SELLS THINGS

A deal consummated between F. M. Broome and F. E. Holsten transfers Broome's one-half interest in the Syndicate Block to Holsten, the cash consideration involving several thousand dollars. The block and opera house is now owned by the Syndicate Block Co., with F. W. Harris and F. E. Holsten as principal stockholders and these gentlemen will continue the management of the opera house.

Mr. Broome leaves today for British Columbia. The townsite company in connection with the Grand Trunk railroad is building their main division point on the new line now building between Edmonton and

F. M. BROOME

Prince Rupert at Fort Fraser, and Mr. Broome believes that to profit from the boom following the completion of the road, which is expected next May, one must get in ahead of the road. Mrs. Broome and daughter will continue to reside in their home in Alliance during his absence in Canada.

The Lincoln Land Co. has appointed

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

If you owe Norton, pay it before nine o'clock Saturday night and get votes in the piano contest.

ed as local agent in his place at Alliance F. W. Harris, who will continue looking after the sale of townsite lots. J. D. Emerick, the bonded abstractor, will move into the office vacated by Mr. Broome and he will continue the agency for the Connecticut Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Broome says that it is his belief that a man could go into any part of the civilized world and he would find no town or city as desirable from every point of view in which to live, either from the standpoint of active business or social life, as Alliance. Having been through the first settlement in three different parts of the United States, the old spirit is again calling and he wants to tackle it again before the onward march of civilization wipes out the last of remaining frontiers and it is for this reason alone and not from any dissatisfaction of loss of faith in Alliance that he is leaving.

Dr. Stagle's sisters, who have been visiting him for several days, return to their homes in Oregon, Ill., and Madison, Nebr., tonight.
