

LOCAL NEWS

John E. Erickson, superintendent of stock yards on the Burlington system, was here looking after the local yards last week, inspecting the new yards, recently finished, and the changes in the old yards.

J. F. Knight, of Hemingford, has been visiting his father, W. F. Knight, for a couple of days. He had a shoulder dislocated the other day, disabling him from hard work for a short time.

W. F. Knight and wife go to Hemingford today to visit their son, J. F. Knight.

Mrs. J. N. Johnston went to Scottsbluff Tuesday with her oldest daughter, Mrs. B. H. Fernald, who has been visiting them here for some time.

The A. M. E. church will entertain with a Rose Drill and Bow and Arrow Drill on August 16th. The location of the entertainment has not yet been decided upon.

S. K. Warrick, cashier of the First National Bank, was in the city on Friday attending to business matters. He had been on a trip to Merna and Broken Bow. Mr. Warrick returned to Scottsbluff Friday noon.

Miss Maude Severns, of Gering, stopped in Alliance Monday noon, on her way to Newcastle, Wyoming, where she will spend a few weeks visiting with friends. She also expects to visit a short time in Sheridan.

Mrs. M. F. Nolan and daughters are spending the first of their summer vacation for a month's trip in the west. They went first to Portland, then down the coast as far as San Diego, and will return home via Salt Lake City.

Charles M. Westfield, of Denver, representative for the Mergenthaler Linotype Company Chicago office, was in Alliance Saturday on a business trip.

A. E. Grebe, formerly associated with his brother at the Alliance Art Studio, has moved to Scottsbluff, where he has established the Platte Valley Picture Shop. His mother is there keeping house for him.

The stock firm of Jas. Feagins & Son, have sold to Will Dixon, of Newcastle, Wyoming, four carloads of southern cows. The cattle were shipped on Tuesday.

Erie H. Reid, an attorney of Torrington, Wyoming, and known to Alliance boys and girls who attended the Nebraska state university recently, passed through, Monday, going east on his way to Lincoln to marry Miss Dorothy Watkins, of Lincoln. She was a Delta Gamma and he a Phi Kappa Psi, when at the University. They will make their home at Torrington.

Forty cars of sheep came in Saturday from Montana, on their way to the Chicago market. Another train of thirty cars was fed the same day. They were on their way to the Omaha market.

Mrs. J. A. Wolverton went to Ottumwa, Iowa, on Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Bartness.

John Wiker returned Saturday from a business trip south.

A course in the Hastings Business College will help you to a good position.—Adv-37-11-2414

Hastings Business College graduates begin work at a salary of $50 to $100 a month.—Adv-37-11-2414

Write the Hastings Business College, Hastings, Nebr., for their literature. If you are going to school, it will pay you to attend where a court reporter teaches shorthand, where an expert accountant teaches the bookkeeping.—Adv-37-11-2414

Cy Laing, proprietor of the Central Cafe, is a fine advertisement for a good cafe. Cy was formerly chief of police in Alliance and has always been known as a heavy-weight. Since purchasing the Central cafe from "Bill" Becker a short time ago he has had a big business and reports it keeping him very busy.

Perry Brandt had a hand crushed Friday night. While holding a nervous colt, it suddenly jerked the rope, catching his hand against a wagon wheel, crushing it rather severely.

Chas. C. Jameson, of Ellsworth, was in Alliance the first of last week. He drove his Studebaker auto over to Chadron and back from Alliance, returning to Ellsworth on Friday.

J. R. Phelan, owner of the big Phelan ranch eight miles southeast of Alliance, is in from Denver, where he has been making his home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell, of Hemingford, were in the city Tuesday.

Mr. McLaughlin, of Marsland, was in the city on Tuesday.

Mrs. Michael Elmore and son, Michael, of New York City, formerly residents of Alliance and well known to many old timers, passed through Alliance Sunday, bound for Gillette, Wyoming, where they will visit for a couple of weeks with Mrs. Elmore's sister. They will stop at Alliance on their return east.

Mrs. F. E. Purcell, a sister of Mrs. C. A. Dow, who has been visiting the Dow family for a short time, left on Tuesday for Harding, S. D.

W. J. Mahoney, a Burlington fireman, whose home has been at Alliance, has been transferred to Ravenna and will move there about the 15th of this month. He left on Tuesday and will be followed by Mrs. Mahoney.

Wm. Shumway, manager of the Foster Lumber Company, at Crawford, was in the city Tuesday on his way to the North Platte Valley, where he has an irrigated farm.

George Cook, of Madison, S. D., is the new jeweler at Brennan's.

Dan Zimmerman, of Somerset, Pa., a millionaire cattleman and capitalist, who has large interests in this section of the state, as well as in Wyoming and Montana, was in the city Saturday.

County Judge L. A. Berry left the first of the week for Lander, Wyoming, where he will spend several weeks on a hunting and fishing trip. Lander is in a nook in a corner of the Rocky Mountains, and fishing is plentiful. In Judge Berry's absence Attorney B. F. Gilman will act as county judge, having been appointed by the county commissioners.

Fred Melick, a Hemingford business man, was in Alliance Wednesday taking in the carnival.

Attorney B. F. Gilman made a business trip to Scottsbluff the first of the week.

Mrs. J. W. Bowman of Lewiston, Montana, is here visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. C. Drake.

Mrs. Norman Williams, who is visiting relatives at Winona, Minn., writes friends that she is enjoying herself greatly and is rapidly recovering from the effects of her recent operation at the Alliance hospital.

Dr. C. E. Stagle, Cal Hasiman and Pete Schott are recent purchasers of Ford autos from Lowry & Henry, agents.

Margaret Zehrung, who was recently operated on at St. Joseph's hospital for appendicitis, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Dannie Criley, of Livingston, Montana, are visiting Mrs. Moran, of Alliance. She will return to Livingston with them in a short time for a visit there.

Mrs. Jack Mann, of Bridgeport, came up the first of the week and took with her to the ranch her two nieces, Misses Elizabeth and Josephine Wilson, who will visit her for a month.

Bill Becker returned on Saturday from his extended auto trip with Mrs. Becker and the rest of the family. Bill started out in his new Studebaker auto and covered several hundred miles, visiting eastern Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado points, getting back as far as Bridgeport in the car. They took the train on in Saturday noon.

J. B. Saeger left Monday night for Ludington, Michigan, where his wife is spending the summer.

Mrs. J. C. Berry and Mrs. Jack Ward are entertaining at a Kensington party this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ewing Wright of Dunning.

St. Joseph Hospital Notes

Mr. Bovine who was operated on some time ago at St. Joseph Hospital returned to his home in Marsland, Wednesday noon.

Mr. Robbins of Chadron was operated on last Saturday and is making good progress toward recovery.

Mrs. Jackson who was operated on some time ago at the Hospital is getting along fine and will leave for her home soon.

Mrs. Fred Reeves who has been in the Hospital for some time and who underwent an operation is much improved in health and has gone to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Cox are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter, who came to make her home with them. Mrs. Cox and daughter are at St. Joseph Hospital.

Sister M. Gratiana of St. Ann's Convent, Buffalo, New York, who was sent here for treatment, was operated on last Monday morning by Dr. Stagle, a large tumor being removed. She has been very sick following the operation but is reported better this morning.

Vera Lowry was operated on this morning at the Hospital and is getting along all right. She is the daughter of Lincoln Lowry, the garage man.

REPORT OF ATTENDANCE AT FIRES

Following is a report of the attendance of volunteer firemen at fires, as registered at the club rooms, date of fire, location.

July 22, 6 p. m. 111 Cheyenne Ave., residence of Queen Snow, Company No. 1, H. H. Anderson, T. P. Rolfsen, Ray Trabant and Geo. R. Nation, Company No. 2, J. W. Liggett, D. E. Jacobs, Lloyd C. Thomas, Hook and Ladder, H. P. Large, Wm. Monier.

July 31, 3 p. m. 820 Box Butte Avenue, residence of Glen Miller, Company No. 1, Geo. Watson, L. C. Watson, Richard Young, H. H. Hudson, Ward Hall, Company No. 2, Frank Merritt, N. T. Shawver, Lloyd C. Thomas, F. D. McCormick, Hook and Ladder, Harold Snyder.

August 1, 711 Missouri Ave. 5:30 p. m. Company No. 1, H. H. Hudson, Geo. Watson, R. F. Young, L. C. Watson, Ward Hall, M. G. Holdridge, Company No. 2, E. Bullock, J. W. Liggett, Lloyd C. Thomas, B. Rowland, D. E. Jacobs, Hook and Ladder, W. Root, Wm. Maunier, Frank L. Fox.

A number of other firemen were at these fires but failed to register after the fires. Blanks are provided for this purpose at the club rooms. Members will not be given credit for attendance unless registered.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

T. G. (Dad) Winder, who presides over the destinies of the Electric

EVERYTHING

in the summer goods line has taken a big fall in price at the Norton store buys a fine cassimere or worsted up-to-the-minute style of suit.

$11

Worth up to $16.50.

Men's and Boys' Oxfords 1-4 off
Straw Hats, 1-2 price

NORTON'S

Show with the carnival company, celebrated his fifty-third birthday at a local hotel last night, upon which joyous occasion there were present most of the members of the carnival company. "Dad" swears by his beard that he is fifty-three, but it is on record that he fought in the battle of Bull Run over fifty years ago and was a brave and valiant soldier.

DERR-SHARP

Miss Bertha L. Sharp, of Scottsbluff county, and Joseph Derr, of Box Butte county, living near Malinda, were married yesterday afternoon by acting county judge B. F. Gilman.

Alliance Concert Band Open For Fair Engagements

Norton Stock DRY GOODS Changes Hands

HAVING finally made a deal for the above stock of merchandise we find an over supply of Summer Goods. In order to reduce this supply and also to become better acquainted with the people of Alliance and vicinity we are going to offer all Summer Goods at a tremendous reduction.

Following are a few of the many low prices we are making:

Our line of HOSIERY reduced as follows: 20c values now 15c 35c values now 25c 65c values now 50c	Children's Parasols 15c values, 8c 20c values, 11c 35c values, 18c Ladies' Parasols, 1/2 price	Silk and Lisle elbow and two button Gloves $1.25 values 89c .85 values 59c .65 values 39c .25 and .35 values 19c	Ladies' and Children's Gauze Underwear 15c values now 9c 25c and 35c values now 19c 50c and 65c values now 39c
	Muslin Underwear reduced 1/4	SUMMER WASH GOODS reduced 1/3 to 1/2

In addition to the above we have extra values on the hook at prices that speak for themselves

Ladies' Waists All Silk and Sheer Waists reduced 1/3	All of our Laces and Dress Trimmings reduced 1/3 during this sale	100 pieces of silk on sale at prices that are bound to make them go.
Oxfords for Ladies and Children We will not consider cost in making you prices on this line	Ladies' and Children's Dresses and House Dresses One lot at 69c Balance at reduction of 25 per cent	Embroidery In this line nothing will be reserved 1 lot worth 10c now 5c 1 lot worth 15 and 20c now 11c 1 lot worth 25 and 35c now 19c 1 lot worth 40 and 50c now 33c
Japanese Grass Rugs at 1/2 price

We will also give a discount of 10% for cash on everything not included in this sale

Come in and get acquainted. Take advantage of our reduced prices by supplying your present wants and future needs. Remember, we are not offering you junk, but are offering as good, clean line of merchandise as you will find anywhere

F. E. STEARNS, Prop.