Payne-ful Praise

(By the United Press)
WASHINGTON, June 26.—Congressman Sereno E. Payne, of New York, one of the best known of old-line republicans in the House, author of the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill and as well known as any member of the lower House, today received congratulations on the event of his seventieth birthday. In the old Cannon days Payne was one of the "big four" which ruled the House with a hold of iron.

CHAUTAUQUA

THIS Chautauqua that you are to have here this summer is a new kind of Chautauqua.

What interest have you in Greek mythology?

None.

But you ARE interested in the business and social life of 1913—in the vital issues that affect your well-being today and will affect it tomorrow.

And you need the inspiration of music that stirs every mite of enthusiasm in you and that puts a new incentive into the work of every day.

Then you will like this Chautauqua—built on vastly new lines for the man fighting TODAY'S struggles and facing TOMORROW'S.

It is a grand, splendid program. You will be timid about getting into the Chautauqua habit the first day. The last night, you'll be clamoring for seats and wishing there were more Chautauqua days to come.

Get started on the opening day and you'll be glad to have missed none of it.
