrara river, nine miles north of where Hemingford now stands. In December, 1906, he moved to Alliance, since which time he has sold many thousand acres of land. One secret of his success as a real estate agent is that he has great confidence in the future of this country and believes that when he sells a mac land here he is making money for him as well as for himself. He thoroughly believes that with the right kind of crops and proper cultivation farming here is a better proposition than on the high priced lands farther east, and he has the faculty of making others think the same way when he has an opportunity. Mr. McCorkle is expecting a good immigration to this country in the near future, and in this The Herald hopes he will not be disappointed.

MRS. W. H. ZEHRUNG

Mrs. Zehring, proprietor of the Victor Tailoring Co., has resided in Alliance eleven years and has large acquaintance among the ladies of this city and the surrounding country. About a year ago she began cleaning and repairing ladies and men's garments. Her business soon grew to such an extent that she found it necessary to employ assistance. At first she did the work at her residence, but found it would be more convenient to have a shop on Box 344e avenue. Her shop is the only one of the kind in the city managed by a woman. She has added other lines to her business. She has a good trade in cut flowers, her orders running as high as seventy-two dozen in a week. Recently Mrs. Zehring took the agency for the Victor Ladies' Tailoring Co. of Chicago, and has already started fine business in taking orders for ladies' made-to-order garments. The attention of our lady readers is called to her fine quarter page advertisement as well as to a reading notice in another column.
