EMERY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Brakeman G. W. Emery had a narrow escape from being killed while going east on an extra freight last Wednesday. At half past eleven o'clock that night, at Orrilla, while going forward to help put out a fire on a car, his lantern went out and he fell between two cars. He grabbed the edge of the car roof in falling and saved himself, getting back to the top of the train. One rib was broken and he is now laid off until it heals.

REASON IS OUT

If you were going to build a house would you hire a shoemaker to do it? No, you would hire the best carpenter you could get. Use the same judgment in selecting a Commission House to handle your Live Stock. Select a house whose Salesmen are Specialists in their particular line.

Why

We opened our doors Jan. 1st, 1906. From No Business we have forged ahead until now we rank with the Leading Firms of the yards.

A Reason for This

It's because every man connected with the concern, from the Big Chief down is a man of wide experience and is a live wire; knows his own ability; has the full confidence of the buyers; believes in his business and is interested in it. You Can't Beat This Combination.

Home of the Ford

Three out of five of the cars in the big 135 mile trip on Sunday, June 15th, were Ford automobiles. They went through the sand and climbed the steep hills without difficulty.

We have only sixteen more Ford cars to dispose of this season. They are going fast. GET YOUR CAR NOW
