GONE TO LINCOLN

Harold S. Thomas, who has been a member of the Herald force for some time, left with his wife and baby son Sunday evening, for Lincoln, Nebraska, where they will make their home. Harold is entering the railway mail service as a postal clerk. His run will be out of Lincoln. He was mail carrier at the Alliance post office for some time and as he liked that work, he decided to take the examination for railway mail clerk, which pays better salaries.

Best Laxative for the Aged

Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folks, but it must be safe and harmless and one which will not cause pain. Dr. King's New Life Pills are especially good for the aged, for they act very promptly and easily. Price 25c. Recommended by Fred E. Holsten. Advt 2163-26-4t.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

BELMONT ITEMS

We have had so much rain this spring it has delayed the farmers in planting their crops, but they report a much larger acreage planted than usual.

We hear that Mrs. Ferd Wendt and sisters, Misses Carice and Beth Phelps, will take pleasure trip to Bellevue. They will be gone some months and we wish them a pleasant trip.

Misses Belle and Lillie Gregory made a business trip to Crawford one day last week.

One hundred and fifty guests took supper at the Hamaker reception on Thursday night.

Mrs. A. Gregory will give two business lots in Belmont to any one who will put in first class lumber yards and coal sheds.

Carroll Tolman was in Belmont and bought another nice horse. He has a fine horse ranch near Marsland.

Ray Hamaker is here for a car of horses to ship to his ranch in Wyoming.

Mrs. A. Gregory of Belmont will give a lot to any party that will build a first class hotel on it.

Lee Gregory, agent at Belmont, made a business trip to Crawford on last Monday.

Mr. Ferd Wendt, our popular merchant has one of the finest autos in western Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Peery visited Crawford one day last week.

Mr. D. T. Porter and his son Johnnie were in town Sunday. Mr. Porter says his crops are nearly all planted and he is looking for a big crop.

We hear that R. D. Q. Hamaker will move to Hot Springs in the near future. We are all sorry for they have been in Belmont for many years.

Mrs. Maude Nichols and husband and Mrs. Cecil Pierce and husband were visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Hack home at Belmont Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hamaker from Sioux County were Belmont visitors Sunday.

Geo. Garvie moved the house he purchased off the Ed. Randall place to his Kinkaid this week.

STRASBURGER

All nature is resolved into Life and Health. We have had this truth exemplified very decidedly in and around Strasburger in the last few weeks. Mrs. Ella E. Hallowell whom everyone loved who knew her, passed into the Great Beyond and her body was placed in the Hallowell cemetery on the 10th of May. Rev. Porter preached an excellent sermon.

"They will meet us, cheer and greet us, Those we've loved, who've gone before; We shall find them at the portals, Find our beautiful immortals, When we reach that radiant shore."

We extend our deepest sympathy to her excellent husband and sons and daughters.

Then there followed the death of Mr. Jos. Bolek, a few miles north of Strasburger. Although three doctors attended him—Doctors Juren, Schoch and Wilson—and did all possible to save his life the Grim Reaper, Death, had won.

Mr. Bolek was an honest man in all his dealings, and strictly attended to his own affairs. Cardinal Newman, the Roman Catholic, in his "Lead Kindly Light," talks about the time when

"The night is gone, And in the morn those angel faces smile, Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile."

Mr. Bolek leaves an estimable wife and two splendid boys. May our kind Heavenly Father guide and direct them.

A young man from Rushville whose name we could not learn preached a good sermon.

After all said and done—Those who have departed are on the real side of life.

"This life is but an inch long—then comes miles of eternity," said Cicero. How we spend eternity depends upon us—wise is the man or woman, or boy or girl who prepares to meet their God.

In the Strasburger district there have been a number of additions this spring. Mrs. Case has a little Case, a daughter. Mrs. Myrtle McMillan, a son, Robert McMillan; Mrs. Bessie C. Eakin, a daughter, Isabella Anna; Mrs. Lena Eckler, a boy, Julius Emerson. And yet we hear people say there are no "Parsley dees" in this neighborhood. You've heard of the little boy about ten years of age, who, like many little boys knew more than their fathers and mothers combined. When this little ten-year old boy was told by his father to go in and see his mother and the little baby brother that the doctor brought, went into the room and saw the little brother, and then came out and said to his father "Dad, he ain't got no hair, and no teeth; I believe he is an old one; I believe Dad you've been took in."

Miss Geigley from Chicago, who is one of the capable teachers in one of the Chicago high schools, visited her Sister, Mrs. Milner, and while here purchased several horses and colts from Lohis Wall.

Miss Lamberson and her father, the octogenarian homesteader, went to their homesteads the other day, beginning their annual seven months residence on same.

Rev. Porter preached his last sermon at Strasburger last Sunday, the first of June. Those who know a good preacher and an honest man—"the noblest work of God"—one who tries to live up to his convictions, were very sorry to see him go. He resigned some time ago, but a call at Morrill was given him with, I hope, a larger salary, and I trust a very spiritual church, a church which believes more in Christianity than Churchianity, a church desirous of building up Christ's kingdom. All right minded people regret deeply that he and his estimable wife left this part of the country. We miss in Mrs. Porter—who is a minister's wife par excellence—her kindly character, and her well cultivated, sweet voice, which all enjoyed greatly in the Spade Sabbath school last Sunday. To the tender care of the Divine Being commending them as I hope in their prayers will commend us, we bid Rev. Porter and wife and their sweet little girl and affectionate wife.

A congress of all the improvement Clubs—a very united and enjoyable meeting it was—was held at Strasburger on the 24th ult., at 11 a. m., Pres. Anmons in the chair, and Mr. Binder secretary. The president appointed a committee of five, viz. John B. Strasburger, and Messrs. Ostrander, Keeler, Dairyman and Binder, to draft resolutions. The same was done in twenty minutes, and adopted unanimously by an appreciative audience. Dinner was served by the Strasburger ladies, and the visiting brethren as well as the residents enjoyed same hugely. I mean the dinner, as well as the ladies. Excellent suggestions were made regarding good roads, good gates, R. R. and passenger and also freight automobiles, from Survey, thru Spade and Strasburger to Lakeside and Rushville, our county seat. Mr. MacFarland, one of our commissioners, was kindly mentioned as one who is desirous of helping this part of the great country of Sheridan. We hope the good commissioners will soon visit us, and help us to get better roads and better gates to Rushville and Lakeside and Ellsworth. A good many taxes are paid in this section of the county, and all of us of course know that some of these taxes ought to be spent here. We who have been in Alliance and Rushville like those cities and would like to get there more frequently.

GOOD OLD BOY.
