RECOVERING SLOWLY

While in Hyannis on Thursday the editor met J. W. Glass, father of William Glass of Alliance. Mr. Glass is a carpenter. Some weeks ago he sustained an injury to his left hip that is not only painful but which will probably lay him off from work for some time to come. He was in Alliance for treatment for a few weeks after receiving the injury, receiving treatment. He is able to go about with crutches, but being unable to work is a great grief to him as he always had good health before meeting with the accident.
