Profitable Lease for Trade
Chance to Get Five Year Lease on Irrigated Farm Adjoining Denver.

I represent a client who has a five-year lease on an eighty-acre irrigated farm on the edge of Denver, which he wishes to trade for Box Butte county land. If you are a farmer and want a proposition that will make you big money, in addition to having a home in the city of Denver, with all its advantages, you should investigate this proposition. The income from this eighty-acre was approximately $98 per acre during 1912. It is an opportunity to make big money from farming.

The farm is three and one-half miles east of the State Capitol building in Denver. Fine barn, 23 box stalls for cattle and stalls for eight head of horses. Good four-room house 2 blocks from street car line, 3 public schools within walking distance. City water, telephone. All under irrigation. 60 acres in fine stand of alfalfa. A very desirable proposition for a farmer with a family. If your capital is tied up in Box Butte county land here is a fine opportunity to exchange it for a long time lease on a big money-maker. Write or see Lloyd C. Thomas, Herald building, Alliance. 2042-18-1f.

A Few Facts About Soap

The experienced soap buyer knows that soap is one necessity of the home that never spoils. Keep it one, two or three years and it will be better the third year than when you bought it. A bar of soap two years old will go twice as far as one that is only one year old. When you can buy soap at a reduction like we are giving, just stop and figure how much you will save by buying a supply now.
