A Good Investment

There is no better investment than a fifty cent piece in a bottle of Meritol White Liniment. Muscular and rheumatic pains, swellings, lameness and soreness of the muscles are promptly relieved. Meritol White Liniment is especially recommended as a general pain killer of unusual merit. F. J. BRENNAN.

PETERSON TO CLIMB HILL

Ed F. Peterson, of Theima, writes Herald regarding controversy about climbing the Peterson hill

SAYS TIMES WAS MISTAKEN

The following letter was received by The Herald the last of the week from Mr. Peterson, in which he takes exceptions to the statements in a recent issue of the Times regarding climbing Peterson Hill, which lies about 25 miles southeast of Alliance. His letter is as follows:

There has been quite a controversy running in the Times in regard to climbing "break-neck hill" on the Peterson ranch, horseback and with an automobile. Mr. Drake has contended that there are places on this hill that cannot be climbed on horseback and offered to forfeit fifty dollars to any worthy cause. I have called him on this. I still stand ready to climb the hill anytime Mr. Drake comes down.

The Times was mistaken when it stated that there was a portion of the hill that I admitted I could not climb on horseback.

It was also stated in the Times that I expected to climb the hill in the same place that Mr. Drake did with his auto. I expected to climb the break-neck hill at any place Mr. Drake pointed me to. It was also stated in the Times that it was settled, but the people of this vicinity do not think so until it is proved I cannot climb the hill.

I would like to see some money change hands.

WINS $25 PRIZE

Mollie D. Chesnut, of Torrington, Wins $25 prize for best analysis of Orkin Brothers club plan and advertising

FIVE ESSAYS SUBMITTED

As stated in the last issue of The Herald, Mollie D. Chesnut, of Torrington, Wyoming, a member of the Orkin Brothers sales force, was announced as the winner of the $25 prize Wednesday morning. This prize was given by W. M. Robinson, manager of the piano department, of Orkin Brothers, for the best analysis of the advertising and club plan of the big sale now going on.

John H. Moist, of the Times, and Lloyd C. Thomas of The Herald, were asked by Mr. Robinson to select a third judge. Their report to Mr. Robinson is as follows:

Alliance, Nebr., May 28, '13. Mr. W. M. Robinson, Manager, Orkin Brothers Piano Department, Omaha, Nebr.

Dear Sir:— In accordance with your request we have examined the essays submitted to us by your sales force, on the Club Plan of selling pianos, as followed and advertised in the sale now going on at Alliance.

After careful investigation we beg to state that we find that the analysis submitted by Mollie D. Chesnut, of Torrington, Wyoming, to be the most comprehensive and best outlined of those submitted and hereby award the prize to Miss Chesnut.

Respectfully yours,
John H. Moist, of Times.
Lloyd C. Thomas, Herald.
E. G. Laing, Selected by above as third judge.

The analysis submitted by Miss Chesnut reads as follows:
THE ORKIN PIANO CLUB SALE PLAN
Co-operative Benefits

- To the Member:
1. Equal share in profits earned by buying, shipping and selling in large quantities.
 2. Easy terms.
 3. Special privileges: Life insurance, Cash discounts, Year's trial.
 4. Commission credit on each sale secured by Club Member.

- To the Community:
1. Awakens a general interest in music as an essential element in education.
 2. Suggests that there is need of well trained, thoroughbred men and women as well as cattle.
 3. A reminder that there is more to life than just the living; that music, as well as affording pleasant entertainment, is more than medicine to the tired mind and body, and is an inspiration to all who have ears to hear.

- To the Company:
1. Centralizes power.
 2. Reduces cost of Piano, Freight, and Selling.
 3. Increased sales.
 4. Promotes and sustains public confidence.
 5. Provides an endless chain of advertisement, with each member as a link to draw and hold their friends in one continuous living line for the Orkin Brothers Company.

By MOLLIE D. CHESNUT, Torrington, Wyoming.

In addition to the above Mrs. J. T. Wiker, manager of the Alliance branch, D. J. Sinclair, of Omaha, W. C. English, manager of the Chadron branch, and W. H. Lunn of Omaha, submitted essays. All were good and had merit, but the judges decided that the one submitted by Miss Chesnut covered more points and was more clearly outlined than the others submitted.

NEW AUTOMOBILE HOUSE

W. R. Drake has turned the building formerly used as a meat market at 517 Sweetwater avenue, into an automobile house for the accommodation of his two machines, the new Ford which he uses for passenger purposes and the Buick which he purchased of Judge W. W. Wood and which he uses as meat car. A large sliding door in the front of the building takes the place of the show window. As the building fronts on the street and is on the lot adjoining his residence property, it is very conveniently located for the purpose for which now used.

K. C.'s Confer Degrees

The Knights of Columbus on last Sunday conferred the degree work of a large class of candidates. The work which was in charge of District Deputy W. R. Maloney of North Platte, assisted by the officers of the local council was very impressive and well received by the Alliance Knights as well as the candidates. The candidates and members prepared themselves for this work by the reception of the sacraments of penance and Holy Eucharist on Sunday or during the month previous and on Sunday at 9 a. m. met at their hall on third street and marched to Holy Rosary Church to attend the 10 o'clock mass celebrated by Rev. Fr. Donnelly. Rev. Maloney preaching the sermon appropriate to the occasion. At 1 p. m. the degree work started and was not concluded until 9 p. m. on account of the large number of candidates. The Knights and their ladies then repaired to the Opera House where they enjoyed a banquet prepared by the Daughters of Isabella whose reputation for the finishing of necessities of the inner man is well known to Alliance citizens. After the banquet J. B. Kennedy of Hemingford acting as toast master introduced the following members and the toasts to which they responded. Fr. Donnelly, "the duties of members", Fr. Malony "my impressions of the day", W. R. Maloney "our insurance system", F. J. Doran "history of the order", F. M. Broome "our accomplishments in Alliance", John W. Gutarie "The two principals of the order". Short talks were also made by E. F. Shields and W. J. Hamilton and other members and after singing "America" the

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in the baking.

Use CALUMET—the Modern Baking Powder.

At all Grocers.

BULGARIAN WORK SHIRTS

Burt Laing, of Modern Clothes for Men, says that the Bulgarian craze is getting furious. Bulgarian jackets, Bulgarian ties, Bulgarian pins, and Bulgarian lots of things are the rage. A gentleman and his wife came into the store the other day and the lady said to her husband, "I want you to get one of those Bulgarian ties they are so attractive." "But, my dear," said the man, "I cannot afford Bulgarian ties." Then to Burt he said, "Say, Burt, have you any BULGARIAN WORK SHIRTS?"
