SON OF N. A. KIRK HERE

Says Father is in Serious Condition, and May Not Recover; Ruptured Blood Vessel in Brain

Edwin G. Kirk, son of N. A. Kirk of Alliance, who was stricken with an attack of apoplexy while in a Sioux City, Iowa, hotel Monday, Sep. 1, is in the city today looking after his father's affairs.

Mr. Kirk states that his father is still in a very serious condition, his entire right side being paralyzed. The illness was caused by a broken blood vessel at the base of the brain. It is very doubtful whether or not he will recover. An operation would be of no benefit and would be very dangerous.

The son stated that Mr. Kirk's brain is clouded and that it is not known whether or not his mind is affected.

The next term of district court has been postponed from October 20 to 27. The term will be short, as there are no jury cases to be tried, all trials being in equity.

Jim Donovan, "Sunny Jim", and his son took a hunting trip down in the hills near Bingham last week, going on Monday and returning Saturday, with sixty-five of the feathered tribe. The son is now taking a visit with friends at Chadron. Jim says he may not return alone.
